LETTER FROM A. W. McLEAN.

the close districts and Democratic Senators from the close states. In a number of the close states and districts in the north and west this work is imperative, if we are to maintain our prestige in the Congressional elections this fall.

President Wilson is in full sympathy with the efforts of the committee, and is very anxious that an unusual effort be made at this time to keep the voters informed as to what the party is doing. The present administration is peculiarly identified with the people of North Carolina. The president has shown his friendship for us by appointing a large number of North Carolinians to the most important places in connection with his administration.

Our Senators and Representatives in Congress are taking a more active part than those from any other state in the great work the Democratic party is doing and, in every way North Carolinians are more intimately associated with the present administration than with any in the history of the government since its foundation.

I am exceedingly anxious that the party in our state should do its part to support an administration so closely identified with our own people.

To properly carry on this important work throughout the whole country, a considerable amount of money must necessarily be raised. The only proper method of raising it is to all on loyal Democrats of the rank and file for voluntary contributions.

While I have communicated directly with a large number of Democrats in the State, yet I realize that it is impossible for me to write directly to all, and I have concluded to address this letter through the Democratic Press in order that the Democrats may have an opportunity to make a contribution. Checks may be made payable to Rolla Wells, Treasurer of the Democratic National Committee, or to myself, and forwarded to me, at Lumberton, N. C.

Thanking you in anticipation of your help and co-operation in this matter, I am,

Yours truly,
A. W. McLEAN.

COTTON.

Reported by R. H. Fountree & Co., New York.

New York, June 26.—The most important development of the week has been the totally unexpected embarrassment of the largest dry goods merchants in the country. The H. B.
Claffin Company paper has always been considered a Gilt Edge commercial collateral. The financial district received the news on Thursday with more of a shock than has been experienced in some time. The amount involved estimated between $30,000,000 and $40,000,000, represents the largest mercantile embarrassment in the history of the country.

The causes leading up to the present difficulty have not been fully explained by those in a position to speak with authority. The one reason assigned was the change that has taken place in the retail goods center of New York City, which has not only necessitated an enormous outlay of capital for the purchase of real estate, and the erection of buildings, but has left on the hands of those compelled to shift to other locations: extensive property in the old district. It is easy to see how this upheaval has worked to the disad-vantage of these stores catering to the New York trade. It is still too early to estimate the effects of the week's developments in this particular, as the ramifications are very complicated and far reaching.

The cotton market received the news with more equanimity than might have been expected. This was due to the fact that prices have already declined about 70 points, to the fact that a serious dander in July-August exists in Liverpool, which tends to hold New York prices, and to the recent weather conditions in the South.

After ten days or two weeks very favorable weather, high temperatures suddenly appeared throughout the cotton belt, leading to more or less nervousness on the part of various market interests. While high temperatures will undoubtedly do more good than harm over the extensive area recently benefited by ample rains, there is nevertheless a considerable portion of Tennessee, Arkansas and North Carolina where high temperatures will cause deterioration. The plant has therefore reached another interesting stage in its developments. The outlook will be improved or impaired with the settlements of the question of moisture in the next ten days or two weeks. In other words, the market will continue under the influence of weather conditions. If unfavorable, higher prices; if favorable, lower prices may be expected.

Without some rain in the sections above mentioned apprehension is likely to increase. Texas and Oklahoma have improved decidedly and it is now generally expected that the forthcoming Bureau will show an improvement of from three to four points.

Indians Celebrate With Whites at Fort Collins.

Fort Collins, July 2.—Fort Collins is celebrating her fiftieth birthday today. It isn't the exact anniversary, for the town was founded in May of 1864. But at that time of the year, the dry farmers and the lamb feeders are too busy to take the necessary lay-off for a celebration. So it was decided to set the date for July 2. Today, tomorrow, and Saturday, Fort Collins will be thronged with thousands of visitors from all over the Rocky Mountain territory.

Today when the main events of the celebration take place, there will be a big parade of pioneers. A few of the founders of the town will survive, and they will ride in the parade, dressed in garments like those they wore when they first set up their sod shanties and started to break the prairie sod. Ox teams, drawing canvas-roofed prairie schooners, will be the conveyances for the pioneers and their families. Indians will take part in the parade. Every day of the three, there will be west sports.
Performances by a wild west show will be part of the program, and there will be contests, open to all comers, in riding bucking horses, roping steers, and other feats of the range. Company races, with men and women jockeys, will be held every day.

praise undertakers bestow upon him.

HOW TO BEAUTIFY THE HAIR

A Simple and Inexpensive Home Method.

If your hair is not pretty; if it is losing its color, too dry, matted, falling out, or if the scalp itches and burns, you can overcome all of these conditions by using Parisian Sage, which supplies every hair need. It soaks right into the hair roots, stimulating them and furnishing the nourishment that is needed for the hair to grow not only long and heavy, but fluffy, soft, lustrous and gloriously radiant.

You can get a bottle of this inexpensive, yet delightful and helpful hair tonic from J. E. Hood & Co., or at any drug store. Improvement begins with the very first application.
Besides stopping the scalp irritation it removes every bit of dandruff. The use of this unequalled hair tonic will surely give your hair new life and beauty. Adv.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Patron, Ky.—Is an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without tire tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.
