Monday Evening..... July 20, 1914.

The escape of the young Atlanta women is giving their mother a great deal of anxiety. It is hard to understand their disappearance unless they are victims of white slavers.

The purchase of a $500 bull calf by a farmer in Edgecombe indicates that the modern ideas are taking hold. It has been demonstrated that it pays to have the best stock.

The seventh case of bubonic plague has been reported from New Orleans. The action of other gulf ports in establishing a rigid quarantine, since the outbreak of the disease, was wise for it seems in spite of the prompt action of the authorities, there is much more contagion than was at first anticipated.

If Mexico continues to settle its ex-presidents in Paris and they succeed in making their get away with as much of the muzzuma as did old Man Diaz and the "late" Mr. Huerta the position of ex-president will be decidedly in the nature of a promotion and continual rotation in office may be looked for.

Governor Craig has issued an appeal for aid for the farmers of Mecklenburg, Gaston and Cleveland counties, which were recently visited by a severe storm and all crops practically destroyed. Let the people of this section, where prosperity reigns, come to the aid of their unfortunate brothers, many of whom lost practically their worldly possessions. Contributions may be sent to Governor Craig.

KINSTON'S GROWTH.

No better evidence of a city's growth can be had than the increase in its water and light receipts. Kinston's figures for these necessities show an increase of more than 15 per cent. for the fiscal year ending May 1, as compared with the year immediately preceding; and for the four years preceding of more than 40 per cent. In 1913 the amount taken in from water and lights was $26,631.84 and in 1914 $30,795.81. The cost of operating in 1913 exceeded by a few dollars the amount taken in but in 1914 there was a margin of $6,895.56.

MR. THOMAS' WITHDRAWAL.

The withdrawal of Mr. Chas. R. Thomas from the congressional race in the third district makes it unnecessary for a run off primary and leaves the field to Mr. Geo. E. Hood, who was declared the nominee by the notorious Goldsboro convention some weeks ago. Mr. Thomas sets forth his reason for withdrawal in a very dignified statement in which he attacks the machine methods of the third district committee. He calls attention to the excessive fee of $1,000 which the candidates are required to put up and to the high handed arrogance of power of the committee.

As Mr. Thomas says, the fight in the third district is as good evidence of the crying need of a state wide legalized primary as can be found. Mr. Hood enjoys a splendid reputation and from all reports is a man of high antone character but he will add nothing to the luster of his career by accepting the nomination as it now is offered to him. Far better for him, too, to withdraw and demand that the people be given a chance to express their choice so that there may be no taint or question to the title of the nominee. The Free Press doesn't believe Mr. Thomas will lose anything in the long run by his action.

MR. McREYNOLDS

Attorney General McReynolds is mentioned very prominently for the vacancy in the United States Supreme Court. Some of the Washington correspondents, in commenting on the probability of his appointment, say that he has not been a success as a political adviser to the President and for that reason Mr. Wilson will be more likely to break into his cabinet.

Mr. McReynolds' failure as a political adviser is not the only one that he has made, since becoming a member of the cabinet. He has failed to ring true in a good many instances. His position with reference to the Diggs-Caminetti case was never satisfactorily explained to the public and his attitude toward the investigation of big business, particularly the methods of the New Haven railroad system, failed to give to the people any assurance that he was the man for Attorney General or was of that calibre for any such high position. In fact it is the opinion of many people that he has been a lamentable failure and that he has shown none of those qualities, which measure up to the high standard of the President, Mr. Underwood, Mr. Simmons, Mr. Bryan and other leaders of the administration. A very strong fight would be waged before his nomination for the Supreme Court could be confirmed.

The friends of Mr. Thomas D. Jones of Chicago are urging him to reply to the charges of the majority of the senate committee, which reported adversely on his nomination for member of the Federal Reserve Board. We have every reason to believe that Mr. Jones is a man of the highest type and well fitted for the position. His connection with the International Harvester Trust has been very reasonably explained.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

Or Why Clothes Cost so Much.

(Greensboro News.)
 When George Bailey looks at the fimsies the women wear on the street he finds it "impossible to understand what it is that makes their trunks so heavy."

Not Absolutely sure About It.

 We all make them sometimes. Here is The New York Sun referring to the "National Hose Show" — when it didn't mean a windy morning on the Flatiron corner.

Some Hard Heads Won't Admit It.

(Winston Journal.)
 Those who hooted at Wilson's policy of watchful waiting must now confess that it has been effective. More than likely it would have taken longer than a year for the United States army to Drive Huerta from Mexico.

Wilmington Must Be Very Naughty.

(Wilmington Dispatch.)
 "Where is the old fashioned press-agent," asks the Columbia State, "whose prima-donnas always bathed in champagne?" Alas, his prima-donnas have given away to the comely chorus girls, who are soured with the bubble water by the Johnnie sons of rich men.

(Durham Herald.)
MAKEUP MAN IN BAD MIX-UP
 Transposed Lines of a Wedding and Auction Sale.

In handling of the slugs which make up the lines in a newspaper, and in separating the various items, the makeup man sometimes gets the lines mixed up and they naturally read rather queer. As an illustration of what can happen, we cite the mixup of the Bangor (Pa.) News a few days ago when the printer got a wedding and an auction sale mixed up with the following results:

"William Smith, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Smith, and Miss Lucy Anderson were disposed of at public auction at my farm one mile east, in the presence of 70 guests, including two mules and 12 head of cattle.

Rev. Jackson tied the nuptial knot for the parties, averaging 1,250 pounds on hoof. The beautiful home of the bride was decorated with one sulky rake, one feed grinder and two sets of work harness, nearly new, and just before the ceremony was pronounced the Maudel and Sons wedding march was rendered by one milch cow, five years old, one Jersey cow and one sheep, who carrying a bunch of bride's roses in her hand was very beautiful. She wore one
