BEWARE OF CALOMEL.
—DON'T TAKE IT.

Calomel is just another form of mercury, and you ought to know how uncertain, how disagreeable in effect and how dangerous calomel sometimes is. Perhaps you know several people who have been salivated by what they thought was a very light dose of calomel.

Next time you have an attack of biliousness, or when your liver has gotten sluggish, go to E. B. Marston Drug Co., and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. You will find it a pleasant tasting, vegetable, liquid remedy which takes the place of calomel in every good respect and without the dangerous after-effects of calomel.

Dodson's Liver Tone gives the liver just the amount of gentle stimulation it needs to induce it to do its work properly and thoroughly. You get a large bottle for fifty cents and you can have your money returned right where you made your purchase if Dodson's Liver Tone fails to please you and prove that it takes the place of calomel perfectly. Isn't that fair?

CURES PIMPLES EASILY.

Simple Remedy That Clears Skin Quickly of All Eruptions.

For several weeks past J. E. Hood & Co., Druggists have done a big business in selling Hokara, the skin healer that has won so many friends in Kinston.

It has been found to heal not only all minor skin troubles, such as pimples, blackheads, herpes, acne, scaly scalp, complexion blemishes, itching feet, piles, etc., but also the worst sores, ulcers, or even chronic eczema and salt rheum. There is yet to be found any form of wound or disease affecting the skin or mucous membrane that Hokara does not help, and its action is so quick that those who try it are simply delighted with it from the start.

In spite of its unusual curative power, the price is trifling. To convince every one of its merits J. E. Hood & Co., will sell a liberal-sized jar for 25c. And remember that if you do not think it does what it claims, you can get your money back. You certainly can afford to try it on this plan.

White Costumes Seen at the Races

At those fashionable sporting events in and near Paris, which are attended by a great concourse of people more interested in styles than anything else, one may expect to see the best efforts of the most capable designers of apparel in the world. The Jockey club races at Auteuil, the French Derby at Chantilly and the event of the Grand Prix mark the launching of ideas for the coming fall, as Easter sees them on parade for the summer which follows it. Here is a snapshot picture, taken at Chantilly, in which gowns made up in midsummer are cut or altered that promise for fall. As the last word in summer styles, and as showing changes in style tendencies they are equally interesting.

At the right a gown of white taffeta is a model of elegance and midsummer comfort. The model could be copied in light-weight linen or in white voile, or voile and taffeta combined, with just as good results. From the standpoint of durability linen and fine cotton crepes are most reliable.

It will be seen that the underskirt is wide enough to allow a comfortable stride and that the tunic is longer than those of earlier design. It is laid in side plaits all around and finished with a hemstitched two-inch hem at the bottom. The blouse is plain, with three-quarter-length sleeves. It is finished with a sailor collar and turn-back cuffs, with its only decoration a small lace vest and hemstitching on sleeves and collar.

A white satin hat, lined with black velvet and trimmed with white feathers, a black enamel and rhinestone brooch, a broad black ribbon sash, with white shoes and stockings, make up the details of this exquisite toilette.

At the left a gown in white crepe and heavy lace repeats the plain skirt and long tunic style just described. It is completed with a little coat opening over a silk vest, which is cleverly cut into long points. Very handsome fine pearl buttons are set close together down the front of the vest.

The helmet turban of white feathers is a fad in which fashionables are indulging just now. It has one point of advantage over white satin or silk hats—it will outlast them in usefulness. Made of feathers it may be worn in the winter time.

Black slippers and white stockings and a very broad sash of white ribbon complete this graceful costume.
