SOFT, FLUFFY HAIR AIDS
BEAUTY AND PERSONALITY.

Girls and women of all ages want to be charming, beautiful and attractive—it's their birthright—but stringy, thin and lifeless hair destroys half the beauty of a pretty face.

If your hair is not beautiful, is falling out, streaky, full of dandruff, too dry, or if the scalp itches and burns, use Parisian Sage. Rub it well into the scalp. It will go right to the hair roots, nourish them, and stimulate the hair to grow strong and luxuriant. Parisian Sage removes dandruff with one application, cools and invigorates the scalp and makes the hair doubly beautiful.

Parisian Sage is a scientifically made preparation that gives the hair just what is needed to make it soft, fluffy, thick and gloriously radiant.
It is inexpensive, and can be had from any druggist or from J. E. Hood & Co., or at any drug store. (adv't.)

SOCIAL And PERSONAL

Mr. Edgar W. Hargett is in Durham on business.

Mr. Glenn C. Walter of Washington spent today here.

Mr. Orin Weeks has been spending a few days in Morehead City.

Miss Edna Letha Hargett left Wednesday for Greensboro, to enter the State Normal College.

Mr. R. A. G. Barnes, traveling agent of the A. C. L. Railroad, was a Kinston visitor today.

The firms of Barrett & Hartsfield, Chamberlain & Braxton and J. M.
Stephenson will have their fall millinery openings next Tuesday.

A. M. Waddell Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, will meet tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. G. H. Herring.

Miss Jessie Wingate, one of the teachers in the public schools, was summoned to her home in Rock Hill, S. C., Thursday night on account of the serious illness of her mother. The message was received just as the night train for Goldsboro blew for the station, and with the assistance of Mr. and Mrs. K. R. Tunstall, with whom she boarded, and other friends, Miss Wingate was rushed to the station in time to catch the train. Mr.
Tunstall had preceded the young lady and gotten the conductor to hold the train for a few minutes.

State Superintendent of Education J. Y. Joyner and his son, Mr. W. T.
Joyner, of Raleigh, spent Thursday night in the city, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Rouse. The younger Mr. Joyner is a nephew of Mrs.
Rouse, and came down for a short visit before leaving next week to resume his law studies at Harvard University. Superintendent Joyner was on his way home from holding an institute in Rocky Mount. They both left on the morning train for La Grange to visit other relatives and from there they return to Raleigh.

New Orleans Paper Criticise.

"The New Orleans newspapers are still at war with the Era Club, and if not so bloody as the European war it is none the less wordy. The New Orleans papers have been sparring for an opening to declare war against the Era Club, and especially against the Misses Gordon, for several years.
Some time ago Miss Jean Gordon, in the exercise of her duties as factory inspector, found it necessary to compel one of the dailies to not only sanitary up, but to comply with the child labor laws, which it was violating.
This added to the antagonism of the papers, and when the mule-eared pencil pusher for the Times-Picayune glued himself to the key hole of the Club room and reported the proceedings of their executive session, the psychological moment was thought to have arrived for opening the ball.
There is no more potent factor in the fight for a cleaner and better New Orleans than the Era Club; and there are no members of the Era Club that have done more or worked harder for the moral uplift of the City than the Misses Gordon. The member of the Era Club who presented the resolution of sympathy made a mistake and the Club may have made a mistake in not indorsing the resolution after it was presented, but the New Orleans papers have made the greatest mistake in using this mistake as an opening to precipitate the fight they have been so long itching for.

The Item says, (Aug 26: "It is the deed the Era Club has done * * * not the persons who did it * * * that the Item criticises." This veil is too thin to disguise the motive that lurks behind it; and certainly no disinterested person can believe the Item is wasting its entire vocabulary in attacking a deed that was of no possible importance to the public and of but little importance to the membership of the Era Club. If the Item were in sympathy with the work of the Era Club it would endeavor to shield it from the results of its mistakes, rather than hold it up to censure and ridicule."

Work in Kentucky.

Organization work in Kentucky is proceeding vigorously by suffragists, and twenty-three counties were visited in two weeks with splendid results by way of new suffrage leagues. Subscriptions and contributions for the seven campaign States are being received by Mrs. Deaks Breckenridge.

BIG BUOY TENDER IVY SHUT IN AT LOOKOUT

Morehead City, Sept. 18.—Weather-bound in the Sound on the inside from Cape Look out is the buoy tender Ivy, of the United States Lighthouse service. The Ivy is the largest ship in that service, being about 200 feet in length and carrying a crew of twenty-seven men. The tender, equipped for ocean work, carries four large buoys, one of them a big bell floater.
She is awaiting the clearing away of the bad weather at sea.

HARD TO PICK WINNER IN NATIONAL LEAGUE.

The Most Interesting Race the Senior Major League Has Staged for Many Years, Is Drawing to a Close.

(By Hal Sheridan
For United Press.)

It will be many a year, in all likelihood, before such a race as is being staged in the National League this season will be duplicated. The teams are now in the stretch, there being only two weeks more to go and as yet picking the winner is a precarious occupation.

There is no doubt but what Manager John McGraw of the Giants played a trump card when he annexed Marty O'Toole of $22,500 fame, from the Pirates. With the latter club, this red-topped spitball artist was a failure—due to a great many things. With the Giants he is more than apt to prove one of the best pitchers in the National League. The Giants and Braves have that thing called reserve strength—that something to fall back upon when a tight place is reached. In the case of the Giants Christy Mathewson is largely the team's reserve strength. In times of need McGraw always calls upon the Old Master to save him, and it is seldom that the great pitcher doesn't come through with winning colors.

At Boston George Stallings, constitutes most of the reserve strength. No matter how blue the outlook, the Braves' fighting manager is urging his players on to their limit and then some. He never quits and will not tolerate on his club a player who will ever say beaten until the last man is out.

The St. Louis Cardinals have made a great showing this year and the Mound City fans cried for a pennant.
But the reserve strength wasn't there and when they hit the tight places the team blew up. There was nothing to fall back upon.

SALVATIONISTS CANNOT LOCATE BARRACKS.

Agents of the Salvation Army, who have been trying to get quarters here for barracks during the past several weeks, declare that they have been unable to find a suitable place, and this may delay the opening of a post of the army in Kinston. Meanwhile this city will remain in the territory of New Bern. The barracks would have to be large enough for chapel purposes, and conveniently located.
Soldiers today are taking subscriptions here for the Salvationists' mission work at large.

CARNIVALS BARRED FROM ROCKY MOUNT.

Rocky Mount, Sept. 17.—No carnivals will be allowed to exhibit in Rocky Mount during the present city administration, according to decision reached by Mayor L. F. Tillery and Chief of Police Hedgepeth.

War to Bring Votes for Women.

The Chicago Journal editorially comments on the probable effect of the European War on Woman Suf-rage. The Journal says: "The loss and suffering which this war is bound to entail will be a powerful argument for peace, and for the entry into politics of the sex which can be depended upon to use its influence for peace. If England emerges from this war victorious, it would seem almost certain that English women will gain the ballot. French women are reaping the nation's harvests, doing as much of its factory work as possible, keeping the wheel of industry turning somehow, while their husbands, brothers and sons are at the front. Win or lose, it seems probable that the cause of political equality is bound to gain in France from the war."

Amendment Action Postponed.

By a vote of three to three the Rules Committee of the House postponed until the next session of Congress consideration of the proposed Women Suffrage Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.
