OIL TREATMENT FOR STOMACH TROUBLES.

A simple prescription made up of a combination of pure vegetable oils is producing wonderful results for sufferers from stomach, liver and intestinal troubles. The remedy, which is said to have originated in France, where it has been used for years by the peasantry, was introduced into this country by George H. Mayr, a leading Chicago druggist, who cured himself of severe stomach, liver and intestinal troubles by its use.
Those who have used it say the first dose is sufficient to convince any one of its remarkable merit, and that within twenty-four hours the sufferer feels like a new person. This medicine, which has become known as Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy, is now sold by first class druggists everywhere. It is now sold here by J. E. Hood & Co.

MRS. D. V. DIXON DIES IN BALTIMORE

Death Came Following An Operation
In a Baltimore Hospital, Monday Night—Remains Arrived Here
This Afternoon.

Mrs. D. V. Dixon, the wife of one of Kinston's best known business men and the mother of Messrs. E. P. and D. L. Dixon, Miss Lucille Dixon and Master William Dixon, died in Baltimore Monday night at 10 o'clock.
Death followed an operation in the Hebrew Hospital in Baltimore. The funeral arrangements have not been made. The remains arrived in this city this afternoon.

Mrs. Dixon was fifty-three years of age. She was Miss Corinne Patrick, and a member of a leading Greene county family, before her marriage.
She came to Kinston with Mr. Dixon and their children fifteen years ago from Hookerton.

A woman of splendid character, traits and attractive manner, Mrs.
Dixon had many friends in the city and the vicinity. She was a member of the Methodist church, and Rev.
H. A. Humble, pastor of Queen Street church, will conduct the funeral.

Another Ghost Laid.
John McGuire, a person who does not believe in spectres or anything like spectres, was lying in bed waiting to be devoured by sleep, when, in turning over, he happened to open his eyes. Behold! something that almost scared him to death. He could hardly move with fright. He watched it for a few seconds. According to his story it was a ghost, that raised its hand every little while and pointed toward him. Plucking up nerve, he got out of bed and made for Friend Spectre. It raised its arm and pointed at him again. He shrank back; but when he made another move in its direction, the arm went up again. McGuire made a lunge and grabbed it.
It was his shirt. He had placed it on the back of a chair close to a window, and the wind did the rest.

DAME FASHION MAKES GORGEOUS SHOWING

Ideal Weather Smiled On Fall and Winter Openings of Barrett and Hartsfield, J. M. Stephenson and Chamberlain and Braxton.

BARRETT AND HARTSFIELD HAVE SPLENDID DISPLAY.

The weather was auspicious for the fall millinery opening at the Barrett & Hartsfield store today. On the second floor, the department devoted to ladies' headwear, was one of the three most popular places in town during the day. The showing, every fair caller agreed, was just about as complete as could be desired. Every model that Dame Fashion has devised for the season, with every shade that is proper, was to be seen. The crowd was one of the largest to yet attend an opening at the Barrett & Hartsfield store, and certainly one of the most pleased. The millinery department in the store is a big, roomy place, with every facility for advantageous display, and the new styles were set off in charming array.

J. M. STEPHENSON STORE SUSTAINS ITS REPUTATION

The J. M. Stephenson Ladies' Store was crowded all day with ladies to view the fall millinery and other offerings of the season there, displayed for the first time. The showing was one of the most complete ever brought to Kinston, and was composed of the selections of experts in the line. The styles were varied and embraced every model of the season, with a complete assortment of the latest trimmings. The colors authorized, were in evidence throughout the shop, and with suitable decorations for the occasion, made an attractive scene. The stephenson stock, according to competent critics, is the most complete ever offered in this store, which has long been known locally and in neighboring towns as a nearly ideal center for women shoppers.

SHOW WELL SELECTED MODELS

Chamberlain and Braxton are showing today their new models in hats for ladies for the coming season. The display is evidence of the good taste of Mrs. Chamberlain and Miss Braxton, and is their very best effort yet. The shapes and shades are the gleanings of weeks of study of the styles in northern cities. The shop was filled from an early hour with prospective purchasers and those who simply went to gratify the perfectly natural feminine curiosity concerning such matters. The proprie-tresses received innumerable compliments on the completeness of their selection and the attractiveness of the display. Practically all the new foreign and American designs are exhibited, and prices, fair authorities assert, are as pleasing as the hats are practical and pretty.

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work."

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. - By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored.
I am now 48 years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial.
It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.
