FAMOUS INDIAN COMING

WITH 101 RANCH, OCT. 6.

These are busy days for Iron Tail, leader of the Indians with the 101 Ranch Real Wild West, which comes here on Tuesday, October 6, at the baseball park. The old Indian, be it known, is as famous among the red men as Andrew Carnegie or President Wilson is among the people who now occupy the lands that once were the sole possessions of Iron Tail's forefathers.

To visit the redman's tepee, the "summer white house" of the chief of all the Sioux, so to speak, reveals to the visitor just how busy a real Indian can be. Secretaries? Bosh! No need for any kind of an amanuensis.

When Iron Tail has a proclamation to give his people, or anything officially Indian that requires publication throughout his nation he merely shouts it out from in front of his tepee, the stolid followers grunting their approval or gutterally signifying that the word has been understood.

Then the unofficial secretaries get busy. They are the Carlisle graduates with the exhibition. A letter to the Indian agent conveys the news.

Charley Yellow Bird is the chief unofficial secretary, and like all secretaries, Charley is something of a mixer and Lothario. He is the special pride of the Indian village, and his admirers include a number of pretty young ladies who pine for the breath of the ranch and a stout pony.
Yellow Bird, quite conscious of the attention he attracts, is a busy young man during the hours spectators are admitted to the Indian village, and a majority of his secretarial duties are discharged during that time.

FALLING HAIR OR ITCHING SCALP

Surely Cease When You Use Parisian Sage—Makes Your Hair
Soft and Fluffy.

Now that Parisian Sage—a scientific preparation that supplies every hair and scalp need—can be had at any drug counter, or from E. B. Marston Drug Co., it is certainly needless to have thin, brittle, matted, stringy or faded hair. No matter how unsightly your hair, how badly it is falling, or how much dandruff, Parisian Sage is all that is needed. Every trace of dandruff is removed with one application, the hair roots are nourished and stimulated to grow new hair, itching scalp and falling hair cease—your hair becomes soft, fluffy, abundant and radiant with life and beauty.

Parisian Sage is surely one of the most invigorating and refreshing hair preparations known. It is easily used at home —not expensive, and even one applica-

SPECIAL SERVICES AT THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH NEXT SUNDAY MORNING.

The Promotion Day of the Bible School will be observed in the Christian church next Sunday morning.
The school will assemble as usual at 10 o'clock. After the opening exercises the classes will spend about twenty minutes upon the lesson for the day. Each teacher in the grades will close up the work of the Sunday school year, and give parting words to the class. Then all classes will assemble in the main auditorium of the Sunday school about 10:45 for the graduation and promotion of classes. The exercises will be of a very simple character and will require about an hour.

There will be no preaching Sunday morning. The entire time will be given to the Bible school work. Those who are not members of the school, but desire to attend the exercises should be at the church by 10:45 a. m.

The Lord's Supper will be observed at the evening service.

AGRICULTURE TO BE STUDIED ON FARMS.

Washington, Sept. 24.—Taking a miniature agricultural college course directly "back to the farm" is a new enterprise of the government and various states, according to recent announcement of the Department of Agriculture.

Formation of home classes of farmers and farm women for rural instruction without having them step foot off their own doorstep is the plan. Classes of ten or more farmers or farm women will be organized for home instruction in farming and domestic science, and will be furnished textbooks, lectures, lantern slides and laboratory and cooking equipment, in co-operation with State agricultural colleges, experiment stations and the department.

"The object of the plan," the department announces, "is to make accessible at home, to men and women who have not the time or means to attend the regular courses in colleges practical short courses in agriculture and home management especially adapted to their districts.

"These courses will consist of from 15 to 20 lectures and will consume five or more weeks, and can be arranged to suit the spare time and convenience of each group of people."

Initial courses will be offered in farm bookkeeping, poultry raising, fruit growing, soils, cheese making, dairying and butter making and for women in cooking and preparing various foods.

CALL OFF GERMAN DAY CELEBRATION.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 25.—German Day, the annual celebration of the German-American, which is attended by the sons of the fatherland from all over Nebraska and parts of neighboring States, will not be held in Lincoln this year. At a meeting of the German-American Alliance it was decided that owing to the gigantic struggle Germany is now engaged in, it would not be a suitable time to enthuse thousands of dollars which would be expended in the three-days' celebration, will be sent to the fatherland, where it will be used for the support of the widows and orphans of German soldiers.

For several years the Germans of Nebraska have annually celebrated German Day, spending the three days in social gatherings, listening to patriotic speeches, and the keeping alive of German customs and traditions.
Historical and floral parades have played an important part in the celebrations.

SHRIMP FISHING NEW SOUTHPORT INDUSTRY.

Southport, Sept. 24.—A new industry for Southport is shrimp catching.
Two local fishermen have perfected a net with which they are able to catch 15 or 20 bushels a day. They are paid $1.35 per bushel by a local dealer, who gets a rather fancy price for the shrimp on the New York market.

KAUFMAN, PUGILIST, SUING FOR DIVORCE.

(By the United Press.)
San Francisco, Sept. 25.—Al Kaufman, at one time a contender for the heavyweight championship honors, today is suing for a divorce here from Annette Kaufman. They were married in Pittsburgh, February 2, 1911.
In his complaint, Kaufman asserts that his wife in August of this year visited a San Francisco cafe with people with whom he was not acquainted and that she has persisted in accepting theatrical work against his wishes. He also says she called him names and that he was obliged to leave here the latter part of August.
