FALLING HAIR OR ITCHING SCALP

Surely Cease When You Use Parisian Sage—Makes Your Hair
Soft and Fluffy.

Now that Parisian Sage—a scientific preparation that supplies every hair and scalp need—can be had at any drug counter, or from J. E. Hood Drug Co., it is certainly needless to have thin, brittle, matted, stringy or faded hair. No matter how unsightly your hair, how badly it is falling, or how much dandruff, Parisian Sage is all that is needed. Every trace of dandruff is removed with application, the hair roots are nourished and stimulated to grow new hair, itching scalp and falling hair cease—your hair becomes soft, fluffy, abundant and radiant with life and beauty.

Parisian Sage is surely one of the most invigorating and refreshing hair tonics known. It is easily used at home —not expensive, and even one application proves its goodness. (advt.)

SOCIAL

And

Mr. Roy Deal of Norfolk is a visitor in the city.

Mr. George Willard of Pink Hill was a Kinston visitor today.

Mr. Henry French left this morning to visit relatives in New Bern.

Rev. J. E. Underwood, presiding elder of the New Bern Methodist district, who has been attending the conference here, left this morning for New Bern.

Dr. I. M. Hardy, Messrs. G. V. Cowper, W. E. Mewborn and S. H. Abbott have returned from Washington, where they attended the Episcopal diocesan council's meeting.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Wednesday afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30 o'clock, Miss Julia Hunter Parham entertained about seventy-five of her young friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Parham, 207 West Peyton avenue. The occasion was the celebration of her fifth birthday anniversary, and was a most delightful affair. The home was beautifully decorated with golden red and roses and presented a most inviting scene to the young folks as they were ushered in from the front hall, where punch and other dainty refreshments were served upon their arrival.

The chief feature of the entertainment program was a fishing pond, where mirth and glee were aroused by Hallowe'en favors taken from the pond and distributed among the little guests, as souvenirs of the happy event.

ENJOYABLE SOCIAL.

Rev. Geo. B. Hanrahan, pastor of Atkinson Memorial Presbyterian church, and Mrs. Hanrahan, were the guests of honor last evening at a delightfully informal social gathering in the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Grainger, on North Queen street, from 8 to 10:30 o'clock. The happy affair was arranged by the Ladies' Aid Society of the church, and was splendidly successful, a beautiful spirit of congenial fellowship prevailing throughout.

Receiving the guests at the door were Mr. and Mrs. Hanrahan and Mr. and Mrs. Grainger, who had so generously given the use of their elegant home for the occasion. The house had been tastefully decorated with autumnal flowers, the dining-room being especially pretty. Adorning the table, on a dainty Cluny lace centerpiece, was a crystal basket of lovely roses and sprays of smilax, surrounded by beautiful silver candelabra, and gleaming tapers here and there brightened the scene of loyal and friendly tribute being offered the beloved pastor and his wife.

During the evening the guests were entertained with a number of vocal selections by Miss Pruitt, and Miss May Loomis Smith's rendition of instrumental numbers added much to the pleasure of the occasion.

Delicious refreshments, consisting of fruit frappe, ice cream and cake, were served, the members of the society being assisted in serving by Misses Carrie Duffy Wooten and Ina Mae Lee and Master Elwood Boney.

MOTHERS' PENSION LEGISLATION PRAISED.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—Mothers' pension legislation checks juvenile delinquency and operates to prevent crime, Prof. Robert H. Gault of Northwestern University, editor of the Journal of Criminal Law and Criminology, today reported to the municipal crime commission for which he has conducted an investigation for several months.

"Juvenile delinquency is checked or entirely disappears where the family is enabled to support itself without its being necessary for the mother to be away from her children at work all day," reported Prof. Gault. "Mother love and mother care are the best cure for juvenile delinquency, and therefore a powerful preventive of crime."

HOUSTON ADVOCATES CROP DIVERSIFICATION.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Secretary Houston today sent to a number of Southern exchanges a letter advocating a constructive movement for diversified crops in the South rather than an attempt to merely restrict cotton planters to reduce their acre-to secure and publish pledges from cotton planters to reduce their acreage next season. Restriction, Secretary Houston said he believed would not prove effective.

We will buy a pound of Cotton for every pound of Tobacco we sell

We realize, with all the residents of the South, the present financial stringency due to the cotton situation. We realize that the South must sell its cotton, and we will help in the most practical way we know—by buying cotton.

For every pound sold of all of these famous, popular brands of tobacco and cigarettes (counting 1,000 cigarettes equal to five pounds of tobacco) we will buy from our dealers a pound of cotton at 10c, in accordance with our circular to dealers dated Sept. 28.

We have faith in cotton. We know that when the war clouds roll away, the manufacturing demand for cotton throughout the world will be greater than ever before, and the South will enjoy unprecedented prosperity.
