FREMONT MAN ILL

IN THIS COUNTY.

J. C. Sutton of Fremont has been ill with typhoid fever at the home of his father, R. W. Sutton, near La-Grange. Mr. Sutton is now convalescing.

RURAL TEACHERS

EXAMINED THURSDAY.

Superintendent Joseph Kinsey of the county schools, yesterday conducted examinations of about a dozen rural teachers, white and colored, preparatory to issuing certificates permitting them to teach in the county this fall. The schools, except in special tax districts, where they have in some instances already opened, will begin the fall term on October 26.

JOSIAH BAILEY TO SPEAK

HERE ON OCTOBER 20.

Democratic County Chairman G. V. Cowper today announced that Josiah William Bailey, collector of internal revenue for the Eastern North Carolina District, will speak here at noon on Tuesday, October 20. Collector Bailey is one of the leading Democratic orators in the State, and his speech in Goldsboro Thursday night, opening the campaign in the Gate City, was top-line stuff for the morning papers.

CAMPAIGN EXPENSES

WILL BE SMALL.

The fifteen-day campaign of the Democratic county candidates in Lenoir this month will entail expenses totalling not more than $350, the candidates believe. The price of pork is the biggest item they have to take into consideration, since it will require quite a number of pigs to feed the multitudes at the township speakings in the eleven rural precincts. There will be a barbecue dinner at each place. The campaign will begin Tuesday.

AUTOMATIC ALARM

ENTHUSES FIRE HORSES.

Burt Sellers, the driver of No. 1 wagon of the fire department, says his horses are "crazy" about the new fire alarm apparatus. For a few days after the new system was installed, they didn't "take to" the new gong, and would not work to it because they could not see what made the thing ring or any man pulling the string. A few days' practice did the trick, however, and now at the daily practice the blacks eagerly prance to their places beside the pole at the first tap of the automatically operated bell.

METHODIST S. S. AND

E. L. MEETING CLOSES.

The conference of Sunday schools and Epworth Leagues of the Methodist New Bern district, which was held in Caswell Street church here Wednesday and Thursday, came to a close with exercises conducted by the Epworth League Thursday evening. This morning and late Thursday night the delegates, who were from as far west as Goldsboro, and from as far east as the seashore, returned to their homes. The conference, which was made a permanent organization, includes about 160 Sunday schools, Epworth Leagues and Bible classes, and several thousand pastors, superintendents, teachers and scholars.

KINSTON AND WASHINGTON

HIGH SCHOOLS PLAY TODAY.

The Kinston High School football eleven is playing the Washington High School team in the latter place this afternoon. It is the first game of the season for both aggregations. Kinston carried to Washington the strongest line-up in the history of local high school athletics. The following comprise the team: Ernest Boyd, center; John Herndon, George Knott, Ray Wooten, guards; Clayton Morris, Ely Courie, Willie Fleming, tackles; Paul Whitaker, George Rhodes, ends; Will Lewis, quarter back; Fred Taylor (captain), left half; Alban Barnes, right half; Clay Brewer, fullback. The team was in fine condition when the players left for Washington.

ARMY RECRUITING OFFICE TO BE OPENED IN KINSTON.

If you are out of a job, are a male citizen of the United States between the ages of 18 and 35, and have sound health, go see Uncle Sam about it. A corporal of the recruiting service, U. S. A., arrived late Thursday to arrange minor details for the opening of a recruiting office here in a few days. Lieut. Charles Smart, Ninth Infantry, is expected to come today or tomorrow to perfect the arrangements. Other new offices will be opened in Fayetteville and Rocky Mount. Each will have a non-commissioned officer and possibly one private at work. The Kinston office will solicit enlistments in the country all the way from Goldsboro to the coast. The depression is resulting in big business for the army recruiting men.

FIFTEEN VAGRANTS

IN MUNICIPAL COURT.

It is doubtful if fifteen more extremely industrious citizens could be found in Kinston than were arraigned in City Court late Thursday to answer to the vagrancy charge. All were colored. Every one of the fifteen were temporarily out of work. Several had just returned from vacations, and others had tried from dawn till dusk for days to find employment. Most all were rounded up in loafer's resorts, but not one admitted that he was an habitual idler. The court asked many questions; the defendants parried nicely. Most of them had never bought a drop of whiskey in their lives. Several had, but they had forgotten the dates and from whom, so remote were the recollections. The court frowned and talked in legal language, but there wasn't evidence enough to convict one of the crowd. "Get out of here! Find jobs!" was the conclusion of the session, and the industrious citizens strolled out with dignity and the air of persons wrongly accused.

BOSTON BATTERS TAKE OLD

defeat. His batsmen, the terror of their league, and the wreckers of all who have faced them in world's series, his infield the greatest in the world, a steady, but not sensational pitching staff—the mainstays of which accomplish as much with their brains as with their arms—are his assets.

Mack is sending his great machine after the world's title for the fifth time. Every man is a veteran of at least one struggle. In the line-up of the Braves there are but two men who have ever before smelled the smoke of the big battle. They are Johnny Evers, who aided the Cubs in their fights for the title, and Josh Devore, a former New York giant.

Of the Athletics' veterans, Bender has been under fire in four of the big league combats; Plank, Collins, Baker, Strunk, Lapp and Barry have been through three. Oldring, McInnes, Thomas and Coombs have taken part in two series, while Schang, Bush and Eddie Murphy received their baptism of fire a year ago.

Taking the lead on May 30, the Athletics had a little trouble in again winning the American League pennant this year. They were never headed after they assumed command and enter the series today with the same driving force and strategy which has kept them to the fore. On the other hand, the Braves have made the most sensational fight in the history of baseball. On July 6, the Braves were in last place. Tied the Giants August 24 and clinched pennant October 1.

Upon his pitchers Stallings will pin his faith for victory over the Mackmen. They face the greatest test of their careers in their efforts to spike the guns of the heavy artillery which has wrecked the offerings of such men as Mathewson, Marquard, Tesreau, Overall, Brown and all who have faced them.

The prices for seats are: Boston, boxes $5 each seat; grandstand, $3; pavilions reserved, $2; general admission, $1; 25c bleacher seats, 50c; Philadelphia: Boxes, $5 each seat; grandstand, $3; pavilions, reserved, $2; general admission, $1. The players eligible to participate in the series are: Boston, Cather, Cochrane, Connolly, Cotterel, Crutcher, Davis, Deal, Devore, Rygey, Evers, Gilbert, Gowdy, Hess, James, Maranville, Mann, Martin, Mitchell, Moran, Rudolph, Schmidt, Smith, Strand, Tyler, Whaling, Whitted.

Philadelphia—Baker, Barry, Bender, Bressler, Bush, Collins, Coombs, Davies, Davis, Kopf Lapp McAvoy, McInnes, Murphy, Oldring, Pennock, Plank, Schang, Shawkey, Strunk, Thomas, Thompson, Walsh, Wyckoff.

The umpires selected are Klem and Ryton of the National League, and Dineen and Hildebrand of the American League.

DAY OBSERVED IN DES MOINES

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 9.—Today is fire prevention day in Iowa by proclamation of Governor George W. Clark. All citizens are inspecting their premises and clearing way rubbish to prevent fires when stoves and furnaces are started with the coming of cold weather. Fire Marshal O. O. Roe is assisting city authorities in ascertainment of cities in taking precautions through inspectors.

Cheapness or Economy?

People are often deceived by price. An article may be "cheap," but far from economical. It's generally worth no more than you pay.

Guaranteed advertised goods are dependable. Not always cheaper in price, but cheaper in the end. Real economy is in quality and excellence. You'll remember the quality and satisfaction long after you forget the price.

Florence Told All the Neighbors

"You come in and see my Florence oil cook stove work just once—and you won't be happy until you have one. You can have a slow, simmering fire on one burner at the same time you have a quick, hot fire on another—and the other one regulated exactly to any work you want done. Just set the levers as you want them—and you can go away for two hours and find all the burners at exactly the same heat when you come back. That's because the oil supply is automatic and there are no wicks. It's so simple, so clean, so convenient, so cool, that I don't know what I should do without it. My husband has tested the FLORENCE with other stoves and he says it produces a wonderful amount of heat for the oil consumed and that it costs only about two cents an hour to run four burners."
