FAMOUS NOTRE DAME CATHEDRAL BADLY DAMAGED

Alleged That Belgians Mounted Guns On Its Towers, Necessitating Bombardment—Large Force of Germans Pursuing Belgians, Who May Have to Fight in Open—Paris Says Conditions Along Lines of Allies Satisfactory.—Report Progress at St. Michiel.

(By the United Press.)
Berlin, Via London, Oct. 10.—The war office announces: "Antwerp is in our possession. Our forces occupied the city yesterday afternoon. A few forts still remain in the possession of the Belgian forces, but the occupation of the city by our troops is complete." It is stated that two-thirds of the city was wrecked by the tremendous German shell fire. Two-thirds of the population left before the surrender of the city was decided upon. Belgian troops blew up Fort Merxem before leaving Antwerp. The burgomaster and artillery commander held that the destruction of the city and a terrible loss of life could only result from further holding out against the German attacks. There seemed to be no stopping the Germans. King Albert led the retreating army out. The famous cathedral of Notre Dame, erected in the fourteenth century, was seriously damaged. Belgian rapid fire guns were mounted on the towers in spite of the agreement with the German besiegers that the cathedral would not be used for military purposes. This necessitated the shelling of the building. The Belgian legation in London has not heard officially of the surrender, and therefore, claims to doubt the statement. It is not known where the capital has been moved, but the government is now probably at Ostend. There is no disguising the fact, however, that the fall of Antwerp was considered certain, although not expected so soon.

OCCUPATION OF ANTWERP OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED
(By the United Press.)
Berlin, Oct. 10.—(Via Amsterdam).—The war office officially announces the "occupation of Antwerp."

GERMANS STILL LOOKING FOR PORTUGAL TO DECLARE WAR
Amsterdam, Oct. 10.—A semi-official news report from Berlin is to the effect that Germany momentarily expects a declaration of war against Germany by Portugal.

IMPORTANT RUSSIAN VICTORY REPORTED.
Petrograd, Oct. 10.—The war office announces the capture of Margrabowa, which is declared to be a most important Russian victory.

ALLIES HAVE GAINED SEVERAL ADVANTAGEOUS POSITIONS.
Paris, Oct. 10.—It is officially announced that the Allies' lines hold positions along the left against a vigorous enemy. Along the lines at Armentiers, Casell, Labadde and North of the Oise, the Allies have gained several advantageous positions.

MCADOO TAKES HENRY TO TASK FOR COTTON BILL

In Sharp Letter Tells the Texan that Government Can't Afford to Take the "Fleecy" Under Its Wig Without Discrimination.

Washington, Oct. 9.—The plan for direct federal aid to cotton growers to the extent of $400,000,000 was the subject of sharp criticism in a letter to Representative Henry of Texas, made public tonight by Secretary McAdoo. The letter is in reply to recent statements to the House by Mr. Henry.

Mr. McAdoo announces the proposal to sell $250,000,000 of Panama canal bonds to bolster the cotton crop is not practicable and generally objects to all the features of the Henry plan. He calls attention to the fact that those who deal in tobacco, naval stores, copper, silver and other commodities have sought government aid. "If we disregard every suffering interest except cotton," he said, "and make it the sole beneficiary of governmental favor, what becomes of the Democratic principle of 'equal rights for all, special privileges to none?'" If we enter upon the course you suggest, we must help every distressed industry impartially. To do that would necessitate the issue of many more than $400,000,000 in bonds and greenbacks and dangerously involve the credit of the government.

PAPAL SECRETARY OF STATE DYING

(By the United Press.)
Rome, Oct. 10.—Cardinal Berratta, the papal secretary of state, is dying of appendicitis. The pope has administered the final benediction.

SALES OF TOBACCO FOR SEPTEMBER BELOW LAST YEAR

A LITTLE MORE THAN FIFTEEN MILLION POUNDS LESS THAN IN 1913.

WILSON 1ST; KINSTON 2ND

More Than Thirty-one Million Pounds Bought This Year as Against Forty-seven for 1913. When Season Was Well Advanced.

(By the United Press)
Raleigh, Oct. 10.—A statement by the State Department of Agriculture shows the total tobacco sales on North Carolina markets during September aggregated 31,884,000 pounds, compared with 47,344,000 pounds in September of last year. Wilson led this September with 5,089,000 pounds. Kinston sold 2,825,000 pounds; New Bern, 512,000 pounds; Henderson, 259,000, and Greensboro 72,000.

YOUNG FARMER IS ALSO GOOD SCRAPPER

Young Jack Worthington, a farmer boy, the proud possessor of $98 which he received for tobacco grown with his own hands on his father's plantation, resented jibes of a trio of urchins who accosted him as he came out of a warehouse in North Kinston Friday afternoon, and was attacked by one of the three, according to a story going the rounds in tobacco circles today. Worthington, about 14 years of age, seized a stick and fought off Roland Turner, Aleck Jones and Calvin Jones when they set upon him. Grown-ups parted the combatants, and the Turner and Jones boys were arrested.

SEN. OWENS WANTS SHORTER DEBATES

(By Burton K. Standish)
(Written for the United Press.)
Washington, Oct. 10.—After the end of the next session of Congress, if predictions of Senator Owens of Oklahoma are accurate, there will be no more tiresome unending debates in the United States Senate. It will be possible, if the plan of the Oklahoma senator is carried out, to make a motion at any time in the consideration of any bill to bring debate to a close within two days, half the time remaining after the motion is carried to be assigned to each side of the argument.

For obvious reasons no fight is being made at this session to put through any such "radical" rule. A number of the older senators are desperately opposed to any change, and would filibuster against it.

PROFESSOR OF DAWSON COLLEGE LOST IN EUROPE

Chas. H. Chillingarian, Teacher of French and German Hasn't Been Heard From Since Outbreak of Hostilities.

The Industrial Christian College, the small denominational institution with about 50 students at Dawson, can't find its professor of French and German. Charles H. Chillingarian, the professor, in the summer went to France to visit his parents, and since that time every effort to locate him has failed. Prof. Chillingarian, who was born in Constantinople of English parents and raised in London, is believed to be at Nantes, where his father is in the money exchange business. The professor is about twenty-five years of age, and is well known in North Carolina. He studied at Columbia University and at Trinity (N. C.) College in this country. He has had a kaleidoscopic career, and that he may now be stranded in the war zone or even engaged in the fighting is regarded as not unlikely.

SUNDAY, OCT. 18, ANTI-SALOON DAY IN KINSTON

STATE SUPERINTENDENT TO MAKE TWO ADDRESSES ON TIMELY TOPIC.

REV. R. L. DAVIS COMING

Services in Queen Street Church at Morning, and in Christian Church at Night—Other Congregations Expected to Co-Operate.

On Sunday, October 18, Rev. R. L. Davis, superintendent of the State Anti-Saloon League, will be in Kinston and fill appointments at Queen Street Methodist church at morning and at the Christian church at night, and it is expected that the other congregations of the city will unite with one of these services, thus giving all the church-going people an opportunity to hear Mr. Davis.

The Anti-Saloon League has already announced its policy to ask for the passage of an act that will prohibit the delivery of liquor for personal use at the next legislature, and some of the representatives have already expressed themselves as favorable to such a law. In all probability, this act will be drawn and given to the public prior to the election so that the people who favor it may take the matter up with their representatives before voting for them.

In the eight years that Mr. Davis has been in anti-saloon league work he has made for himself a national reputation. He spent nearly a month in the fight in Virginia and, since then has campaigned for a week in Massachusetts. It is expected that large congregations will hear him at both times on the 18th.

COTTONSEED FEED FOR BEEF CATTLE

(By the United Press.)
Washington, D. C., Oct. 10.—Because of the abundant supply of cottonseed meal that there is likely to be in this country this year, specialists in the department believe that the farmer has a better opportunity to make money by feeding beef cattle than for some years past. The feeding value of cottonseed meal has been recognized by agricultural authorities for some time, and large quantities of it are exported annually to Europe, where the farmers, especially those in Denmark, are also aware of its usefulness. It now seems likely that the price of cottonseed meal will continue to be considerably lower than in recent years, and the American farmer should therefore utilize it to advantage to make cheap gains.

KINSTONIANS' 'PIG SKIN' TOTERS WERE ROUTED

Boys of K. H. S. Snowed Under by Washington High School in Season's Opening Football Scrimmage.

In the first game of the season for both elevens, the Kinston and Washington high school football teams were matched in the latter town Friday afternoon, the event proving disastrous to the Kinstonians. Washington snowed K. H. S. under by the score of 25 to 2. The game was prettily played until the last quarter, when the visitors were walked over by the heavier home team. Washington's backfield was a formidable combination and proved indomitable. A junior eleven from the city schools is playing a similar team at Goldsboro this afternoon.

NEW YORKERS BUY KINSTON'S BONDS, PAYING PAR & INT.

A. B. LEACH & CO. PURCHASE ISSUE THROUGH SOUTH CAROLINA FIRM.

SALE CREATES SURPRISE

City Authorities Had Little Hope of Disposing of Bonds Until General Conditions Improved—Money Will Be Available in 30 Days.

The recent bond issue of $100,000 has been sold by the City of Kinston to A. B. Leach & Co. of New York and Chicago, through the Security Trust Co., of Spartanburg, S. C., at par and accrued interest. The bonds are in denomination of $1,000, to mature in thirty years and bear five per cent.

The issue, for municipal improvements, was voted last June. The recent stringency put a stop to efforts to sell the bonds, and when an agent of the purchasers appeared before the City Council with the offer the members were surprised. Many towns are experiencing difficulty in disposing of bonds at all, and few are getting as good a price as the Kinston issue brought. The expenses, except for printing the bonds, are to be stood by the purchasers. The money will be available in about thirty days, it is expected, and the improvements contemplated, including paving and sewerage and lighting extensions, can be commenced in a few weeks. Council did not expect to get a satisfactory price for the bonds for many months, owing to the unsettled market and had temporarily dismissed the improvements from consideration.

The deal with Leach & Co.'s representative was consummated this morning at 10:20 o'clock, the mayor, Finance Commissioner Mewborn, Aldermen Webb, Fort, Rouse, Hood and Becton and Attorney Dawson being present.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE HAS HAD ACTIVE YEAR

Secretary Sutton Calls Attention to Some of the Principal Things That Have Been Accomplished Through Efforts of Civic Body.

Appropos of the annual meeting of the Chamber of Commerce to be held on October 21, Secretary Sutton calls attention to the activities of the body during the year just ending. At the last annual meeting internal improvements was the theme. Since then a $100,000 bond issue has been voted for electric light, paving and sewerage extensions, a playgrounds association has been formed and accomplished considerable toward a municipal park and playground, the government has arranged for the erection of the new federal building, the matter of a union depot has been argued before the Corporation Commission, and numerous other improvements brought about principally or partly through the efforts of the chamber. On the night of the 21st the Kinston business men will discuss with farmers who will be their guests the subject of agriculture.

BLACK ARRESTED FOR CRIMINAL ASSAULT.

Albemarle, Oct. 8.—A negro who gave his name as Howard Craig arrested by a posse yesterday afternoon charged with the rape of Odessa Coggin, the fifteen-year-old daughter of Harris Coggin, was this morning carried by Sheriff T. R. Forrest either to Charlotte or Salisbury jail for safe keeping. The crime was committed yesterday afternoon late near the home of the girl's father while she was picking cotton a short distance from the house.

BOSTON'S GREAT PITCHER JAMES DOES THE WORK

HIS FLINGING IS TOO MUCH FOR THE HARD-HITTING CLAN OF MACK.

SCORE: BOSTON 1; PHILA. 0

Old Man Plank Pitched a Brilliant Game, But Could Not Stem the Tide of Victory of the Rushing Braves.

FINAL SCORE:
R. H. E.
Boston 1.....7.....1
Philadelphia 0.....2.....1

CLUBS WON LOST P. C.
Boston 2 0 1000
Phila. 0 2 .000

(By United Press)
Philadelphia, Oct. 10.—The early morning weather conditions are cloudy with a slight mist but the weather bureau predicts clearing with sunshine for the second game of the world's baseball championship to be played at Shibe Park this afternoon by the Athletics and Braves.

Philadelphia, Oct. 10.—(1 p. m.)—Ideal weather conditions prevail with summer heat streaming down on the diamond. The base lines are so dry that the wind raises a dust. The bleachers are packed and the grandstands are rapidly filling.

Philadelphia, Oct. 10.—The game was called promptly at 2 p. m., and the batteries announced. James and Gowdy, of yesterday's stick fame, are doing the honors for the Braves and old Southpaw Plank is endeavoring to redeem the tribe of Mack. Young Schang is catching for Philadelphia.

First Inning.
Neither side scored.

Second Inning.
'Twas the same story. Nothing to nothing. Both pitchers going nicely.

Third Inning.
The third frame was pulled off without scratching the score board. The interest is intense.

Fourth Inning.
The one, two, three order still holding the boards, and the score to date is a big goose egg for both sides.

Fifth Inning.
And still the heavy hitters and the dashing youngsters are unable to get one across the plate.

Sixth Inning.
Neither side scored.

Seventh Inning.
Boston 0; Philadelphia 0.

Eighth Inning.
No scoring.

Ninth Inning.
Deal is the hero of the second game. In the ninth he doubled and took third when Baker failed to cover the bag after Deal was caught napping at second, and scored on Mann's single. The Athletics threatened to score in the ninth. Barry walked, Schang fanned, Walsh, batting for Plank, walked, but Murphy hit into a double play. The Athletics were hitless till the sixth, and only twenty-eight men faced James, who fanned eight.

CHALLENGE TO WINNERS OF WORLD'S SERIES BE FEDS.
Indianapolis, Oct. 9.—The Indianapolis Federal League club, winner of the 1914 pennant, today issued a formal challenge to the winner of the Boston Braves-Philadelphia Athletics series for a contest to decide the world's championship. The challenge is issued over the signature of James A. Ross, secretary of the local team.
