IT IS SERIOUS

Some Kinston People Fail to Realize the Seriousness of a Bad Back. The constant aching of a bad back, The weariness, the tired feeling, The pains and aches of kidney ills May result seriously if neglected. Dangerous urinary troubles often follow.

A Kinston citizen shows you what to do. Mrs. Sarah J. Dupree, 301 Gordon St., Kinston, says: "My kidneys were weak and gave me lots of trouble. I also suffered a great deal from inflammation of the bladder. The kidney secretions were unnatural and caused me much annoyance. I have used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from J. E. Hood & Co.'s Drug Store, and they have never yet failed to relieve me. I keep them on hand all the time and cannot praise them too highly."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Dupree had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. (adv)

NORTH CAROLINA MAN TELLS HOW HE SAVED HIMSELF FROM DEATH

"A man's a man for a' that," they say But it's mighty hard to believe; With his fluted shirts, his giddy hats, And a wrist watch up his sleeve.

New York, Oct. 20.—A shape of grape-toned plush, the round brim rolled slightly on the edges, the big crown encircled by a crush of orange, green and purple silk. No, no, Nanette, this isn't a description of your newest Paris Bonnet. It's simply a feeble pen portrait of father's new fall lid.

A model of "tete de negre" plush with a burnt orange band is a sweet combination also, or perhaps a chaireuse felt with a self-toned scarf and a pheasant feather is more becoming to your manly beauty.

You can go as far as you like. The lid is off when it comes to the fall lid, and as "mad as a hatter" becomes no idle jest. After looking over their assortment it would seem that most of the hatters are due for the strait jacket.

Now then, just keep your shirt on even if it does resemble a piece of honeycomb. This dainty form of tucking like a cow's interior is the smartest effect for your new dress shirt, but other equally chic models come with an intricate fretwork of alternate pin tucks and puffing. Fluted shirts also strike a new note—sort of a chest note, as it were. They certainly have lots of tone.

Pin tucks predominate on all of the models; however, so the moment you don one you are pretty apt to be all stuck up.

What boots it this season is a varied assortment of light topped effects. The suede shoe, Fashion will persuade you, is the only thing. That is of course, the suede upper, for the vamps are still of patent kid or genuine. Cloth tops are also good and both they and the suede tops are shown in shades of tan, taupe, champagne and grey and cinnamon. They all fasten with buttons of smoked pearl.

Just peek out to the barn and sneak the old plaid horse blanket if you want some nifty material for your autumn suit. You're pretty sure to be a little homier yourself anyhow, the way the new sack coats are cut decollete to the waist line. At this point they are fastened with a long button.

Shoulders and trousers are still narrow and the waists are curved in. You certainly can't escape having your suit checked up against you for the "hoot mon" materials are indeed all the rage. Some of the plaids are huge vari-colored cross bar effects, while others modestly remain in the pin check and shepherd plaid class.

The larger plaids are prettier in a combination of dark blue and green or a warm brown and maroon. Large baskets weave plaids in grey and tan and brown are smart, but with little claim to beauty.

Swagger morning coats and waistcoats of Oxford grey bound in the same tone silk braid worn with stunning trousers of black and white are guaranteed to turn the veriest mutt into a replica of Beau Brummel.

The latest top coats have a large flare to them that would put the flaring Russian tunic coat of the fair sex to the blush. The sleeves are the raglan type, and the materials are of rough English mixtures and homespuns. As to their color homespuns. As to their color schemes, Joseph's famous coat up against these 1914 models would look like a pallid dream. One delectably fruity model is of a diagonal weave of alternate plum and apricot tints.

Silk mufflers for wear with dinner and evening gowns dress are still acceptable of the knit and crochets, white or pearl grey taffeta tucked lengthwise of their shimmering surfaces with tiny silver tucks and finished with a deep fringe of knotted silk.
