TRY THIS FOR YOUR COUGH.

Thousands of people keep coughing because unable to get the right remedy. Coughs are caused by inflammation of Throat and Bronchial Tubes.
What you need is to soothe this inflammation. Take Dr. King's New Discovery, it penetrates the delicate mucous lining, raises the Phlegm and quickly relieves the congested membranes. Get a 50c bottle from your druggist. "Dr. King's New Discovery quickly and completely stops my cough," writes J. R. Watts, Floydale, Texas. Money back if not satisfied but it nearly always helps.

CHECK FLASHER REPENTS WHEN APPREHENDED

Man Who Had Been Drawing Checks on North Carolina Banks Taken Into Custody in Baltimore—Taken to Goldsboro.

Mr. James Peterson, who is a justice of the peace of Wayne county, and who temporarily has charge of a business at LaGrange, gives the information of the arrest in Baltimore of a white man who had been issuing checks on various banks in North Carolina, and in a number of instances had secured money thereon.
The party had successfully placed two of the bogus checks with a bank in Goldsboro, thereby causing the warrant to issue from the Wayne county justice, resulting in his apprehension, as stated above, in Baltimore. When arrested in that town he did not protest against coming to North Carolina but, without extradition proceedings, came voluntarily and confessed his guilt, throwing himself upon the mercy of the justice of the peace, giving as his reason that he had fallen upon hard luck and was endeavoring to get money to tide over his period of adversity. The kind-hearted justice was touched by the pathetic situation of the young fellow, but felt it his duty to detain him until he could answer the charge in a court having jurisdiction.

It is most unfortunate that he should have yielded to temptation, but the bankers of the State will be glad to know that they are not to be subjected to the risk of being victimized by him.

A FRENCH SOLDIER'S
GRAPHIC EXPERIENCE

By William Philip Stans
(United Press Staff Correspondent.) Paris, Oct. 12.—(By mail to New York.)—A modern infantry advance under heavy fire is graphically described by a wounded French soldier, just back from the firing line.
"We advanced," he says, "by successive bounds. It was very funny.
We are rather scattered about in little groups of five or six. We consulted one another.
"Are you there?"
"Yes."
"Come along then—"
"So we rush along for a hundred yards without looking at anything, our knapsacks in our hands in front of our face like a shield. When we get out of breath we fling ourselves down flat in the mud. We hold a muster of our force, and on the right and left we see a few parties of the company. Everybody has climbed at the same time. Everything has gone well. We hide behind trees to watch for a favorable moment for a fresh advance.
"Bullets are whistling, but they pass well above our heads. The Germans are too near us on the other side of the hills and they cannot touch us.
Besides they fire so badly. They do not raise their rifles to their shoulders, but fire from the hip without aiming.
"We are right at the top now, and we keep looking to the right and left to make sure that we have not got ahead of our comrades. A few moments' rest and it is time for us to dash forwards. One of us, a private, lifts his rifle up in the air. Everybody understands. At the same time we all show the point of our bayonets over the ridge. They gleam, though there is no sun.
"We rush forward shouting. This time they are in front of us. It is intoxicating. We do not know where we are. We do not see our comrades who are falling a tour side. We only see those grey tunics, those spiked helmets, which are falling back. However, they do not turn their backs on us, but how badly they fire. All at once shells begin to arrive. They have got our range. We cannot hold out any longer. So without turning our backs either, and continuing to fire, we withdraw, all the time helping the wounded to come with us. We form again on the other side of the ridge, but above on the top our places are taken by another force a kilometer nearer the enemy than we were." (This refers to the French system of advancing the firing line by relays, the movement being minutely regulated by the central intelligence section.)

There is more returned in this service of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last many years doctors pronounced it a fatal disease and and therefore requires constitutional treatment.

ONE TOBACCO FIRM
DEPOSITED $750,000

October Sales Turned Large Quantity of Money Into Local Circulation and Helped the "Hard Times" Considerably.

One tobacco concern alone doing business on this market, it is reported, deposited around three-quarters of a million dollars in a local bank during October.

This gives some idea of the enormity of the business. The present crop, besides approaching the record-breaking 18,000,000 pounds of years ago, will be one of the most profitable in the history of the industry in this country.

OVER 6,000,000 POUNDS TOBACCO IN OCTOBER

Six million, four hundred and thirty-five thousand, and two hundred and sixty-two pounds.

That was the total of the sales on the local tobacco market during October. Quality averaged well and prices good. This was in excess of a million and a half pounds a week, and 320,000 pounds a sales day.

To the end of October 10,672,058 pounds had been marketed here.

all means keep a bottle of Sloan's muscle, bathe it with Sloan's Liniment. Do not rub it. Sloan's penetrates almost immediately right to the seat of pain, relieving the hot, tender, swollen feeling and making the part easy and comfortable. Get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment for 25 cents of any druggist and have it in the house—against colds, sore and swollen joints, rheumatism, neural-
