

OF LOCAL INTEREST

MASONIC MEETING.

There will be a regular communication of St. John's Lodge No. 4, A. F. and A. M., Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

DULL IN THE MARRIAGE MARKET.

Not a single marriage license has been issued by the register of deeds in the past five days.

IMPORTANT MEETING OF BAPTISTS IN NEW BERN.

The pastors and other workers of the Neuse-Atlantic Baptist Association will meet at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning in the First Baptist church in New Bern, to discuss important matters in connection with the association's future work. A number are expected to attend from Kinston.

THIS WILL HELP TO REDUCE LIVING COST.

Large shipments of fish are passing over the Norfolk Southern lines from Morehead City and Beaufort to points north and west. Enormous catches have recently been made all along the banks, and some markets, Morehead City especially, are said to be overstocked. The cold storage plants in that town are proving inadequate and ice is being shipped there from New Bern.

N. S. TRAIN RAN MORE THAN AN HOUR LATE.

The Norfolk Southern Passenger train from Goldsboro to Beaufort, due here at 4:41 p. m., did not reach Kinston Friday until after 6 o'clock, because of a blowout of a cylinder-head along the road between Goldsboro and Kinston. The locomotive was incapacitated and a relief engine had to be sent for to pull the train into Kinston.

CIVIL SUPERIOR COURT BEGINS ON MONDAY.

Judge George Rountree, formerly a member of the local bar, will preside over the two-weeks term of November Superior Court which begins Monday. The term will be for the trial of civil causes only. Judge Rountree exchanges with Judge Frank Daniels, who goes to counties in the central part of the State. There will be but one more term after this in 1914, the December criminal sitting.

HONOR SCHOOLS OF THE COUNTY

The Lenoir county rural schools are opening now, and the weekly reports show good attendance. The schools having the highest enrollment for the first week are as follows: One-teacher school, district No. 1, Alry Grove, Vance township, Miss Mildred Wooten, teacher, 37. Two-teacher school, district No. 1, Coahoma, Southwest township, Misses Kathleen Wooten and Annie Vause, teachers, 49. The superintendent's office expects encouraging reports from all the county schools for next week.

HELD FOR BURNING

J. W. COX'S STORE.
Nathaniel Allen and George Davis, negroes, are being held in Pitt county for the burning of J. W. Cox's store at Haddock's cross roads on a night in October. The men were allowed to give bail in the sum of $500 each. Cox, who is well known in Kinston, awoke on the night of the fire to find his store, with an $8,000 stock of merchandise, and a pack-house filled with tobacco, blazing furiously. The merchant had been restless during the night and seemed to have premonition that something was not right.

RAYMOND JACKSON HELD ON SLANDER CHARGE.

The preliminary hearing in the case against Raymond Jackson for slander of Miss Eunice Heath was concluded before Magistrate H. C. V. Peebles at the Courthouse Friday afternoon, resulting in the defendant being held for Superior Court in $500 bail. Jackson and his wife, Mrs. Mary Jackson, were accused by the father of Miss Heath of criminal slander of the girl, whom he denied was guilty of indiscreet conduct. Mrs. Jackson is now sick at her home in Vance township, and could not attend the trial. Doctors, including County Physician Albert Parrott, were among the witnesses in the case, which has stirred Vance township more than anything of the kind in many years. The evidence of medical witnesses showed, in the magistrate's opinion, that there had been no incontinence, as the warrant alleged Jackson had said, on the part of the girl. Jackson will probably be brought into Superior Court in December.

Foley's Honey and Tar Compound For Croup.

Croup scares you. The loud hoarse croupy cough, choking and gasping for breath, labored breathing, call for immediate relief. The very first dose of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound will soothe the croup. It cuts the thick mucus, clears away the phlegm and opens up and eases the air passages. J. E. Reed & Co. adv.

NEW CHURCH WILL HAVE BIG SEATING CAPACITY

The new First Baptist church, which Pastor C. W. Blanchard hopes to have in readiness for the congregation to occupy several department rooms before January 1, will contain four auditoriums, he stated today, the smallest of which will seat more than 400 people. The auditorium will hold a thousand. The roof is now being put on the splendid building. The church, which will be one of the finest in the city, will be a $50,000 edifice. This is the fourth costly church to be erected here during the past thirty months.

Misses McDaniel Entertain in Honor of Visitors.

One of the most delightful affairs of the season was a function in the home of Mrs. Julia McDaniel, home of Mrs. Julia McDaniel, on North Queen street, Friday afternoon when Misses Mildred and Kate McDaniel entertained about sixty ladies in honor of Mrs. T. A. Duke, who has recently taken up residence in the city. The evening of the same day the Misses McDaniel were the hostesses at another function, when Miss Ethel Glenn of Ellisville, Miss., was the honor guest. Miss Glenn is spending some time in the McDaniel home. In all, more than a hundred enjoyed the hospitality of the interesting hostesses during the day.

Christian Endeavor Society Entertained.

Mrs. J. H. Parham Friday evening entertained the Christian Endeavor Society of the Atkinson Memorial Presbyterian church at her home, on West Peyton avenue. Thirty-six were present. From 7:30 to 11 the guests enjoyed rook, musical numbers by members of the company, and delicious salad and ice cream. The interior of the hospitable Parham home was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Mrs. Parham proved a clever and charming hostess, and the affair was a delightful success.
