DOUBLY PROVEN

Kinston Readers Can No Longer Doubt the Evidence.

This Kinston citizen testified long ago.

Told of quick relief—of undoubted benefit.

The facts are now confirmed. Such testimony is complete—the evidence conclusive.

It forms convincing proof of merit. Mrs. Simmons, 504 N. Heritage St., Kinston, says: "My kidneys troubled me for some time. I suffered from dull pains in my back and loins and the kidney secretions caused me annoyance. I finally got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills from the E. B. Marston Drug Co. and they benefited me very much. I don't suffer any more from backaches and can rest much better nights. The kidney secretions are natural and mornings I feel much stronger and better in every way. I still think well of Doan's Kidney Pills and you may continue to use my name, recommending them."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Simmons had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

MAMMOTH NEW MELODRAMA ON NEW YORK STAGE

"LIFE" HAS MORE THRILLS THAN ANYTHING EVER PRESENTED IN GOTHAM.

AHEAD OF "THE WHIP"

Scenes of Boat Race, Mexican Battle, Penitentiary, Death Chair, Escape from Cell, Auto Race and Other Blood and Thunder.

By Beau Rialto.
(Written for the United Press)

New York, Nov. 7.—More thrills and surprises, combined with master stage craft, are provided in Thompson Buchanan's melodrama, "Life," just produced by William A. Brady at the Manhattan Opera House than were ever before seen in any ten shows. "Life," so far surpasses "The Whip," which held the record for melodrama, that there is hardly any comparison.

If manufacturers and other producers keep up to the pace set by melodrama in the new "Made in U. S. A." campaign, Uncle Sam will have a cinch in putting over his newest propaganda. When London sent over "The Whip," a few seasons ago, Americans were stunned by the extent and diversity of the thrills produced by the monster production. Thompson Buchanan and William A. Brady, however, were inspired with the good old man American desire to "raise the ante." An author with imagination and resource, in combination with a producer of limitless nerve, thereupon determined to outdo the London production. The result not only outdoes "The Whip," but makes the word "melodrama," wholly inadequate for its previous job.

From a boat race at New London to a battle on a Mexican desert the big production runs through the whole list of human emotions. There is a thrill every minute. All the old familiar faces of melodrama are there with countless new ones. A couple of murders done in cold blood, right on the stage are mere passing incidents, hardly noticed in the rush and roar and thunder of the production.

Strange as it may seem, the story is a connected, thrilling story of conspiracy and crime, pitted against clean, young manhood, that is really carried out and developed logically. The hero, "Bill" Reed, "stroke" of the victorious Yale crew, and the Miss Stuyvesant, millionaire's fall in love at first sight. The villain, in her father's business, contrives to have Bill charged with theft, defalcation and finally murder, for which he is actually sentenced to death in Sing Sing. Of course, the villain really killed the "good old man," and of course, there was a man behind the curtain who saw the crime, but the villain murdered the witness right in front of St. Patrick's Cathedral, on Fifth avenue, on Christmas evening. This produced a scene seldom equalled on the stage, when a priest took the dying man's confession right on the stage.

But alas! death came too soon to permit the man to clear "Bill" Reed; the confession was not completed and in a flash the moving picture machine revealed "Bill" in the death house at Sing Sing, marking another day off the calendar that represented his span of life.

Then came the escape from Sing Sing, realistic and hair-raising, presenting the first real human detective ever seen on the stage. "Bill" Anderson, who had sent Bill up, realized his mistake and it was he who engineered the delivery.

BRITISH FLEET EN ROUTE TO THE CANAL.

New York, Nov. 9.—Seven British warships, apparently dreadnoughts, heading for the Panama canal and steaming at full speed, were sighted off the Bahama Islands last Friday by passengers on the United Fruit Line steamship Suriname, which arrived today from Santiago, Cuba. James Cavanaugh, one of the passengers, formerly a lieutenant in the British navy, expressed the opinion that the British fleet was bound for the Pacific coast of South America to avenge the defeat of the British fleet of cruisers by German ships.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Cathartic is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Cathartic is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. It cures by destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have sure in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. DAVID DUGGAN GRAND OPERA COMPANY.

The David Duggan Grand Opera Company, both in selections and scenes from grand opera and in oratorio work, has already achieved success. Its repertoire consists of many standard grand operas and quartet works, and the company carries a full equipment of costumes and scenery, designed in strict keeping with the tradition by Ranny of New York.

The personnel of this company is as follows: David Duggan, the Scotch tenor; Mme. Else Hartman-Arendt, soprano; Charlotte Ikert, contralto; Roscoe Kimball, bass baritone; Arthur Fram, pianist.

David Duggan, the Scotch tenor and director, received his first musical training in Italy at the age of nineteen years under the well-known teacher, Luigi Vannucchi, at Florence. Next he studied under Jean de Reszke in

DAVID DUGGAN GRAND OPERA COMPANY.

Paris. His operatic training was with Herr Richard Eckhold, an associate of Brahms.

Mr. Duggan appeared in Henry W. Savage's "Girl of the Golden West," in the season of opera at Ravinia park, Chicago, under the direction of Victor Emmanuel. He has also sung or toured with such great musical organizations as the Thomas Symphony Orchestra and the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra.

Else Hartman-Arendt, the Russian soprano, is the daughter of a well known composer and pianist, Dr. Hans Hartman. She was born at Odessa, Russia, where her father was director of the Imperial Conservatory of Music. She received her early musical education from him. Her father later became director of the National Conservatory of Music in Santiago de Chile.

Mme. Arendt has also appeared as soloist in concerts both in America and abroad and has always been most enthusiastically praised.

Charlotte Ikert, the contralto in this company, has a voice full of beauty and of remarkable range. Her studies have been entirely in this country. She has toured and sung extensively in leading opera roles. The Music News, Chicago, in commenting upon her work, says that there are few, indeed, of the established contraltos of the entire concert field who have such munificence of voice as is possessed by this young singer.

Roscoe Kimball, bass-baritone, possesses a very rare voice, which enables him to sing roles from Tonia in "Faust" to Mephisto in "Faust." Upon the platform he is perfectly poised and sings with expression and technique.

Arthur Fram, the pianist of this company, studied under the well known artist, Georgin Kober of Chicago. His interpretation of the great master works of Grieg, Beethoven, Chopin and Liszt are truly noteworthy. In addition to his accompaniments he will render a piano solo at each appearance of this company.

This company will appear in Kinston at Loftin's Opera House, Saturday, November 21.

SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months. I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles. Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me. At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing. I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health. If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped many thousands of other weak women in the past 30 years. At all druggists.
