THE WILLIAM TODD
VAUDEVILLE SHOW.

The William Todd vaudeville show, under canvas, opened on North Queen street Monday evening for a week's stand. The Todd outfit is well known here. It has played North Carolina extensively during the past year or two, and has been a favorite in the State for as long as a decade. The Goldsboro Daily Argus recently had to say of the show: "The attraction is entirely vaudeville, but every feature is clean and attractive, and there is not a dull moment." The one price is decidedly popular, 10 cents. The heating device under the tent is admirable, and the canvas auditorium is set all times entirely comfortable. Monday night's bill was very good, and the audience was what the offering deserved.

FESTIVAL HALL ALMOST READY

San Francisco, Nov. 17.—Within a week, Festival Hall, the last of the beautiful palaces of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition will be ready for the opening of the gates, February 20, 1915. With the finishing of the building, work will begin on the installation of the mammoth pipe organ, and the echo organ, the latter to be placed at the top of the great dome.

NEAR DEATH BY SMOTHERING

But Husband, With Aid of Cardui, Effects Her Deliverance.

Draper, N. C.—Mrs. Helen Dalton, of this place, says: "I suffered for years, with pains in my left side, and would often almost smother to death. Medicines patched me up for awhile but then I would get worse again. Finally, my husband decided he wanted me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, so he bought me a bottle and I began using it. It did me more good than all the medicines I had taken. I have induced many of my friends to try Cardui, and they all say they have been benefited by its use. There never has been, and never will be, a medicine to compare with Cardui. I believe it is a good medicine for all womanly troubles."

For over 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings and building weak women up to health and strength. If you are a woman, give it a fair trial. It should surely help you, as it has a million others.

Get a bottle of Cardui to-day.
