MI-O-NA QUICKLY ENDS INDIGESTION

Eat Your Favorite Food and Never Fear After-Digestion.

There is a way for you to eat whatever your stomach craves. Many will say "How I wish I could, but I have tried and every time it nearly kills me."

The real trouble is that people who suffer the untold agony of indigestion do not realize that the stomach has a lot of work to perform in digesting the food and if crowded with extra labor it rebels and kicks up a fearful disturbance.

Mi-o-na, a simple and inexpensive prescription, easily obtained from J. E. Hood & Co. or any drug store, will quickly and effectively stop this disturbance or money refunded. It not only increases the flow of digestive juices, but surely and safely builds up and strengthens the stomach walls so that what you eat is cared for as nature intended.

It's needless for you to suffer with indigestion, heartburn, biliousness, sour, gassy or upset stomach, for Mi-o-na tablets surely give prompt and lasting relief and are perfectly harmless. (adv.)

Caldwell—Haynes Wedding Solemnized.

A wedding notable for its reserve and simplicity was that witnessed by friends and relatives Tuesday afternoon, November 24th, at the residence of Mr. R. R. Haynes at Cliffside, N. C., when he gave in marriage his daughter, Virginia, to Mr. B. P. Caldwell, of Kinston, N. C.

The ceremony was performed by Dr. W. R. Minter of Lincolnton, N. C., at an improvised altar, appropriately decorated with ferns, palms and lighted tapers, while friends and relatives stood in the connecting parlors. Immediately before the ceremony, Miss Mildred McLean of Gastonia, N. C., dressed in yellow crepe-de-chine, carrying chrysanthemums, sang sweetly "A Perfect Day" and "Beloved, It Is Morn'." Miss Elizabeth Huff of Bridgeport, Tenn., accompanied her on the piano. To the strains of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," the bridal party entered as follows: Mr. Charles H. Haynes and Dr. J. Rush Shull, brothers of the bride, drew the ribbons forming an aisle. First entered Miss Rosa Caldwell, sister of the groom, as maid of honor, gowned in hand embroidered crepe-de-chine, entraine, carrying yellow chrysanthemums. Next Mrs. J. Rush Shull, sister of the bride, as dame of honor, wearing white Duchess satin and real lace, carrying yellow chrysanthemums. Next came the groom with his best man, Mr. James North of Laurinburg. Following was little Miss Mary Jenkins, niece of the bride, daintily dressed in white lace, and carrying a beautiful basket of flowers which she scattered along the aisle. Then came the dainty bride with her father, who gave her away. She was exquisitely gowned in white Duchess satin en traine and trimmed in real lace. Her veil was gracefully arranged with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and wore a brooch of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom. Dr. Minter spoke the words that made them one, using the ring ceremony. Miss Huff softly rendered selections of McDowell's. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell left for points east. After an extended tour they will be at home in Kinston, N. C.

A reception was given the bridal party on Monday evening by Dr. and Mrs. J. Rush Shull. Delicious refreshments were served and the wedding cake was cut.

Mrs. Caldwell is the charming daughter of Mr. R. R. Haynes. She was educated at Miss Kate Shipp's School, Queen's College and Meredith, and is a gifted young woman, being especially talented in art.

Mr. Caldwell, one of the prominent educators of the South, is at present superintendent of the Kinston city schools, and has many friends there to welcome his bride.

Many handsome presents were received. Among them being a chest of silver, given by the bride's brothers and sisters.

Their many friends wish them unbounded happiness.

Mrs. Caldwell was hostess to quite a number of her friends several days prior to the wedding. Among them being Miss Essie Harrill, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Harrill of Charlotte; Mrs. J. T. McLean of Lincolnton; Miss Katherine Mason, Mary Hilderbrand, and Mildred McLean of Gastonia; Misses Elizabeth Huff and Hester Sossong of Bridgeport, Tenn.; Miss Rosa Caldwell of Laurinburg, and Miss Frances Suttle of Asheville.

Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell will be at home with Judge and Mrs. O. H. Allen, on King street, upon their return from their honeymoon.

ELDERLY PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE VINOL

Aged Texas Woman Says: "Old People Who Are Weak and Feeble Should Know the Merits of Vinol."

Grand Saline, Texas.—"I am an aged woman, and for a long time was weak and feeble, but I have found Vinol to be the best medicine to create strength for old people and for chronic colds I have ever taken. It has restored my health and strength so that I feel almost young again; in fact, I am now doing all my own housework."

"Old people who are weak and feeble should try Vinol and know its merits as I do. I have proved Vinol a good reliable medicine and much cheaper than paying doctor's bills, and you may publish what I say about Vinol for the benefit of others."

Mrs. Fannie E. Rodgers, Grand Saline, Texas.

Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, sharpens the appetite, aids digestion, enriches the blood, building up natural strength and energy.

We have seen such splendid results from its use that we return the money in every case where Vinol fails to build up and strengthen feeble old people, delicate children and the weak, nervous, run-down and debilitated, or stop chronic colds, coughs or bronchitis.

J. E. Hood & Co., Druggists, Kinston, N. C.

NOTE—You can get Vinol at the leading drug store in every town where this paper circulates. adv

SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months."

I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles. Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years. At all druggists.
