LOCAL "SUFFS." MET FRIDAY AND MADE PLANS

Will Hold Weekly Meetings on Thursdays at the Public Library—Equal Suffrage is Inevitable. The Kinston Equal Suffrage League met yesterday and decided to meet every Thursday afternoon at the Public Library at 4 o'clock, until the close of the next Legislature. Special work has been assigned by the State League, and the instructions will be read at the next meeting. The members of the local league have pledged themselves to try to secure one new member each week. The sentiment for equal suffrage is strong in Kinston, the leaders say, and it is up to the league to work to organize it. Equal suffrage is inevitable, they declare, "because it is just." But North Carolinians should see to it, that North Carolina does not trail along on the list of states that honor their women by thinking them capable of self-government, is asserted. In nine states women have the privilege of full citizenship; in nineteen states they have partial suffrage rights. Everybody is cordially invited to attend the meetings.

GROWN-UPS COPY FASHIONS OF OUR LITTLE SISTERS

Frocks Have No Waistlines Now and Skirts Are Very Short

TINY MISSES' DRESSES

Ancient Styles Dug Up for Small Lads—David Copperfields and Oliver Twists Popular—It Puts it to Dad Har, Too.

BY Margaret Mason (Written for the United Press.) A cunning frock Dad got for Dot With other dots strewn o'er it He got a suit for little Bill Then got a big bill for it. New York, Nov. 27.—With their skirts up to their shoe tops and their frocks hanging loose and waistless from their shoulders like a six year old all the big girls seem to be stealing their fashion ideas from the little girls these days. Naturally then it is up to the little girls to be very well dressed indeed since they become miniature models a la mode for the grownups.

At the recent Fashion fete models for an American maid of tender years were as important a feature of the exhibit as were any of those for the older members of the American beauty family. One lovely little model of softest old rose and velvet was cut in one piece and hung straight from the little low round neck to the knees, and embroidery in different shades of rose silk bordered the neck and sleeves which were elbow length and also carried out down the front of the dress in a panel effect.

The other little dress of knife pleated white chiffon hung from the round baby neck in a long blouse effect to the hips where it was girded in by a garland of tiny pink ribbon rose buds. These finished the short sleeves and the neck also. Embroidered net over flesh colored silk makes a party frock to bring delight to the heart of any little woman. Let three tiny ruffles of the net outline the short waist, the elbows, sleeves and five the short full skirt and her cup will brim over with joy, even as her frock fluffs over with frills.

Quaint long waisted kindergarten and play frocks of tan or blue line embroidered in bright reds, greens and blues on the little turn over collar, turn back cuffs and low wide belt which holds in the box pleats of the frock are very charming. Little white dresses hanging full from yokes smocked in pink or blue are also artistic and picturesque.

Childhood is coated this year preferably in velvet or corduroy. Like the grownups and whether they took it from the grownups or vice versa is a question. Sand and putty color velvet or corduroy is very popular and pretty especially when collared, cuffed and belted in brown fur. The long waisted side belted models prevail above all others for the favored coats. Brown is another popular shade and black velvet trimmed in tailless ermine is very chic indeed for Miss Six year old.

Little inverted bowl shaped hats of velvet with a band of fur to match that on the coat or a curling ostrich feather around the crown are vastly becoming to small heads. One Fifth Avenue shop is showing adorable little skuttle shaped bonnets of pale blue, pale pink or white chiffon velvet with just a nosegay of tiny pink rose buds and forget me knots on one side. A Paris creation of the bowl shape variety has a brim of chinchilla fur and the crown is of palest blue inch wide moire ribbon overlapping in longitudinal tucked in effect. A tiny rosette of the ribbon finished the very top of the crown where the ribbon ends converge.

IT REALLY DOES RELIEVE RHEUMATISM.

Everybody who is afflicted with Rheumatism in any form should by all means keep a bottle of Sloan's Liniment on hand. The minute you feel pain or soreness in a joint or muscle, bathe it with Sloan's Liniment. Do not rub it. Sloan's penetrates almost immediately right to the seat of pain, relieving the hot, tender, swollen feeling and making the part easy and comfortable. Get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment for 25 cents of any druggist and have it in the house—against colds, sore and swollen joints, rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica and like ailments. Your money back if not satisfied, but it does give almost instant relief. adv.

any more with hand me down or suits de luxe evolved from Father's cast-off trousers. David Copperfield and Oliver Twist effects still continue good for young hopefuls only the winter models are fashioned mostly with bright hued corduroy trousers and white china silk waists. Some of these have little separate coats of corduroy to match. A quaint little old fashioned new-fashioned suit has a funny little jacket of bright plaid wool with gold buttons and three quarter length trousers of black velvet. For all the world like "when Grandpa was a boy."

Long trousered sailor suits in either white flannel or blue serge are always smart. Top coats of grey or brown chinchilla are shown in belted models and a cunning flaring box model with Raglan sleeves of English mixture is as exact a copy of Father's 1914 model top coat as to make a small boy fairly whoop with glee as its proud possessor. An outfit for a tiny tot Now shows a grownup what is what And also costs 'em quite a lot.

Safety should always be the first consideration in an investment. Fortunes have been made in suburban real estate. Buy one of those Dixon farms next Friday.

A CONFESSION

Hopes Her Statement, Made Public, will Help Other Women.

Hines, Ala.—"I must confess," says Mrs. Eula Mae Reid, of this place, "that Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done me a great deal of good. Before I commenced using Cardui, I would spit up everything I ate. I had a tired, sleepy feeling all the time, and was irritable. I could hardly drag around, and would have severe headaches continuously. Since taking Cardui, I have entirely quit spitting up what I eat. Everything seems to digest all right, and I have gained 10 pounds in weight."

If you are a victim of any of the numerous ills so common to your sex, it is wrong to suffer. For half a century, Cardui has been relieving just such ills, as is proven by the thousands of letters, similar to the above, which pour into our office, year by year. Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients which act specifically on the womanly constitution, and helps build the weakened organs back to health and strength. Cardui has helped others, and will help you, too. Get a bottle today. You won't regret it. Your druggist sells it.
