MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Marriage licenses have been issued to Gregory S. Wallins, 27, Durham, N.
C., and Annie May Cockrell, 18 East Gordon street, city, and Abbie Howard, 23, Pink Hill, and Robbie Smith, 18 Jones county. Both couples are white.

BURIAL OF J. L. PATRICK.

The funeral of J. L. Patrick, a merchant of Centerville, well-known here, who died Monday at his home there of tuberculosis, was conducted Tuesday afternoon by Rev. C. W. Howard.
Mr. Patrick was about 45 years of age and leaves a widow and three children.

SCHEDULES B AND C TAXES ALL COLLECTED

The sheriff's office has completed the collection of taxes under schedules B and C of the machinery act.
The money was supposed to be in by December 1, having become due in the spring, but the final collections were detained by more pressing business. The State gets $2,303.48 and the county $1,131.03 under the two schedules. Cigarette dealers contributed $275 as the biggest total for one section, and doctors, lawyers, etc., and others classed with them followed close behind, paying $270.

EDITOR GETS FEDERAL COURT HEARING TODAY

Indianapolis, Dec. 16.—Federal Judge Anderson will hear today the plea of Charles Clogston, editor of the Terra Haute Post, who was jailed for contempt of court after criticising the method of choosing the Vigo County, Indiana grand jury. Clogston was hurried to jail last month by the county officials immediately after being sentenced but was released on bond. Judge Anderson severely criticised the Vigo county officials at the time.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Dec. 13.—The first heavy snowfall of the season covered Western Pennsylvania and West Virginia today. In this city six inches fell. Grafton, W. Va., reports twelve inches, while mountainous sections of the State estimate the fall at nearly twenty-four inches. Railroad and wire traffic in West Virginia has been handicapped greatly.

ACKNOWLEDGE IT

Kinston Has to Bow to the Inevitable —Scores of Citizens Prove It.

After reading the public statement of this representative citizen of Kinston given below, you must come to this conclusion: A remedy which proved so beneficial years ago with the kidneys, can naturally be expected to perform the same work in similar cases. Read this:
Mrs. A. W. Clark, 306 W. Blount St., Kinston, says: "I had pains through my back and loins, and suffered from headaches and dizzy spells.
The kidney secretions were unnatural and my feet and ankles became swollen. I used different remedies with no benefit; in fact, I became worse. Finally, I got Doan's Kidney Pills and began using them as directed. The swelling in my limbs disappeared and the other symptoms of the trouble were relieved."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't Gregory S. Wallins were married in the home of the bride at 309 East Gordon street. The ceremony was performed by Pastor B. P. Smith of the Christian church. The couple took a westbound train at 10:25 for Durham, where they will reside. The bride is an attractive young woman of this city, the daughter of Mrs.

Nannie B. Cockrell. She has a large circle of friends who while wishing her all happiness are sorry to see her leave Kinston. Mr. Wallins is a prosperous young business man of Durham, and has a wide acquaintance there.

WEALTHY JERSEYITE INDICTED IN THIS STATE FOR FRAUD.

New York, Dec. 15.—Charles A.
Carlson, wealthy inventor and mechanical engineer, was arrested yesterday in Everett, N. J., following his recent indictment by the Henderson county, N. C., grand jury on charges of false pretense and embezzlement.
The charges against Carlson were preferred by Dr. David J. Fuller, for many years a prominent Brooklyn dentist, and his wife, Olive Muir Fuller, who accuse him of swindling them in connection with the operation of a traction company in Hendersonville, where the Fullers now live. It is alleged that Carlson sold the traction line, for which he paid only $7,500 to the Fullers for upwards of $28,000.
