TOM CORBETT COMING BACK—TO VAUDEVILLE.

Sporting authorities say Tom Corbett, brother of the ex-champion, is "coming back." Corbett, who came into The Free Press office a couple or three seasons ago, when he was doing an extraordinarily rotten skit in vaudeville here, was unanimously acclaimed by the printers as the most profane and generally wicked person they had ever conversed with. It's vaudeville that Thomas, who claimed to be the strongest man in the world—"if you don't believe it, try me"—is coming back to. For a year or two now he has been living a pious life, having been converted by Billy Sunday, married a cook and seemingly settled down. Now he is preparing to leave Philadelphia on a 16-weeks trip under the auspices of a vaudeville contract man to display his physical prowess to those who didn't take notice before.

CONWAY BOY WILL RECOVER FROM BURNS.

Little Charles Conway, who was severely burned when he fell into an open sewer containing hot water, in Southeast Kinston Friday afternoon, will recover, Dr. Ira M. Hardy and George Conway, the little fellow's father, believe. The physician this afternoon stated that the lad, who is not burned above the waist line, has a fair fighting chance for life.

The many friends of Mr. L. McCullen will regret to learn that he is confined to his bed with grip. He hopes to be out in a few days.

Stop That Cough—Now
When you catch Cold, or begin to Cough, the first thing to do is to take Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. It penetrates the linings of the Throat and Lungs and fights the Germs of Disease, giving quick relief and natural healing. "Our whole family depend on Pin-Tar-Honey for Coughs and Colds," writes Mr. E. Williams, Hamilton, Ohio. It always helps. 25c at your druggist. adv.

Sunday Wedding in the County.

Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock quite a company of neighbors and friends gathered at the home of Mr. Thomas, on the Snow Hill road, about two miles northeast of Kinston, to witness the marriage of his sister, Miss Jennie Thomas, to Mr. Felix Small of the south side of the county. The bride, in traveling suit of purple, entered the room with the groom, and there the two were met by Pastor Bernard P. Smith of the Christian church, who performed the ceremony. After congratulations, the happy couple came to Kinston and boarded a westbound train to some point in South Carolina, where they will spend their honeymoon.

Mrs. Small is an attractive young woman, with many friends. Mr. Small is a prosperous farmer. They will reside upon his farm in South Lenoir.

D. OF A. MEETING.
The Daughters of America will meet in Juniors' Hall this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

WHAT WILL RELIEVE STOMACH TROUBLE

A Hard Question—But This Retired Ohio Farmer Answers It—Mr. Matteson's Statements Are Reliable.
Upper Sandusky, Ohio.—"I suffered from nervous dyspepsia and stomach trouble so that large lumps would seem to come up in my throat, and would get so dizzy I could not stand up or even see. I tried different remedies but nothing seemed to help me until one day my druggist told me about Vinol. I tried it and soon noticed an improvement and now I am well."—Ira T. Matteson, Upper Sandusky, Ohio.

Vinol seldom fails to strengthen and tone up the tired, overtaxed and weakened nerves of the digestive organs and remove the cause of indigestion and soon enables the sufferer to digest with ease the foods that once caused distress. Vinol also creates a healthy appetite and builds up the weakened run-down system.

We have such faith in Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil, that we ask every person in this vicinity suffering from nervous dyspepsia or stomach trouble to try Vinol on our offer to return their purchase money if it fails to benefit. For sale by J. E. Hood & Co., druggists, Kinston, N. C., and leading drug stores everywhere.
