NEWPORTERS SEND A CITIZEN TO HOSPITAL.

There passed through Kinston on a westbound train Monday a man from Newport with his face badly afflicted with cancer. The sufferer was being sent to a hospital in Richmond, the expenses being paid by his neighbors at Newport.

BIG DOCKET FOR CRIMINAL COURT.

Two hundred and thirty-three cases are now on the docket for next week's term of criminal Superior Court. The city cases have not been added yet, and will increase the docket considerably. Seventy of the cases, however, are for failure to list taxes, and should be regarded as one matter.

FIRST DEATH AT SCHOOL FOR THE FEEBLE-MINDED

The first death of an inmate is reported from the School for the Feeble-Minded, two miles west of the city. Ernest Hudson, aged sixteen years, of Randolph county, an epileptic, died after many convulsions. The boy's mother, Mrs. Mary M. Hudson of Julian, N. C., was present at his death. She returned to Julian with the remains.

FREE STREET MATERIAL FOR DEMONSTRATION.

The city officials have accepted a gift of a hundred tons of cement gravel from a road material concern at Lillington, N. C. The stuff will be tried out on a street to show the authorities' appreciation. The Lillington people hope to have the city adopt their product for a part of the street improvements to be made this year probably. It is said to be superior to sand-clay.

M. M. CAPPS, PROMINENT JACKSONVILLE MAN, DEAD

News was had here today of the death at Jacksonville of M. M. Capps, one of Onslow county's most prominent citizens. Mr. Capps was for several years the clerk of Superior Court at Jacksonville, and has for a long time been connected with the political and business life of the county. He leaves a wife and several children, one of them being the editor of the Jacksonville Enterprise.

Mr. J. B. Spilman, who is connected with the East Carolina Training School at Greenville, and is a brother of Dr. B. W. Spilman of this city, has just been discharged from a hospital in Richmond, where he has been under treatment for seven or eight weeks. His recuperation is almost complete. Dr. B. W. Spilman arrived today at Fort Pierce, Florida, where he is to be engaged for a fortnight in work for the Southern Baptist Convention, of which he is Sunday school field secretary.

FUNERAL OF MRS. SOPHIA C. WEST.

The funeral of Mrs. Sophia C. West, who died at her home at Queen and Bright streets Sunday night, was conducted this morning at 10:30 o'clock by Rev. H. A. Humble, pastor of Queen Street Methodist church, assisted by Rev. E. N. Harrison, pastor of Caswell Street Methodist church. Interment was in Maplewood cemetery. The last rites were largely attended and the many floral tributes testified to the esteem in which Mrs. West was held.

SEEKS DIVORCE FROM WIFE WHO ASSAILED CHARACTER

Several weeks ago Louisa Boyette, a middle-aged colored woman, came here from Dover to ask aid of the sheriff. She alleged that her husband had mistreated and driven her from home. She told a harrowing story and by her actions indicated that she might have been partially unbalanced. N. W. Boyette, who is a respectable negro of the old school, today intending to go to New Bern to enter suit for divorce. Boyette said that the woman accused by Louisa Boyette of having usurped her place in their home was none other than his own niece, whom he had adopted; that the wife had caused considerable trouble about the household, and that he was determined upon separation. Louisa Boyette, who when she came here was informed that she had applied to the wrong sheriff, disappeared and has not been seen by the authorities since.

BABY'S CLOTHING WAS IN FLAMES

C. B. Koonce heroically fought the blaze with bare hands and possibly saved life of little Ada Blandford yesterday.

C. B. Koonce, a millhand of Mr. Daniel street, encountered four-year-old Ada Blandford with her clothes in a light blaze in front of the home of her father, Elias Blandford, at 112 South Orion street, Monday. The child had caught fire from a stove and in her terror fled to the street. With no other way presenting to extinguish her burning dress, Koonce attacked the flames with his bare hands, saving the little girl's life. He was badly burned on the hands, but the child escaped serious injury.

DR. A. D. PARROTT AGAIN HEALTH SUPERINTENDENT

The County Board of Health, consisting of the chairman of county commissioners, the county superintendent of health, the mayor of Kinston, and Drs. V. E. Weyher and R. W. Wooten, Monday afternoon re-elected Dr. A. D. Parrott to be county superintendent of health.

Dr. Parrott's incumbency will be for two years. He is one of the younger physicians of this city, but one of the best known practitioners in the county. His work during the past two years, say county officials, has been productive of a decrease of sickness in the county institutions and, so far as a part time man could accomplish it, better health conditions in the rural parts of the county.

SAM. LILLY TO MAKE HIS HOME IN ONSLOW.

Former U. S. Deputy Marshal Samuel Lilly, well known here, has removed from New Bern to Jacksonville, to make his home.

BIDS FOR NEW POSTOFFICE WERE OPENED YESTERDAY

Treasury Department Will Probably Not Make Known Successful Bidder Before February 1—Many Inquiries Made.

Bids for the construction of the Federal building here were opened at 3 p. m. Monday in the Treasury Department at Washington. While the local postoffice people have no way of telling about how many bidders there were, they believe that the soliciting contractors were many. Frequent requests were received at the office during the past month from contractors wishing information about the proposed structure, and several representatives of northern builders have actually been on the scene. It is not likely that the contract will be awarded before February 1, it is thought at the post office.

MINISTER SERVES HOT FREE LUNCH

Cleveland, Jan. 12.—The claim that men are driven to saloons by the free lunch counter is being vigorously combated today by Rev. J. L. Boyer, pastor of the Collinwood Methodist church. In the basement of the $40,000 edifice, Rev. Boyer has established a soup kitchen. He had 50 guests on the first day.

"We are welcoming all who come" said Rev. Boyer. "We'll find some way to finance it." One hundred jobless men in the vicinity prompted the minister to provide food for them.
