side of her mother, who is convalescing in a hospital there.

The ladies of St. Mary's Episcopal church are requested to send articles for the rummage sale to be conducted by the society Saturday to ex--Sheriff J. P. Nunn's store on South Queen street.

Among the out-of-town people who attended the performance of "The Shepherd of the Hills, were: Messrs.
E. C. Pittman, White, P. W. Brooks and W. B. Edwards of Grifton, J. K.
Quinerly, E. J. Jackson, W. A. Quinerly, S. F. Noble and J. D. McLawhorn of Ayden, and Misses Emma Harden and Addie Williams of Grifton, and others.

Massey—Quinn.
Wednesday afternoon at 6:30 o'- clock, Miss Bettie Quinn and Mr. Albert W. Massey were married in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Quinn, at 105 North Tri-anon street. The ceremony was performed by Pastor Bernard P. Smith of the Gordon Street Christian church. Mr. and Mrs. Massey took a westbound train at 7:31 o'- clock for a trip in the western part of the State.

Mrs. Massey is an assistant matron in the school for the Feeble-Minded near this city, and is held in high esteem by her associates. She is a young woman of fine qualities and is much admired. Mr. Massey recently came here from Waynesville, N. C., to manage the farm at the school. He has made a splendid impression upon the people with whom he has come in contact. Mr. and Mrs. Massey will reside at the school.

SHEPHERD OF THE HILLS WAS PLEASING OFFERING

The presentation of "The Shepherd of the Hills" at the Grand Theater, Wednesday night, was pleasing to the audience, which packed the house to greet the first theatrical attraction to be given in Kinston's beautiful new playhouse. The parts, as a whole, were well taken. "Preachin' Bill," everyone's friend, as played by Jess Neilson, was very characteristic and pleased the audience. James L. Harrington as the Shepherd, acquitted himself very creditably, as did Frank Wilson in the role of the wronged father in the character of "Old Matt." Sybil Farrar as "Peto," a child of Nature, played her part satisfactorily and Earl McDonald fitted the part of the rival lover all right. Allie Ellsmore's interpretation of "Sammy Lane," the girl of the mountains who wanted to become a fine lady in order to marry her sweetheart, who had moved to the city and gotten town notions, was hardly up to the balance of the cast. Miss Ellsmore has histrionic ability, but does not fit the part assigned her in the play. All's well that ends well, and Harold Bell Wright's characterization of the people of "the hills" has a good moral and leaves a wholesome taste.

BILL TO CREATE HIGHWAY COMMISSION ENCOURAGED

eral Government may make for the construction and maintenance of roads.
House of Representatives Bill 11886 passed the House by a large majority, carrying an appropriation of $25,000,000 a year. North Carolina's share would be $650,000 a year.
The Bill was amended in the Senate Committee on Roads, and reported for passage as Calendar No. 644. It calls for bond issue of $500,000,000, of which North Carolina's share would be $13,000,000. What the final action will be is, of course, uncertain; but the Administration has gone on record for Federal participation in road improvement, and one clause of Calendar No. 644, in all probability, will be included in the coming Federal Good Roads Law.

Section 3. "That before any State shall be entitled to take advantage of the provisions of this Act, it shall establish by law a State Highway Commission, which said commission shall have general supervision of road construction and improvement in that State, and of the expenditure of the money received from the United States Highway fund."

No one was surprised, therefore, when the Hon. William Jennings Bryan, on the occasion of his recent visit to Raleigh, made the following statement:
"The farmer, who pays more than his share of the taxes, and who receives less than his share of the proportionate benefits derived from these taxes, has a very just claim for attention in the matter of good roads.
I am glad to learn that there is a good prospect of attention being given to this subject by the North Carolina General Assembly through the creation of a State Highway Commission." (The Raleigh News & Observer, January 31st.) The Bill is fortunate in respect to those who seek its passage. Its sponsor is the North Carolina Good Roads Association, a guaranty that it is not drawn in any private interest, but solely for the public good, embodying the collective wisdom of those who have led in the splendid advance of the State in road matters. To Col.
Bennehan Cameron has been assigned the duty of piloting its way through the General Assembly to the Statute-Books. Col. Cameron is known throughout the State as a representative of business interests, conservative and well-balanced. He is also one of the most successful farmers in the State. His leadership strengthens the cause. As one of the elderly Representatives puts it, "Where Col.
Cameron leads it is safe to follow; he will lead us along no unsafe paths."

THIEVES IN COUNTRY TOWN ROB ON DEPT STORE SCALE

West End, N. C., Feb. 3.—Thieves broke into the West End store of M.
C. McDonald at this point last evening, carrying off a bunch of swag which in its extent must have required a truck team, and which in its diversity should make identification of the burglars comparatively simple when they try to dispose of the plunder.

The main prize was $100 in cash, including a $20 gold piece secured from the safe. They also took six dress suit cases, a number of pairs of shoes, a liberal supply of neckties, a quantity of scissors and pearl-handled knives.

Universal Instinct for Play.

In providing for enjoyment the church uses one of the greatest methods by which human society has developed. Association is never secure until it is pleasurable; in play the instinctive aversion of one person for another is overcome and the social mood is fostered. Play is the chief educational agency in rural communities and in the play-day of human childhood social sympathy and social habits are evolved. As individuals come together in social gatherings, their viewpoint is broadened, their ideals are lifted and finally they constitute a cultured and refined society.

It is plain, therefore, that the church which aims at a perfected society must use in a refined and exalted way the essential factors in social evolution and must avail itself of the universal instinct for play.
If the church surrounds itself with social functions which appeal to the young among its membership, it will fill a large part of the lamentable gap in rural pleasures and will reap the richest reward by promoting a higher and better type of manhood and womanhood.

SIMPLE, BUT SURE

Hyomei the Great Catarrh Remedy—
"Just Breathe It" and Be Cured.

Do not try to cure catarrh, head colds, or snuffles by taking drugs.
These common but dangerous ailments that often cause the loss of hearing cannot be cured that way.
The common-sense way is to breathe Hyomei, which gets the medication right where it is needed to heal the raw and inflamed lining of the air passages.

Hyomei is a mixture of antiseptic oils—you breathe it—no bother; no disagreeable medicine; simply use the inhaler a few times daily and this healthgiving medication will quickly soothe and heal the the irritated tissues, stop distressing choking and unclean discharges—you breathe freely —dull headaches cease, and every catarrhal symptom soon vanishes.

There is nothing more simple and safe to use, or that gives such rapid and lasting benefit, as Hyomei—and J. E. Hood & Co. sell it on the "No-cure-no-pay" plan.
