I WAS RUNDOWN, NERVOUS AND WEAK Cause? Chronic Cough—A Friend Advised Me to Take Vinol—I Did—It Made Me Well and Strong Jennings, La.—"I was run-down, nervous, weak, dizzy, and tired all the time as a result of a chronic cough which kept me awake nights for months. I have four in my family, and I was not able to do my daily housework. All the different medicines I had taken failed to do me any good until a friend told me about Vinol. I took it and within a month I felt so well and strong I could do my own housework. I would advise all weak women to take Vinol."—Mrs. A. Freyon, Jennings, La.

Why will women in this vicinity continue to drag along day in and day out, all run-down, pale, thin, nervous, weak and all tired out when we are continually publishing letters from hundreds of reliable women which prove how Vinol overcomes such conditions and creates strength. We ask every weak, nervous, run-down man or woman to come to our store and get a bottle of Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, without oil, and if it fails to help you we will return your money.

We, as old established druggists of this community, wish to recommend to you a product that has given many relief and many mean the end of your agony. The product is a mild, simple wash, not a patent medicine concocted of various worthless drugs, but a scientific compound made of well known antiseptic ingredients. HOW FRENCH PEOPLE CURE STOMACH TROUBLE

A household remedy of the French peasantry, consisting of pure vegetable oil, and said to possess wonderful merit in the treatment of stomach, liver and intestinal troubles, has been introduced in this country by George H. Mayr, who for twenty years has been one of the leading down-town druggists of Chicago and who himself was cured by its use. So quick and effective is its action that a single dose is usually enough to bring pronounced relief in the most stubborn cases, and many people who have tried it declare they never heard of anything to produce such remarkable results in so short a time. It is known as Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and can now be had at all leading drug stores. It is sold with the positive understanding that your money will be refunded without question or quibble if ONE bottle fails to give you absolute satisfaction. adv

FLYING FISH GAVE HIM IDEA FOR FLYING BOAT

New York, Feb. 9.—Albert S. Janin, cabinet-maker, has quit his job. It was a good job and paid him five dollars a day, but he doesn't need the money now. For the next ten years of his life, at least, he can sit back in his easy chair and watch the money roll in.

The other day the Board of Examiners in Chief of the Patent office sent Janin a telegram. It informed him that he, and not Glen H. Curtiss, was the inventor of the hydro-aeroplane. The board's decision was unanimous, and now Janin will get royalties on every hydro-aeroplane that has been manufactured, is being built now, or will be built within the next decade.

Janin has been living at Rosebank, Staten Island and he says he will continue to live there. "We will stay here, where I was born and reared," he declared, but no more of these flats for me. The first thing will be to get a home with plenty of ground around it for the kids to play in.

"I've got the knack of inventing things in my blood," he said. "My great-grandfather, Antoine Janin, invented the percussion cap for cartridges, in France years ago. I got my idea for the hydro-aeroplane when I was a cadet on one of the Ward line coastwise steamers. Standing on the bridge I used to watch the flying fish and seagulls, and I wondered why a flying boat could not be invented that would rise from the water in an arc like a gull. My friends laughed at my first drawings, made in 1900, but one capitalist gave me $3,000 to buy a motor."

WOMAN DEFIES BOERS WHO STOLE HER HORSE

London, Jan. 23. (By mail to New York)—How she defied a party of De Wet's rebel commando is told by Mrs. Eleanor M. Geach, writing from Steynrust, Orange Colony, to a friend in London.

"When DeWet's men passed through here they stole everything they could lay hands on," she says. "For a time we managed to hide our horses, but at last they spotted them. I clung to the animal and defied them to take him. I just did give it to them straight from the shoulder, and they left. But soon five of them returned and before we could prevent it two of them grabbed the horse and led it away."

"Then the other three came to the house, grinned, and one held out his paw. I put my hand behind, looked him up and down, and said, 'I don't take the hand of a thing like you.' This riled them, for it is a big insult to refuse a Boer's hand. Then we went at it. I called them thieves and liars. They rode off, but came galloping back with their rifles ready to shoot at me if I offered any further resistance to their going into the store and stealing. They made our Kaffir man, at the point of the rifle, show them where reins and halters were, which they stole. "Two weeks after, our dear old horse found his way home. He had been wounded in the head and nearly ridden to death."
