A TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

Augusta (Ky.) Tobacco Board of Trade Pays Tribute of Respect and Sympathy to Mr. C. R.
Dodson of Kinston.

"Mr. C. R. Dodson, resident buyer for Liggett & Meyers Tobacco Company, in Augusta, Ky., and Ripley, O., received a message on Friday, February 5, at noon, announcing the death of his wife at their home at Kinston, N. C.

"Mrs. Dodson was an accomplished woman, a loving and devoted wife, and member of the Presbyterian Church, South. She leaves her husband and mother and many friends to mourn her early and sudden death.

"The sad news came to Mr. Dodson while he was in line, buying tobacco at the Ripley market, and in no wise expecting the death messenger to visit his happy home, as his wife was in the best of health to the instant of her death.

"Mr. Dodson, during his stay here and in Ripley the past three years, has by his uprightness and courtesy to all, won a place of affection in the hearts of all who knew him, and many were the expressions of sympathy for him in his sorrow.

"The members of the Augusta Tobacco Board of Trade were called in extra session on Saturday evening, February 6, and adopted the following resolutions:

"The members of this association hereby express their sincere sympathy to their fellow member, Mr. C. R.
Dodson, in his sad hour of affliction and grief over the death of his splendid wife, and regret that we cannot at this time do more to comfort and console him in his great bereavement."

Reasonable Assumption.
"I always have my doubts of the man who defends honesty by declaring that he hasn't a crooked bone in his body."

"You think he may be exaggerating?"

"Yes. I'm afraid that he may not know any more about his own shortcomings than he does about physiology."

VERY UNHAPPY.

Physically and Mentally Worn Out—Tells How Nervous and Crying Spells Were Ended by Vinol.

Monmouth, Ill.—"I was weak, wornout and nervous. I had no appetite, and was getting so thin and discouraged, one day I just broke down and cried when a friend came in and asked me what was the matter. I told of my condition and how nothing I took seemed to do me any good. Vinol was suggested. I got a bottle and before it was half gone I could eat and sleep well. I continued its use and now my friends say I look ten years younger, and I am well, healthy and strong. I wish I could induce every tired-out, worn-out, nervous woman to take Vinol." Mrs. Harriet Gale, Monmouth, Ill.

There are many over-worked, tired-out, care-worn, nervous women in this vicinity who need the strengthening, tissue building, and vitalizing effects of Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, and so sure are we that it will build them up and make them strong that we offer to return their money if it fails to benefit.

Vinol is a delicious preparation of the extract of cod liver oil and pep-tonate of iron and contains no oil.

YANKEES ARE GREAT
OLD BLUFFERS,
SAYS DIE POST

Berlin, Feb. 14.—Berlin newspapers continue their comment on the American note concerning the German admiralty's sea war zone proclamation. The editorials generally are friendly. Conspicuous exceptions, however, are furnished by Die Post, and the Tages Zeitung.

"When something does not suit the Yankees," says Die Post, "they are accustomed to adopt as threatening and as frightful a sabre-rattling tone as possible. They reckon that the person thus treated will be frightened and give in. If this does not come to pass, however, if the person thus threatened replies with the strongest expressions and shows that he is not scared and will not let himself be driven into a state of funk, the swaggering Yankees calm themselves and quiet down."
