MORE CHEERFUL GIVING URGED BY PASTOR SMITH

Subject of the Morning Sermon at the Christian Church Was the Story of the "Widow's Mite"
"Do the Best You Can."

Pastor Bernard P. Smith of the Gordon Street Christian church took his text from Mark 12:41-44. This passage is the story of the Widow's mite, and Mr. Smith called his congregation's attention to the necessity of each individual doing his or her best. Cheerful giving, Mr. Smith said, meant in the true interpretation of the original Greek, giving with hilarity and not grudgingly.
Very few people, he thought, nthei Very few people, he thought, in the churches were giving to the Lord's work in anything like the proportion that they should. Especially was this true in the rural churches, where services were only held about once or twice a month, and the planters who could well afford to give several hundred dollars a year for the support of their churches, thought they had fully discharged their obligations when they dropped in a dime or two at the monthly services. Mr. Smith attributed the lack of giving largely to the fact that the members of the churches did not love God as they should. He pointed out that people were anxious to give presents and do things that would please those they loved.

In the outset Mr. Smith spoke about the dancing school, which he said he had observed from the papers was to be conducted here, and he asked that none of his people patronize the school, for said he "nothing good can come of it."

NEW YORK HAS TWO DOLLAR MOVIES NOW

(By the United Press.)

New York, Feb. 20.—New York is to see its first $2 moving picture show this week. Broadway first-nighters, whose tastes have been satiated with pretty girls and twinkling toes for a moon or two, are wondering if the promoters can get away with it.
By an arrangement with Klaw and Erlanger, D. W. Griffith will take over the Forty-Second street theater for the production, which is "The Birth of a Nation." It is a complete working out of the contributory themes in American history on which Thomas Dixon founded his novel and play, "The Clansman." Over 18,000 people were employed in the making of the picture. The promoters say it is "the most stupendous undertaking of the kind the world has ever known."

Holbrook Blinn starred in a new play which opened at the Booth, last night. It was "The Trap," by Richard Harding Davis and Jules Eckert Goodman, and succeeded Winthrop Ames' prize play, "Children of the Earth," which ended its career at the beginning of the week.

Besides Blinn, Martha Hedman, Tully Marshall, Elaine Hammerstein, Riley Hatch, and half a dozen others of note are in the cast of "The Trap," which is a melodrama of more or less stirring variety.

"Maid in America" has already gotten under way at the Winter Garden, and, with its pretty girls and music that is tuneful in spots, is drawing big houses.
Speaking of melodrama, there's a rip-snorting thriller at the Comedy these nights—"The White Feather." It's war, war from start to finish, and the scenes are gloriously full of both British and German spies. There's a neatly contrived war love theme, too.

REACTION IN BASEBALL FINANCE NOW AT HAND

By HAL SHERIDAN,

(Written for the United Press)
New York, Feb. 22.—That old whiskered gent who back in the stone ages somewhere announced that every action has its reaction must have been looking into the dim and misty future at the 1915 baseball chaos. Certain it is that the reaction of frenzied finance in our national pastime is here. Never was a thing more fully demonstrated than at the recent meeting of National League magnates here.
Thirty-two berths in the National League occupied last year will be vacant this year. That means a saving of from $75,000 to $100,000 to the magnates and the blighting of thirty-two aspiring youngsters' hopes.
For the moguls decreed that no club should carry more than twenty-one men from May 1 to September 1. Last year they were allowed to pay traveling expenses of twenty-five.
Thirty-two jobs have been suddenly snatched away from ball players.
Friends of O. B. lay the blame on the Feds. Federal adherents, quick to resent anything of the sort, claim that it is merely the result of hard times, and deny absolutely that the Feds. are responsible for anything that would take anything away from the sun-burned athletes.
Be that as it may, the retrenchment days are here. Ball players a few months ago held up the Federal ogre as a means of drawing fat contracts from their O. B. bosses. Now their bosses tell them if they can help themselves by taking the hurdle, go to it. That is what President James Gaffney of the champion Braves told Leslie Mann at the National meeting.
Mann wanted $3,500; Gaffney offered $3,000 and refused to budge.
