TURNED RAGE TO LAUGHTER

How Resourceful Man Saved City of Madrid From Fury of Revolutionary Mobs.

It was in the year 1868, after a battle in the Spanish revolution of that year, and the streets of Madrid were filled with angry crowds that were bent on destroying everything and everyone. Suddenly an unknown man appeared at the city hall. "Give me a band of musicians," he said, "and before nightfall I shall control all Madrid." He must have been a man of rare personality to have been able to persuade the authorities in that dark hour to give him anything. But he got the musicians, and went out with them to wander through the city. While they played, he sang popular street songs, or some old national air. When these bored the listeners, he mounted old boxes and told funny tales. By nightfall peace reigned in the
