

KINSTON'S CHURCHES WILL BE TAXED TO THEIR CAPACITY SUNDAY TO HOLD THE PEOPLE WHO HAVE BEEN STIRRED

The great simultaneous religious campaign which has been stirring Kinston this week, begins its second lap tomorrow. The interest has been growing daily and many of the meeting auditoriums have already been taxed to care for the congregations. The attendance Sunday will probably eclipse all previous records in Kinston's church going. Sunday will be a busy day with the evangelists. Three afternoon services have been announced. Two for men and one for young people. Evangelist Cross will address a mass meeting of men at the Christian church at 3 P. M. and Dr. Wharton will have a similar service in Loftin's opera house at the same hour, while Dr. Roseborough will have his second service for young people at the Atkinson Memorial Presbyterian church. Evangelist Browning will hold no service at the Queen street Methodist Sunday afternoon. Services will be held at the usual morning and evening hours.

CLEVER RUSE OF THIEVES IS REVEALED

Calgary, Canada, April 10.—The cloud of suspicion is today removed from James Cassidy, Calgary business man, and former sheriff of Ozaukee county, Wis. While he was sheriff, seven years ago, a gang of pickpockets escaped in a manner that caused suspicion to hang over Cassidy.

The ring leader of the gang, who escaped, has confessed. His sweetheart visited the cell daily. She got a confederate, disguised as a tramp, to steal into the sheriff's office, and with a piece of soap, got an impression of the key to the cell where the pickpockets were held. Keys were made and sent to the ringleader by the girl. The ringleader had secured the friendship of a big bulldog, kept there to guard the cell, by giving the dog the meat in his daily food. Friends in Ozaukee county are urging Cassidy to return there.

But he is too weak to use it.

THE MIGHTY COURT OF THE UNIVERSE, THE HUB OF THE ARCHITECTURAL SCHEME AT THE PANAMA-PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION

All visitors to the Panama-Pacific International exposition at San Francisco at some time during their stay at the exposition make their pilgrimage through the Court of the Universe. This is the largest court on the grounds and is the central radiating unit of the architectural and ground plans. Noble sculptured groups embellish it, the two Homeric groups—the Nations of the East and the Nations of the West—surmounting the giant arches at the east and west portals. By night the beauty of the court is enhanced by the flood lighting effects.

NOTICE TO OUR READERS

The Free Press is forced to appear in abbreviated form this afternoon, due to a broken down motor. Hardly had the day's work begun when the motor which drives the typesetting machine played out, and despite the efforts of the city's electricians, no hope was in sight for its repair in time to do its work today. Hence it was necessary to send out this paper in this form simply as an explanation. There being no extra motors available in town the situation is unavoidable.

MOVIES INCREASE IN POPULARITY ALL TIME

By Beau Rialto
(Written for the United Press.)
New York, April 10.—Despite desperate efforts of the "legit," to stem the tide of popularity of the "movies," invasions of Broadway by the film shows is increasing rather than decreasing. New movie houses are now in the midst of spring openings. Gotham's "moving picture city" population is also increasing. While actors and actresses complain that the movies are sending them to the soup houses and bread lines, the movie promoters insist that more work than ever is being given. The trouble to me seems that new actors and actresses are getting the jobs—the movie kind with the facile faces—while these that cannot adapt themselves to the new craze are suffering.
This week has been the launching of several new feature films, and the surrender of more "legit" stars to the wiles of the movie magnates' rolls of yellowbacks. Such stars of drama as William Faversham and Jas. K. Hackett have signed contracts to create a new buch of matinee admirers via the screen route.

DROUTH HITS A MINNESOTA TOWN.

Duluth, Minn., April 10.—The five saloons of Holman, which at the last election polled 11 votes, have been closed. Officers of the Indian department, that closed the saloons, said that one saloon for every two voters was too many.

New York, April 10.—A dinner without speeches will feature the annual reunion of the Iowa Society of New York tonight at the Plaza.

TRAFFIC LIMITS ON VARIOUS PAVEMENTS.

How Life of Highways is Measured in England.

By traffic limit is meant, according to current usage of the term, the amount and type of traffic a pavement will carry without undue wear, says Engineering and Contracting. The measures used in determining traffic vary, no one of them being universally employed.
In England it appears to be a current opinion that if a water bound macadam road does not last two years without resurfacing another type of construction should be used. It is believed that a traffic of about 137 tons per yard width per day, or 50,000 tons per annum, is the limit for this type of pavement. Traffic amounting to 1,200,000 tons per yard width in one year will wear out the pavement within the year. Another criterion is that two-thirds of a cent per ton mile of cost of maintenance is the limit at which further use of a macadam surface becomes uneconomical.
Bituminous penetration macadam and bituminous concrete appear to have a traffic limit as high as 1,000 tons per yard width per day, under which traffic the surface would probably need renewing every four years. This traffic is from five to ten times that existing on ordinary heavy traffic roads in the United States. In England, in one locality, a bituminous concrete surface seven years old bears a traffic of 70,000 tons a yard width a year and it is believed can be maintained indefinitely under present conditions for 72 cents a square yard a year. One estimate places the life of this pavement at eleven years under a traffic of 120,000 tons per yard width per year. Greater uniformity of surface and lesser cost of maintenance are secured with the use of bituminous concrete than when other methods of construction are employed.

Paying For Pavements.
An investigation of the methods in vogue in fifty large American cities of paying for pavements has been made by a committee of the Cleveland (O.) chamber of commerce. The results are as follows:
New Paving.—In 62 per cent of these cities the property pays all; in 6 per cent the property pays 50 per cent; in 10 per cent the property pays more than 50 per cent and less than 100 per cent except in one city, where the property pays 30 per cent; in 22 per cent of these cities the city pays all.
Repaving.—In 42 per cent of these cities the property pays all; in 10 per cent the property pays 50 per cent; in 8 per cent the property pays between 50 per cent and 100 per cent; in 40 per cent the city pays all.
Approximately 25 per cent of the cities pay the major part of the original paving, while 40 per cent of the cities do the major part of repaving.

St. Paul, Minn., April 10.—Allen D. Collette, senior in the Hamlin University, is living on five quarts of milk daily. He eats nothing else, and drinks little else. The milk must not be decorated with eggs, crackers or anything else. It must be just simple milk, as pure as certain politicians will permit. He says he is following the doctors orders.

LEGISLATURE QUITS, COLORADO IS HAPPY

Denver, Colo., April 10.—The Colorado legislature will adjourn at midnight tonight.

When this date was decided on by joint resolution, one Denver afternoon paper cartooned the public dancing for joy and shouting: "Three Rousing Cheers." All this was under the heading: "Oh, Glory, Legislature Ends April 10, and Let Us All Arise and Rejoice." Another afternoon paper's head was "Cheer, Brother, Cheer!"

The cause of this hilarity was the legislature's "do-nothing" record. Up to the eleventh hour of the session it had passed only one important bill, the measure carrying out the people's referendum mandate that Colorado shall be saloonless after January 1, 1916.

THEY'RE OFF IN THE FEDERAL LEAGUE

By HAL SHERIDAN

Opening Games
At Brooklyn—Buffalo.
At Baltimore—Newark.
At Chicago—St. Louis.
At Kansas City—Pittsburgh.

New York, April 10.—They're off! The 1915 baseball season was opened today by the Federal League, getting the jump on O. B. big leagues by four days.

At Brooklyn, Baltimore, Chicago and Kansas City, today, the fans all gathered to usher in King Baseball for his 1915 reign with the ump's cry of "Play Ball!"

The Fed's debut today will be followed April 14 by the opening of the National and American leagues seasons. The baseball war is still on, but many wise ones declare that this will be the last year of war.

The Federals went ahead today, however, with all appearances of an indefinite stay in the baseball world. Their team rosters presented many new faces as a result of winter raids on the ranks of the foe. All of the teams have been strengthened during the lay off.

At Baltimore today, where the International team was driven to Richmond by Fed. competition, the Newark team, transferred from Indianapolis, made its bow. Cy Falkenberg, the "human darning needle," is slated for the mound honors for Newark, whose team comprises most of the 1914 Fed. pennant winners. The new grounds of the Newark club at Harrison, N. J., will probably be christened April 16 by the Baltimore team.

The umpires' staff of the Fed's this year consists of Chief William Brennan, James Johnstone of Newark, Fred Westervelt of Richmond, William Pinnerman of Erie, Harry Howell of Brooklyn, Louis Fyfe of Chicago, Barry McCormick of Chicago, and Spike Shannon of Minneapolis.
