MONDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 21, 1916

The warning note credited to Maximilian Harden, the German publicist, in which he "predicts" that unless peace is soon arranged, Germany will perforce disregard all neutral rights, could hardly be classified with the prophecies; it more properly belongs to the category of history. Germany has been disregarding the rights of neutrals and all others ever since the outset of the conflict.

Our congratulations and best wishes are extended to the esteemed Columbia State on the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of its establishment. The State has grown to be one of the South's most influential and creditable journals. The contributions of Paragraphees Gonzales and associates, make of the State one of the most welcome exchanges that come to The Free Press. Long may the State live and prosper and serve its clientele with the high class of service that has characterized its work in the past.

The program of the Municipal Association of the Carolinas, which is to meet in Kinston in May, as printed in The Free Press Saturday, contains the names of some notable persons; aside from the distinguished municipal executives who will be present, Hon. Richard H. Edmonds, editor of the Manufacturers' Record of Baltimore, and Hon. Claude Kitchin, Democratic floor leader, are scheduled for addresses. Truly Kinston will be honored by the presence of these representative citizens and public officials and everything must be done to show to them that Kinston is really glad they are here.

Although it was to be expected, it is nevertheless gratifying to have assurances from Messrs. Daughtridge and Bickett that their campaign for the office of Governor will be conducted on a high plane, devoid of mudslinging and personal bitterness. Mr. Daughtridge's campaign manager sounds a splendid note when he proclaims that it is his intention to conduct a most energetic campaign, but that he regards the welfare and harmony of the party as paramount to the interests of any individual aspirant for political preferment. Unquestionably the welfare of the whole people is primary to the gratification of any one man or set of men and well it is that those who recognize that fact be elevated and entrusted with the responsibility of leadership.

It is not at all surprising to learn from the Washington dispatches that Mr. C. C. Daniels of Wilson, a brother of the Secretary of the Navy and employed by the Government as special counsel in the Indian land cases in Minnesota, has declined to "play second fiddle" to another appointee of the Attorney General. Mr. Daniels has prosecuted his work vigorously, and has from all reports "stopped upon a great many toes" and "horned a good many fallings away from the trough" of defrauding the Nation's wards out of their rightful property. Very naturally he has encountered much opposition, and there has been much pressure brought to bear on the "powers that be" in Washington to relieve him. Certainly it was not to be expected that Mr. Daniels would accept any halfway removal or compromise.

We are very glad to see the constant reminder, "Safety First" displayed at the intersection of the busy thoroughfares, Gordon and Queen streets, where the traffic is directed to keep to the right and remember to have a

OUR SPLENDID VINOL

Quickly Stopped Mr. Clark's Hang-on Cough.

We have seen right here in Kinston such wonderful results from the use of Vinol in such cases, that we agree to return the money to anyone who tries it and does not get the same result Mr. Clark did. He says:

"I used Vinol for a chronic cough and hard cold which it seemed impossible to get rid of. At nights I would cough violently so I couldn't sleep. I learned about Vinol through a friend who had used it at the house where I am living, and the result of its use in my case was that the hard cold was soon well and the chronic cough disappeared in very short order." F. J. Clark, 9 Pearl St., Amsterdam, N. Y.

It's the tonic iron, the extract of fresh cod livers without oil and best part contained in Vinol that makes it such a successful remedy for chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis.

care for the safety and rights of others. The idea of having the dummy traffic officer carry this warning is said to be that of Street Commissioner Webb, and it is a good one. No doubt many accidents will be averted by the more observing and thoughtful who will take time to read the sign; nevertheless there will still be some who will recklessly drive past the corner regardless of the fact that they are endangering the lives and limbs of hundreds of pedestrians, and they may even drive over the sign. It would not be amiss for the officers to keep a lookout for those who fail to observe the sign and administer as much additional "caution" as may be necessary to safeguard the corner for those who have occasion to pass that way.

It is reported that the Federation of Indiana Club women has sent a long letter of appeal to Governor Craig in behalf of Mrs. Ida Bell Warren. It is reported that no other reason for clemency is cited except that the defendant is a woman. Of course, Governor Craig cannot, with proper regard for the power of his office, consider any sentiment and interfere in any way with the mandate of the court unless it be shown that there were extenuating circumstances in the commission of the crime, which have not been brought out, and which the defendant did not have the benefit of at her trial. It is indeed a ghastly thing to contemplate the execution of a woman in North Carolina, but The Free Press can see no reason for executive clemency simply because the victim is a woman. So long as the barbarous custom of taking life in such fashion is practiced on criminals guilty of murder, all offenders must pay the same price.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

HOW'S THIS, ANYWAY? Columbia State: "Those Progressives are not half-headed. If the G. O. P. refuses to nominate Roosevelt, they are willing to compromise on T. R."

A "MURMUR" FROM THE DEEP? Ayden Dispatch: "Warbles the esteemed Kinston Free Press: 'It is announced in connection with the suspension of the Ayden Dispatch that Managing Editor Utley is to pursue a course of study at a foreign college. It is to be hoped the genial young scribe will not risk a trip on an armed merchantman.' No, we do not think of trying the armed merchantman at the present time, but should we, the captain of the crew will be notified of a fellow Braxton in Kinston, who it is said, is fine in warfare on the water, as well as with the pen."

THE GOVERNOR'S RESPONSIBILITY. Greensboro Daily News: "There are few people on earth in whose ultimate fate the Daily News is less interested than Ida Bell Warren. As long as she is not set free to use the hellish power she seems to possess for the ruin of other souls, we can imagine nothing of less consequence than what becomes of her."

"But we have a very lively interest in the gentleman who occupies the State's residence on Blount street, Raleigh. By a grim quirk of fate the only man on earth whom Ida Bell Warren has power to harm now is the Governor of North Carolina. She has already kept him in more or less acute misery for some weeks, and apparently, the worst is yet to come. We can imagine no more exquisite agony than to have every sentimentalist in these United States loosed upon us; and that is the Governor's doom. Of course, every person who is for commutation of the Warren woman's sentence is not necessarily a sentimentalist; but every sentimentalist is for commutation, and will proceed to slop all over the Governor to prove it."

"Is it fair, is it right, for the State of North Carolina to allow this to be inflicted on its Chief Executive? He should be relieved of the pardoning power altogether; but we do not believe that even a board of pardons ought to be compelled to undergo such a strain as this. If there had been any attendant circumstances which the court could not take into consideration, but which nevertheless modified the turpitude of the crime, it would be a different matter. But there seems to be no doubt that the Warren woman committed a particularly atrocious murder. The sole basis of the plea for executive clemency is her sex. If the State of North Carolina believes that it is wrong to execute a woman that belief should be written into the laws. This is not a case where the written law, by its universality, works injustice. It is not particularly the Warren woman, it is any woman, whom the advocates of commutation would have spared. The Governor ought not to be called upon to make good the derelictions of the Legislature."

BETTY BRIGHT The Unbreakable Dolly and Her Two Kitty Cats

THE FREE PRESS has secured a limited number of these fascinating Dolly Sets, and offers them to subscribers on the terms mentioned below: BETTY BRIGHT is a handsome, big, fat, chubby, lovable darling of a doll. She is 22 inches tall, so she is as big as a real live baby. She has yellow curls, a big, bright red hair ribbon, red ribbons in her under-bodice and fancy socks, with cute little slippers. She comes to you already to cut out with plain directions, so simple that any child may follow them. Besides that, there are two Kitty-Kats, which come with Betty Bright. They are each six inches tall—one kitten is yellow and white, and the other kitten is black and white. Each have red ribbons and a bell about their necks. They are made of very serviceable cloth, so that they will wear for a great length of time. All you have to do is to follow the simple directions, cut them out, and stuff them, and you have a great big life-sized doll, also two cute Kitty-Kats. Children invariably love a cloth doll in preference to a breakable doll. There is also considerable pleasure and amusement to be derived when cutting them out, and making them at home. Every little girl will love Betty Bright and the two Kitty-Kats.

OUR OFFER—In another part of this paper will be found a COUPON. Six of these coupons, of consecutive dates, together with Fifteen Cents in cash, will be received at The Free Press office in payment for this set of dollies. Subscribers wishing to get BETTY by mail, must remit two cents extra for postage and packing. BEGIN SAVING YOUR COUPONS TODAY.
