NINETEEN SIXTEEN FAIR WILL BE HELD OCTOBER THIS YEAR

Four Days Beginning 24th, Decided Upon Monday Night—To Erect New Buildings to Take Care of Larger Patronage

The local fair will be held about two weeks sooner this year than last, it was decided Monday night at a meeting of the directors of the Kinston Fair Association.

The dates determined upon are October 24, 25, 26 and 27.

Several new fairs are being organized or contemplated in this part of the country. Rocky Mount, Goldsboro and possibly other towns will hold fairs next fall for the first time.

The Kinston Fair this year will be, so far as exhibits are concerned, one of the biggest in the State. It is possible that it will be exceeded only by the State Fair at Raleigh. At least ten counties will contribute to the exhibits, it is thought. Advertisement of the big event will be commenced considerably earlier than last year.

The directors at Monday night's meeting decided to have new buildings erected to house the expected increased exhibits. The one general exhibit building last year was crowded. The fair officials thought they had provided sufficient space for years to come, but the result disproved that; in fact, the whole enterprise proved to be a bigger thing than had been planned for. The profit made was not the least agreeable surprise. Increased space for all kinds of exhibits, including livestock, will be had next fall. The showing of animals is expected to be considerably bigger than in 1915. Plans for the new buildings or annexes will be drawn up shortly. More stock, authorized some months ago, will be sold to defray the expenses of the building.

FUNERAL RALEIGH TODAY

Washington, March 28.—President Wilson yesterday issued the following statement:

"The death of Tom Pence has brought to all who knew him and to all whom he so loyally and earnestly served, not only the deepest grief but a sense of irreparable loss. Few finer spirits have ever connected themselves with public service. He had very great ability and he devoted that ability to the promotion of the things he thought were right with a singular devotion and self-forgetfulness. I feel that every man who desired the public good has lost a partner, and that the Democratic party in losing him as secretary of its national committee has suffered a loss which it may not be possible to repair at all."

Many senators and congressmen today expressed their regret over the death of the bright North Carolina newspaperman. Pence was regarded as one of the best of the Washington correspondents when he was doing newspaper work, before his appointment to the secretaryship of the National Democratic committee. He knew more celebrities than any man in the United States. He was a graduate of Wake Forest College. "He was one of the most capable men in the country," one Congressman said this morning. ## WASHINGTON COUNTY OUTRAGE DESCRIBED

(By the Eastern Press)

Washington, March 28.—A man named Williams today gave a graphic account of a recent outrage in Washington county, for which several negroes are held, in the Greenville jail, according to report. The negroes were removed from Plymouth to prevent lynching.

George Bowen, an elderly countryman, and his afflicted daughter had as neighbors, on Bowen's farm, John Savage, his son and his daughter-in-law, said Williams. The trio went to the Bowen home on a stormy night. Old Bowen was awakened when they entered. Suspecting their purpose, he said, "John, you can have my money, but for God's sake, don't kill me." Miss Bowen was asleep in another room. Savage's son went into the room and seized the girl. She screamed. The black flayed her with a pair of fire tongs. She fell back in a dead faint. Meantime John Savage was cudgelling the old man. Bowen's son, living 200 yards distant, heard the cries of the victims and ran to the scene, but the culprits had gone before he arrived.

Bowen was robbed of $35. The negroes evidently intended to kill the couple. Bowen's almost lifeless body was found in a closet. There is yet some doubt about the recovery of the couple.

LONG AND SLENDER ARE THE NEW ZEPS. GERMANY IS PUTTING OUT, SAID

(By the United Press)

Amsterdam, March 28.—The Zeppelin has been vastly improved lately. There is no doubt that the Germans take it very seriously as a fighting machine. Still greater aerial activity on their part may be expected soon.

The prediction is that of a neutral, recently arrived from Germany, where he had an opportunity to see and hear much concerning the Kaiser's plans for air raiding, but whose name, for obvious reasons, cannot be published.

According to his account, the newest zeppelins is much longer and narrower than its predecessors, the latest form having proved more readily manageable in heavy weather.
