John G. Bragaw, Jr., called by Rev. John H. Griffith "the most popular layman" in the East Carolina Diocese, is expected to preach in St. Mary's Episcopal church Sunday. Mr. Bragaw is frequently referred to by clergymen as "bishop of the laity." He is a member of St. Peter's parish, Washington.

Universalist Lenten Services.

A good congregation heard Rev. J. L. Everton's splendid sermon on "The Glory of the Second Death" at the Universalist church at McLewann and Lenoir streets Wednesday night. The subject of Mr. Everton's discourse tonight will be fully as interesting, according to Pastor Bodell. He will preach on "The Devil—How We Came by Him." CITY SCHOOLS MAY END
YEAR ON TWENTY-EIGHTH

It is possible, Superintendent of Schools Barron Caldwell stated this afternoon, that the city schools will close at the end of the eighth month, the last day of which is April 28. Lack of funds, it is understood, may cause the term to be shortened from nine to eight months. Mr. Caldwell would not say that it was probable that the term would end on the 28th. The matter will be determined shortly, he said.

THE STEPHENSON STORE

Hundreds of women flocked to the J. M. Stephenson store Wednesday, the occasion being the Easter millinery opening at that establishment. Dr. W. C. Knox, head of the business, had prepared an exhibit unequalled before in the store. The designs shown were numerous, and invariably handsome. Dr. Knox has been back only a short time from the North, where he selected new stock for the opening. The shop had been artistically decorated. All the new colors and shapes were in evidence.

CAPITAL PRIZES

- 2 Maxwell Touring Cars.
- 2 Diamond Rings.
- 2 Gold Watches.
- 2 Bank Accounts—$25.

About one week ago tonight The Free Press announced to the people of this section of the State that it would give away two of the very latest model Maxwell Touring Cars and six other prizes to the people who secured the most votes in the proposed Golden Festival and voting contest.

Since the announcement, during the short period of one week, this undertaking has assumed an important place in the public affairs of Kinston. Many prominent people, clerks, stenographers, and, in fact, people in all walks of life have taken an active interest in this campaign.

With the first announcement the Contest Manager suggested that the more nominations received, the more people who would actively enter, would have a direct bearing upon the winning of the prizes. It was accordingly, apparent from the start, that the more active contestants there were, the lower the winning number of votes would be that won the capital prize, for the support of the public will be divided, where if the race were confined to a very few, each one would have to produce three times the results as will now determine the winner.

At some time in the life of every man and every woman, there is a turning of the way; a casting about query—Where have I been? Where am I going? This turning of the way comes to every successful person.

If things in this old world have not been going right with you, then you have not come to the turning point. If you find yourself at the point of wonderment of the future, stop and think things over. Go off by yourself where no one will interrupt, and thresh it all out. You will never be any good until you do, so the sooner the better.

Stop and think of the opportunities that come to people. Have you ever had any of these opportunities? Or have you ever seen them? The chances are that you have had these opportunities but did not recognize them. Most everyone has. The trouble was that you did not stop to consider, or if you did consider the matter, you lacked the determination to take hold of it.

The best opportunity that you have before you now is the Great Golden Festival of the Daily Free Press and Semi-Weekly Free Press.

There is not a penny of expense connected with the Great Golden Festival in any way. Simply devote what time you can spare to it, seeing your friends, gathering votes, and if you get the largest number of votes on May 13th, then you will be the owner of a Touring Car. Besides, there are six other prizes to be divided according to your energy. And there is a commission of 10 per cent. to be handed to everyone who does not win a prize and who complies with the rules.

N-O-W Spells W-O-N.

Now! That is the thought to bear in mind. It is now or never. Now spelled backward spells won. Try it. Work now and on the 13th of May it will spell won for you.

Energy and effort together with support of your friends will make you a winner on the 13th of May. Make your spare time profit time. Win a Golden prize in the Free Press Contest.
