St. Louis, June 13.—"Enact the Susan B. Anthony amendment before the end of the present session of Congress or fight! Half a million dollars are available for our fight." This is the ultimatum to be handed to the resolutions committee of the Democratic convention by Colonel Roosevelt has declared he is the National Woman's party.

Bryan, a 'Has-Been,' Arrives at St. Louis.

St. Louis, June 13.—W. J. Bryan arrived here today and found the Democratic National Convention ready to tell him "Good-bye, God bless you."

The fact that Bryan is only an alternate from Nebraska and reported as such after being the dominant figure in four conventions, and three times a presidential candidate shows the change in Democracy.

tra Paving Expense Will Be Stood by Property-Owners Without Help From City

City Council at a meeting Monday night principally for the purpose of getting unfinished routine business out of the way, took up the matter of the use of sidewalks by teamsters. Individuals directly interested, as tobacconists, merchants and others, were present and were permitted to address Mayor Pro Tem. Douglass and the aldermen.

Council decided to pass an ordinance, which is to be put through next week as an emergency measure, imposing the following regulations: Property-owners shall stand the entire expense incurred from extra paving when sidewalks in front of buildings are used for draying. The walks so used shall extend to the curb no matter what the standard width on the street happens to be, and in front of places of business A meeting was held last night and shall be six inches through instead the reports showed that a good num- of four.
