SEND MAIL BY MULE FROM RIDGECREST NOW

Rev. B. W. Spilman, Sunday school secretary for the Southern Baptist Convention, Monday received "a bushel" of mail from Ridgecrest, the Baptist summer stronghold in the mountains. For the first time in ten days, he said, mail was gotten out of the colony. A mule carried it; the bags were strapped securely to the animal's back and a successful trip made through the flood country to a railway station.

The floods completely tore up the summer assembly at Ridgecrest. Only one speaker, it seems, reached there. He has lectured for days to congregations not exceeding 25 persons.

TOMATOES AND PIE NO LONGER CAUSE TROUBLE

To Paul Schnell, Who Lived On Oat Meal for Two Weeks Before Taking Tanlac

"Tomatoes and pie no longer cause me trouble, and I believe that Tanlac has helped my stomach so that I can digest cobbles stones," said Paul Schnell, of 4 East Second street, Charlotte.

"For two weeks I lived on oatmeal before taking Tanlac. Gas formed in my stomach and pains gripped me in my stomach and sides. I couldn't walk in this condition. I had frequent belching spells and lost right along. Finally I had to quit work. "People told me to get Tanlac. I did and because I have gained on it in weight and strength I am able to work again; haven't an ache or pain; can eat anything and feel better in every way. Tanlac helped me where other medicines failed and I gladly recommend it."

Tanlac is sold in Kinston by J. E. Hood & Co.; New Bern, Bradham Drug Co.; Weldon, W. M. Cohen; Warsaw, Brown Drug Co.; Trenton, Trenton Drug Co.; Edenton, Mitchner's Pharmacy; Ayden, J. R. Smith & Bro.
