

PRESIDENT EXPECTS BILL TO AVERT STRIKE TO BE PASSED BY CONGRESS BEFORE NIGHT

TELLS CABINET HE IS CONFIDENT THAT ADAMSON MEASURE WILL BECOME LAW IN NEXT FEW HOURS; EVERYTHING GIVES WAY

Eastern Roads Waiting for More Definite Assurances, However, Before Removing Embargoes Which Are Driving Up Prices of Foodstuffs in Cities—Produce and Meats Up 25 Per Cent.—New York Local Authorities Preparing to Prosecute Unscrupulous Dealers—Railroad Companies Declare Congress Is Working Against Them and That They Will Take Grievances to Supreme Court—Government May Have to Enforce Wage Increases, Intimated

Washington, Sept. 1.—Legislation intended to prevent the impending strike of four hundred thousand railway employes was put under way at noon when the House adopted a special rule under which it is proposed to pass the Adamson eight-hour bill before night.

President Wilson told the cabinet this afternoon that he confidently expected its passage by night. The legislation was given precedence in both Houses. A bill was introduced in each. The two bills conform and obviate the committee delay on the question of time in which the provisions of the bill would become operative, which has been causing disagreement.

Food Prices Soar Alarmingly.

New York, Sept. 1.—The big eastern roads are waiting more definite assurances that the strike will be averted before removing the embargoes effective today and tomorrow. Embargos on all foodstuffs, perishable goods and munitions are now in effect. The larger cities will pass Sunday without a fresh supply of vegetables and meats unless the strike is suddenly called off. Prices are advancing. Poultry is up eight cents a pound, and produce is up twenty-five per cent. as well as meats. Municipal action is likely against dealers who take unfair advantage of the situation.

Fight Promised.

Chicago, Sept. 1.—Railroad executives today indicated that they will take their fight to the Supreme Court. They declare the present proposed legislation is an effort to fix wages. "The bill might postpone the strike, but it cannot settle the issue," they said. It is indicated that the roads will refuse to pay increased wages despite the bill. Then the government would have to sue and compel them to pay them.

Washington Hopeful; Congressional Action Looked For.

Washington, Aug. 31.—Belief grew in all quarters here tonight that the great railroad strike called for next Monday morning would be averted. At the close of a day of conferences and hearings Congress apparently was prepared to pass tomorrow or Saturday the 8-hour day legislation which heads of the employes' brotherhoods have declared officially will cause them to telegraph the code message necessary to revoke the strike order.

Although President Wilson still desires strongly to see his whole legislative program accepted, and Democratic leaders in the Senate have ideas of their own about what should be done, administration spokesmen virtually conceded tonight that the bill finally passed would provide only for:

"An eight-hour day for trainmen in interstate commerce, effective December 1, or January 1, with the present ten-hour rate of pay and pro rata overtime; and,

"A small commission appointed by the President to investigate the working of the law for from six to nine months and report to Congress."

This, in substance, is the Adamson bill devised by Representative Adamson and Democratic Leader Kitchin after conferring with President Wilson, which A. B. Garretson, spokesman for the brotherhoods stated formally late today would be considered a "satisfactory settlement" and prevent the walk-out.

Tonight the Interstate Commerce Committee agreed to report out a similar bill with the date January

ANOTHER LINK FOR CHAIN OF WIRELESS AROUND THE WORLD

(By United Press)
San Diego, Sept. 1.—The third of five links in the longest chain in the world—from Washington, D. C., to Cavite, Philippine Islands, via the Panama Canal, was completed here today.

The chain is the Navy's and the links are wireless stations that will enable United States fleets all over the world to keep in touch with Washington without the aid of carrier pigeons, mails or prestidigitation.

San Diego's link consists of three towers, each 600 feet high. They will connect with the two stations already in working order at Arlington, Va., near Washington, and in the Canal Zone, half way between the Canal's Atlantic and Pacific terminals and with the proposed huge station at Pearl Harbor, Honolulu. The Honolulu station will connect the Philippines with the United States.

The San Diego radio cost Uncle Sam $250,000.

When the wireless chain is complete the United States will be far ahead of all other nations in this respect.

The formal opening of the big radio station here will take place later, possibly not before December 1, when the first messages will be sent out to the world by the proprietor, Uncle Sam.

A force of twenty operators will be on duty at the station. The equipment provides for the reception and dispatch of messages at the same time. The flashes will travel practically around the earth at the speed of light.

Lieut. J. M. Ashley of the Navy will be in command here.

FOR TEN MILES ON EVERY SIDE KINSTON IS 'NO MAN'S LAND'

Tobaccoists Dassen't Drum for Trade in That Territory—Can Go to Halifax If They Want to Outside of Restricted Territory

The Tobacco Board of Trade has gone on record for good roads for the first time. At a recent meeting the board instructed the secretary to write the Board of County Commissioners urging improvement of highways leading into the city, for the benefit of the tobacco market and the general public. While its members have nearly all long been known to favor better roads, the Board probably considered such action not strictly within its province heretofore.

At the same time the Board of Trade proclaimed all the territory surrounding Kinston for a distance of ten miles in all directions, "neutral ground." That is, the members will not "drum" in that territory. There are a number of good reasons, according to tobaccoists, among them the fact that the weed in the territory is coming to Kinston anyway and that all hands interested might not get a fair shake in the bartering.

Outside of the neutral zone a Kinston tobaccoist may seek trade anywhere. He may go to China if he likes; and it is his bounden duty to fetch business here from any point outside the "No Man's Land" that he can.

FARMER HAD A BEE STING IN THROAT; INNOCENT VICTIM

Clem. Heath, a young farmer from Cove City, appeared at the office of Dr. A. D. Parrott Thursday night with an unique ailment. Heath had a bee sting in his throat. Opening his mouth, he exhibited a small spot in the back of the throat about which pus had formed. Dr. Parrott managed to get the sting with a pair of tweezers at the first attempt, and Heath got immediate relief. The little dart which had lost its owner had made a painful sore and had been a source of irritation, under constant rubbing of the victim's tongue all day. Dr. Parrott, exhibiting the sting, a tiny black affair, explained that a bee's sting when inserted has a tendency to hold fast. Down the sides are rows of barbs, pointing backwards, which make it a formidable weapon to be no larger than the 500th part of a grain or such a matter.

Heath said he had gotten the sting while eating honey for breakfast. An uncle by marriage, he stated, had had a similar experience, with the result that a cancerous growth was started over the sore and the victim died.

THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS FOR MILLION AND HALF POUNDS O' TOBACCO IS ESTIMATE FOR TWO DAYS ON THE MART!

It is stated that bigger breaks of tobacco than were sold Thursday were had on the Kinston market today. Tremendous piles of the golden product filled every warehouse almost to the overflowing point. Thursday's overflow was disposed of today.

At 2:30 it was estimated that 705,000 pounds would be the day's sales, in addition to the between 550,000 and 650,000 pounds sold Thursday. Today's sales total may be record-breaking both in quantity and value; the record for value was established only Thursday, when more than one hundred thousand dollars was turned loose!

Sales at several warehouses had not been finished or had not been started in the forenoon. Those which had sold had maintained an average price of right around 20 cents. When the records for the two days' sales are completed it is believed that nearly a million and a half pounds will be shown to have been sold, at a value of three hundred thousand dollars!

The Austrians, caught by the offensive's center, are in danger of being crushed in the "jaws" of the "nut-cracker." They have already abandoned 400 square miles of territory. At least a dozen towns have been captured, with little heavy fighting and few prisoners taken. The Roumanian right is linked with the Russians near the Bukovina frontier, and both armies are advancing on the famous old Hungarian city of Bistritz.

WAR DEPARTMENT SAYS NOTHING ABOUT TROOP MOVEMENT FROM LINE

Washington, Aug. 31.—National guard regiments and regular coast artillery companies en route to or from the border have been ordered equipped with extra supplies for the journey against the possibility that a general railway strike will delay their movements.

Secretary Baker and other War Department officials refused to discuss reports that the 15,000 guardsmen suddenly ordered northward last night were being moved as a precaution against strike violence. It is known, however, that the States to which the troops are returning are those where only a small portion of the guard was not called into the Federal service and in most of them large railway terminals are located. Approximately 30,000 troops are under orders to move to or from the border.
