Entered at the postoffice at Kinston, North Carolina, as second-class matter under act of Congress, March 3, 1879

SATURDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 4, 1916.

The responsibility of citizensup never rested more heavily on the American people than it does right now They must weigh very carefully the matters at stake be fore casting their ballots next Tuesday.

Sunday is the first of the two days set aside by the mayor and a representative body of clergy and laity for emphasizing the need of sending : lief to the Armenians and Syrians who have been grossly mistreated and perse cuted by the Turks. The committee is expected to make a house-to-house canvass Sunday afternoon and the co operation of every citizen in town is urged. Those wh cannot remain at home until the canvassers arrive are asked to make arrangements to get their contribution to the committee.

If the Department of Justice sustains its presump tion that the unusual migration of negroes from th southern to northern states is for the purpose of corrupt ing the election and winning by fraud, those who are re sponsible for inducing the negroes to become parties to the plot should be given an indefinite stay at Leavenworth or Columbus. The Free Press has confidence in the American people and it doesn't believe that the great rank and file of the industrious, sober, honest men o America, regardless of their political aith, will endorse the actions of political tricksters, who essay to lead then and who contrive such schemes to win by fraud wha they can't get openly and above board.

THE OPPOSITE WOULD BE OBTAINED.

Last year when protests from the United States gov ernment were being sent to the German government be cause of the conduct of the outrageous submarine war fare there was a strong feeling in Germany and among the German symphathizers that the people of America were not backing President Wilson. That situation cul minaged in the vote on the warning resolution which wa taken by Congress and which emphatically set at res the delusion that the people of this country were in an wise desirous of surrendering their rights. The effect on Germany's diplomacy was immediately noticeable. Tha sentiment gained force prior to the vote on the warning resolution because of the criticsm of some prominent me of the President's policy, such criticism being taken by the Germans as evidence of a division of public sentiment There might have been a division but they overestimated the strength of the opposition to the President and in- Lenoir County. stead of it being a considerable amount it was shown to

In this connection the unwarranted criticism and abuse, which have been heaped upon President Wilson by Mr. Hughes, not only concerning policies and matters which had been concluded but upon international problems which were pending and imminent, and he has not hesitated to discuss and dinounce the conduct of the toreign profilems regardless of the delicacy of the situation-no usub have served to revive the sentiment that there was a division; and certainly if by any chance Mr. Hughes should be elected Germany would have every reason to believ. that the people of this country had repudiated the fem stand which Mr. Wilson took in upholding the right of this country. Instead of having the effect that Mr. Hughes would persuade the American people to think. that is to have greater respect for the United States, the apposits would unquestionably be the result.

MR. HOLT'S POSITION TYPICAL.

The announcement of Mr. E win A. Holt, a prominen otton mill manufactures of Burlington, of his intenso to vote for President Wilson is not a surprise to the who have had occasion to talk to Mr. Holt with refer no to the present campaign. The Editor of The Fire fires and the plea we of rlding some little distance on the rain with Mr. Holt when he was en route to the Process sive convention in Chicago as a delegate from this S :: Mr. Holt is a great admirer of former President R alt and at the time was most enthusiastic for his u.c.

Since Mr. Roosevelt declined the nomination the Edit The Free Press has had another opportunity to some Mr. Hol: out and found him undecided as 10 what cours he would pursue. Mr. Holt, like many other Progres too. could not support the old line Republicans. As a m of fact, he is not a Republican but a Democrat in hing except the tariff. He has consistently voted the State Democratic ticket but in National affairs voted the Republican ticket and later the Progressive ticket. Will the tariff eliminated there is nothing for Mr. Holt to de out vote the Democratic ticket both in the State and Na

The Free Press bilieves that Mr. Holt's is a typicar ex ample of a very large number of the Independent and called Progressive voters of the country, who would have east their ballots for Mr. Roosevelt had he accepted the nomination of the third party but who, in view of his declination, cannot find it possible to support the old sine stand pat, boss-ridden, Republican party policies, which Mr. Hughes and his co-laborers are endeavoring s strenuously to return to power. We have been of the pinion since Mr. Roosevelt declined to accept the nomination and endeavored to lead his misguided foll were back into the fold of Republicanism, that as many hem represent the free thinkers of the country, they would cally to the support of Mr. Wilson and the indicaions to that end have not ceased to multiply as the cam
