Vaccinated Against Typhoid.

All prisoners in the County jail and the Warden's family have been given the anti-typhoid treatment by Dr. James S. Mitchener, County health officer.

Death of Graveyard Rabbits.

Furnie Boyett, superintendent of Maplewood Cemetery, declares there is not a rabbit left in the place. News of this having reached the ears of the colored population, the arket for hind legs has soared outrageously, says Boyett.

Meeting of Church Board.

There will be an important meeting of the Board of Stewards and Trustees of Queen Street Methodist Church at the pastor's study this evening at 8 o'clock. Important matters are to be considered and a full attendance is desired.

Jones Demonstrator Here.

Farm Demonstration Agent N. K. Rowell of Trenton was here Monday, the guest of Agent O. F. McCrary. Mr. Rowell was recently assigned by the heads of the extension service to Jones County. He likes his field well, he states. There are fine possibilities in Jones, he asserts.

New School Building.

Erection of a new building for McGowan School, in a rural district, was to be commenced Tuesday. A nice-looking two-room structure is planned. Rolling partitions will allow the house to be used as an auditorium when desired. The committeemen are T. B. Burt, chairman, E. L. Rouse and D. H. Johnson.

Fair Advertising Held Up.

E. B. Lewis, secretary of the Kinston Fair Association, announces that advertising for October's big event will not be commenced until next Monday. It was to have been started this week. A number of things have contributed to the delay. The advertising campaign will be on a bigger scale than that of last year, and new territory will be "worked."

Propose Park Commissioner.

Chamber of Commerce members are thinking of renewing the agitation for a park commissioner for the City. It is pointed out that a park commissioner would not be out of place just because there is no park for him to be commissioner for. Indeed, Kinston has miles of grass plats along its streets. These are not in very presentable condition. It is suggested that a park commissioner could look after the mowing of these, giving a "trimmer" appearance to the streets, and also take over the supervision of the cemeteries.

Funeral of Mrs. Matthews.

The funeral of Mrs. John T. Matthews, who died at Richmond Sunday night, was held here Tuesday afternoon. The service was conducted at the home of Mrs. Lou Matthews on North Independent Street, Rev. W. Marshall Craig, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating. The attendance was large, and the floral tributes were numerous and handsome. Mrs. Matthews, whose husband and one son reside at Washington, N. C., where she had been living for several years, was a former resident of Kinston. She had been ill many months.

Deep Stuff.

Charlie refuses to have anything to do with the girl his father has picked out for him. He hasn't seen her lately, but he saw her years ago; such an ugly, snub-nosed sister she was then. He's going to wed a belle of Hawaii. Belle turns out to be the young 'oman of his dad's selection. Not from Honolulu at all. To test the young fellow out she had, disguised as a beach dancer from Palmville, called at the school at which he was getting educated and won his principal internal organ. All the foregoing makes up the plot of a comic opera at the Grand Monday night.

New Sanitary Inspector.

Wright Quinn, new sanitary officer and inspector of plumbing for the City, took office Monday morning.

Book Shelter; "Kicked Up": Arrested.

G. H. Rouse and Wiley Jones, men from the country, were arrested Saturday night upon complaint by Mr. Thomas Woodley Heath, the front porch of whose Northwest Kinston home they had possessed themselves of, he alleged. Rouse and Jones sought refuge from the rain. Mr. Heath charged that they were apparently drunk and disorderly, using profanity, expectorating upon the porch and frightening Mrs. Heath.

Dissents From Will.

Mrs. George Sumrell has dissented from the will of her late husband, a prominent wholesale merchant. Under its terms she was bequeathed $15,000 and some household property, the remainder of the estate going to other heirs. Mr. H. H. McCoy and Dr. Henry Tull are the executors. Just what the value of the estate is and whether by dissenting Mrs. Sumrell will benefit pecuniarily are questions to be answered by developments.

Trouble at Lumber Camp.

Harrison Long, colored, was arrested on a charge of assaulting Oliver May, colored, with a knife at a lumber camp in Woodington Township. May received severe but not necessarily serious injuries on his back and head. Long told the Sheriff that May was about to attack him with an axe when he cut him. Warrants were issued charging Long, May and four other blacks with gambling. It is alleged that the cutting was the result of a dispute during the gambling.

Horse Crippled by Auto.

A horse driven to a vehicle by Oscar Cannon, colored, was crippled by an automobile driven by Clem. Allen, colored, on North Queen Street about 7:30 p. m. Saturday. Allen was arrested. He asserted that he was about to enter a garage when Cannon drove across the front of the machine, which he was unable to stop in time to prevent the collision. Other accounts may differ from Allen's, it is understood. Allen was driving the car of a white person residing in the country. The horse was killed by a veterinarian.
