Trying to Get Coal Up.
A member of the firm of Collins & Taylor is at Morehead City trying to push the shipment to this City of several hundred tons of coal recently purchased at a government admiralty sale there. The labor situation at Morehead City is so acute that it has been next to impossible to get the fuel loaded on cars.

Parker May Recover.
G. B. D. Parker, the Duplin County man recently shot and seriously wounded by a United States sailor named Cottle, has a chance to recover, say latest reports from his residence. Mr. Parker, Duplin's wealthiest citizen, was shot by the seaman to satisfy an old grudge. Cottle suicided after shooting Parker.

Death of Mrs. H. C. Foscoe.
The death of Mrs. H. C. Foscoe of Pollocksville recently removed a well-known woman from Jones County. Mrs. Foscoe was prominently related, and her kinpeople reside at many points in the State. Her death was sudden. She was 62 years of age and is survived by her husband and one son. A kinsman is Mr. K. F. Foscoe of Kinston.

Handsome Offering.
There was to be forwarded to the Masonic Orphanage at Oxford Thursday the sum of $514.15 contributed by local Masons and their friends as Kinston's annual Fall offering to the institution. Mr. Chas. Bagby was as usual the prime mover. He collected the money and his enthusiasm was largely responsible for its amount. The sum would keep the whole outfit of little ones at Oxford going a reasonably long time.

All Kinston Boys in 113th Non-com.
Sixteen men of the 113th Field Artillery have been selected for the third officers' training camp, and will proceed to Camp Stanley, Leon Springs, Texas, to arrive not later than January 7. William A. Allen, regimental sergeant-major, was among the lucky 16 chosen by a board that convened at Camp Sevier, S. C., December 22. "Although the War Department order directs us to report to the camp in Texas, Mr. Allen, a Kinston boy, writes the Free Press, a Greenville paper states that: "Later instructions read Fort Oglethorpe, Ga." This is not official, but Sergt.-Major Allen hopes it is true. "We are experiencing some very cold weather," he says, "but are making the best of everything. All of the Kinston boys are non-commissioned officers and doing good work."

MUNICIPALITY CUTS OUT STREET LIGHTS.
Hon. to give full effect to this order, using the full authority granted by the Federal Administration, if there are individual violations.
"The local Fuel Committee invokes the aid of the municipal authorities and of the patriotic public in the enforcement of the order of the Federal Fuel Administrator, the purpose being to conserve the fuel supply and thereby assist in relieving the fuel situation."

HERE YOU ARE - SOME LITTLE SENSATION.
This is contributed. Because of its extraordinary news value it is printed. It was sent around by a man representing himself to be a traveling salesman selling ladies' coats and suits for a New York manufacturing concern. Prepare to hear it:
"Thirteen head of boys walked across Neuse River this morning - 12 white and one colored, out of which were B. Marston, Mr. Henry Cummings and others. The one colored was Nelson Miller, one of Hotel Tull's porters. They all seemed to have been very nery."
