LOCAL INTEREST

For North Carolina: Cloudy and continued cool tonight and Sunday.

Song Leader Arrives.
Mr. P. M. Kendall of Danville, O., arrived Saturday to lead the music at a series of meetings at Gordon Street Christian Church beginning Sunday. Mr. Kendall is reputed to have had wide experience. He has travelled extensively in his work of conducting evangelistic singing.

To Organize Autoists.
Mr. E. V. Webb is selecting district chairmen for a proposed autoists' organization in Lenoir County under the auspices of the State association. Mr. Webb is the county chairman. The automobile owners will organize for war purposes. Cars which the Government can have for the asking will be listed, etc.

Board of Elections to Meet.
The County Board of Elections will meet Saturday to appoint two poll-holders and one registrar for each precinct and attend to other matters preliminary to the June primary. The members are Messrs. P. S. B. Harper, Kinston, and R. B. Creech, La-Grange, Democrats, and Mr. John E.
Cameron, Sharon, Republican.

A Speed Devil.
Ernest Copper (or Cooper), colored, has written the Sheriff's office here from Camp Grant, Ills., that he is a chauffeur in the National Army.
Copper states that there isn't any speed limit where he is at. He has a little run of 68 miles to make every once in a while and is given only 60 minutes to make it in, he says, adding that he never fails to make the distance within the time. Ernest's white friends were very glad to hear from him, but confidentially, they regard Ernest as a prevaricator of the ranked sort.

Dogs Must Be Muzzled.
The police Saturday made preparations to enforce the new ordinance requiring dogs to be muzzled on and after April 15. The canine population had better learn to adjust its masks quickly. The cops are tremendously serious about it. For weeks they have talked about the "rabid menace." The members of the force have gotten to know hydrophobia by touch. One City Hall employee says it wouldn't surprise him to see the whole department "run mad 'fore long." The law provides that any pup showing itself on the horizon after midnight Sunday shall wear a muzzle, not at the alert but in the last position—"execution completed." Small revolvers are being put into trim for an offensive against "flowwow." If you love your dog, take steps to protect him. His life and future happiness are in jeopardy.
The improvised pound isn't big enough to take care of all the dogs that roam the streets, so what are the cops to do with the overflow? We shudder to think of it.

COX CLOSES UP.
Mr. Grover B. Cox will close up his barber shop Saturday night after many years' business. He sold his building on Gordon Street some time ago, and recently has been disposing of his shop equipment. Cox's has been one of the best-known barber shops here. Mr. Cox will enlist in the army.

WILL PROBATED.
The will of the late Mr. W. O.
Moseley was probated Friday, with Mrs. Moseley as executrix and Mr.
Herbert Moseley executor. There are a number of heirs. The estate is estimated to be worth $100,000.

The Ventillo Feature
Of The
La Camille Corset

She is one of America's foremost corsetieres. She will be glad to explain why La Camille means better style, better comfort, better health and if you care to, demonstrate to you personally, the La Camille designed for your figure.

THE PATENTED VENTILLO BACK gets entirely away from discomforting pressure on the spine. Study the picture. See the lattice-like Ventillo feature. It makes a La Camille comfortable from the very minute you put it on and always cool because thoroughly ventilated.

THE VENTILLO FRONT SHIELD prevents scoring and is a real blessing to stout women.

La Camille corsets are designed by experts who are not only thoroughly conversant with style tendencies, but know anatomy. They combine unusual style with comfort.

We invite you to inspect the latest models of this famous corset, examine it critically, notice the good materials, and workmanship, and find out if it does not mean better corset style and comfort for you.

There is a La Camille for every figures and a very pleasing price range—$2 to $25. Wonderful value in every corset.
