St. Germain, June 2.—The peace treaty was handed the Austrian delegates at 12:29 p. m. President Wilson's late arrival prevented the meeting from convening until late. He was the last delegate to reach the chateau, entering the hall at 12:14. The document is regarded here one, he said. "We will call out all as a skeleton treaty.

Financial, economic, reparations, military and boundary clauses are either wholly or partially lacking.

WARRANTS ISSUED FOR COUPLE NEW HUSBANDS

ilas Wilson Charged With Overstating Bride's Age, Herman Wetherington With Abduction of

Silas Wilson, a cotton mill employe in West Kinston, was arrested Monday morning charged with perfury in procuring license to wed Miss Amanda Emory, daughter of W. A. Emory. W. A. Gurganus was arested on a similar charge for asisting Wilson.

At the same time officers were seeking Herman Wetherington, 26, charged with abduction. The war-rant was sworn out by J. N. Baker residing two miles from the city who alleged that Wetherington st his 14-year-old daughter Sunday night.

Wilson and Miss Emory and Wetherington and Miss Baker were married by the Rev. Abner H. Outw at the Free Will Baptist Church, East Kinston, Sunday night. Magistrate K. F. Foscue was called from his bed twice during the night to issue warrants against the bridegrooms and against Gurganus. Baker told the magistrate his daughter was a mere child. Wilson and Gurcanus said they were told that Miss Emory was 18 years of age and acted in good faith in applying for the liense. Katie Baker's age was given as 19 years.

Magistrate Foscue frequired only $5 each ball from Wilson and Gurganus. The charge against Wetherngton looked more serious, he said.
