

GOV. COX DESCENDS ON NEW YORK FOR A STRENUOUS PR'GR'M

Democratic Candidate in Fine Shape Following Addresses in New England

MARCHES AND FEASTS

And Makes Speeches at Metropolis—On Bill With Enright, Hylan and Smith at Gravesend—In Auto Parade

(By the United Press)
New York, Aug. 28.—Governor Cox renewed his assaults on the Republican campaign fund in his first New York speech at the Hotel Commodore luncheon. He was given a rousing reception as he marched from the Democratic club to the Commodore at the head of a mile-long parade.

The candidate waved his hand in response to greetings.

"If it were not that documents presented came from the very inside of Republican headquarters, then the country might look with some doubt on the whole thing for the simple reason that it is difficult to believe political generals can be so bold and brazen or foolish," said Cox.

"And yet the very thing exposed was simply a repetition of the follies of years," he declared.

New Haven, Conn. (On the Move With Cox), Aug. 28.—Cox early today prepared for his descent on New York, where he is to make speeches today. He appeared to be in fine physical shape following his five addresses in Connecticut.

Following is the program for the day:

The Governor arrives at New York at 10:45 he attends a reception at the National Democratic Club. At 11:15 he marches with a party to the Hotel Commodore. At noon he takes luncheon at the hotel. He will make an address there and will be introduced by William G. McAduo. At 1 the Governor will take his place in a motor car procession from Fifth Avenue to 42nd Street and Gravesend Race Track, where speeches will follow. The addresses will be made by Police Commissioner Enright, Mayor Hylan, Governor Smith of New York and Cox. At 7 the candidate will take dinner at the home of ex-Representative Fitzgerald in Brooklyn, with other party leaders.

Brazil Makes Plans

Will Outdo America in Reception to Belgian Royalty.

(By the United Press.)
Rio De Janeiro, Aug. 28.—To anyone who was in America last fall when the nation welcomed King Albert and Queen Elizabeth of the Belgians, the preparations being made by Brazil to outdo her sister republic in a reception to these same royalties next fall might be breath-taking. While no iron-clad program has yet been arranged, about the only question still to be answered is whether or not the royal couple can stand the strain.

The Belgian rulers are not expected to arrive here until September but already scarcely a day goes by without some new preparation for their visit being announced under glaring headlines in the press.

The Latin love of pomp and display is figuring largely in the plans. The army and navy are being worked overtime in an effort to whip them into shape to pass the review of the soldier-king, and officers and men alike, ordinarily snappy enough for any army, are fairly on their toes two months in advance of the advent of the monarchs.

A comparison between the proposed Brazilian reception of the King and Queen and that accorded them in the United States is nothing if not startling. It is like comparing a prayer to a grand hurrah.

Brazil knows how to make carnival and Rio has seen many gay nights and days. But it is doubtful if any festivity gone before will ever again be able to bat in the same league with this reception for the Belgian rulers. Not if the committee on arrangements, headed by the minister of foreign affairs, can help it.

6 NORTH CAROLINA ORGANIZATIONS IN SUPPORT 12 POINTS

Declaration of Principles of Industrial Relations, Adopted by Nation, Gets Hearty Support in This State

(By the United Press)
Washington, Aug. 28.—Six commercial and industrial organizations in North Carolina have gone on record in support of a declaration of 12 principles of industrial relations designed to establish a basis on which employers and employees may work out employment problems.

The vote was taken on the report of a committee of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States submitted to a country-wide referendum of business associations. The principles received the overwhelming approval of the organizations voting in every state in the union.

The organizations voting were: Hardware Association of Carolina, Charlotte; Chamber of Commerce, Fayetteville; Chamber of Commerce, Greensboro; Chamber of Commerce, Hickory; Heating and Piping Contractors, North Charlotte; Wilkes Commercial Club, North Wilkesboro.

Summarized, the 12 principles are as follows:

The Principles.
1. Every person has the right to engage in any lawful occupation and to enter individually or collectively into any lawful contract of employment, either as employer or employee.

2. The right to open-shop operation, that is, the right of employer and employee to determine the conditions of employment relations with each other, is an essential part of the individual right of contract possessed by each of the parties.

Organization Lawful.
3. All men possess the equal right to associate voluntarily for the accomplishment of lawful purposes by lawful means but such association confers no authority over, and must not deny any right of, those who do not desire to act or deal with them.

4. Associations or combinations of employers or employees, or both, must be legally responsible for their conduct and that of their agents.

5. The restriction of productive effort or of output by either employer or employee for the purpose of creating an artificial scarcity of the product or of labor is an injury to society.

6. The wage of labor must come out of the product of industry and must be earned and measured by its contribution thereto. It is the duty of management to cooperate with the worker to secure continuous employment.

7. The number of hours in the work day or week in which the maximum output, consistent with the health and well-being of the individual, can be maintained in a given industry should be ascertained by careful study and never should be exceeded except in case of emergency, and one day of rest should be provided.

8. Adequate means satisfactory both to the employer and his employees, and voluntarily agreed to by them, should be provided for discussion and adjustment of employment relations.

9. When the employer and his employees do not deal individually, but by mutual consent through representatives, representatives should not be chosen or controlled by or represent any outside group or interest.

Fulllest Consideration.
10. The greatest measure of reward and well-being for both employer and employee and the full social value of their service must be sought in the successful conduct and full development of the particular industrial establishment in which they are associated.

11. While the right of government employees, to secure just treatment must be amply safeguarded, the community welfare demands that no combination to prevent or impair the operation of government or of any government function shall be permitted.

12. The power of regulation and protection exercised by the State over the corporation should properly extend to the employees in so far as may be necessary to assure unimpaired operation of public-utility service.

INCREASES DO NOT INDICATE A CHANGE IN VIRGINIA CASE

Corporation Commission Still Intends to Fight Its Reopening

FOUR WOMEN NOTARIES

Appointed by Bickett—One at Goldsboro—After Years Mrs. Knight Gets Office—Wake Can't Get Teachers

(By MAX ABERNETHY)
Raleigh, Aug. 28.—The order of the State Corporation Commission yesterday putting into effect new intrastate freight rates with a 25 per cent. increase on freight, 20 per cent. on excess baggage and 20 per cent. for milk, does not indicate that the commission intends to recede from its former position of opposing the reopening of the case in which the discrimination in favor of the Virginia cities was removed.

Members of the commission, as has been previously stated, intend to fight the reopening of the old Virginia case and will assist the North Carolina Traffic Association in an effort to prevail upon the Interstate Commerce Commission to ignore the petition of the railroads. The order issued yesterday by the commission permitting the railroads operating in the State to put into effect the new schedule of intrastate rates is proportionate with those allowed by the Federal Government for interstate traffic. Had the commission refused to issue the order it would have been clearly a discrimination against the interstate rates, and the Federal Government very likely would have adjusted the intrastate rates in North Carolina as was done in Illinois.

Right Procedure.
"The proper procedure seems to us to be," the commission's order reads, "to give authority for the equal increase in intrastate rates and charges and to look with continued confidence to the Interstate Commerce Commission to provide such rates for interstate transportation as will remove existing discrimination in these rates."

Under the provisions of the order the increases follow: All freight transportation rates and charges, 25 per cent.; excess baggage rates, 20 per cent.; milk and cream rates carried on passenger trains, 20 per cent. The surcharge upon passengers in sleeping or parlor cars will be 50 per cent. of the charge for space in such cars, which is to be collected in connection with the charge for space and to accrue to the carriers.

Women Notaries

The first entrance of women into politics in one way, that of holding office, since the ratification of the suffrage amendment, was carried out yesterday with the appointment by Governor Bickett of four women notaries public. Mrs. Nolan Knight of Asheville was given the first appointment by the governor. The other women notaries are Miss Mattie Higgs of Raleigh, Miss Julia Alexander of Charlotte and Miss Ruth Middleton of Goldsboro.

Mrs. Knight's appointment was made by Governor Locke Craig in January, 1915, but the case was contested and the Supreme Court held that the Asheville woman was ineligible under the North Carolina Constitution. When prospects for the ratification of the suffrage amendment appeared certain Mrs. Knight again made application, Governor Bickett making the appointment as soon as Secretary Colby had proclaimed women voters under the new amendment.

Bank Resources.
Total increase in bank deposits in North Carolina, based on the call of June 30, was $131,786,087.96, a statement from the banking department of the Corporation Commission says. Total bank resources, State banks, amount to $196,488,831.88; national banks, $133,936,000, a total of $330,424,831.88.

Because teachers cannot be secured 10 Wake County schools will not open at the fall sessions, and it is almost certain that 20 other Wake schools will be minus one or more grades unless Supt. J. C. Lockhart makes better progress in employing teachers. In most instances the larger schools have been filled with teachers for the opening day this fall but teachers for the smaller ones present a problem that apparently will not be solved.

WOMEN CAUSED STRIKE.

Washington, Aug. 28.—Irish women sympathizers say they caused the strike of longshoremen handling British shipping at New York and that they intend fomenting other boycotts against British goods to "get the release of MacSwiney. The women say they will see Colby.

Connie Mack

Entertains Boys' Band at Cleveland-Philadelphia Game.

The biggest thing that has happened to the local boys' band on its tour of the Atlantic Coast occurred Friday afternoon, when the youngsters played for the Athletics and Indians' game at Philadelphia by invitation of Connie Mack and as that celebrity's guest. Mack, according to a message to The Free Press from James G. McHegan, the conductor, shook hands with each of the juvenile windjammers and presented each with balls that had been swatted over the fence by American League home run specialists, including Babe Ruth. Ten thousand fans heard the youngsters' selections and they were made much of by the Philadelphians.

The band was installed at the Young Men's Christian Association building near the city hall and Broad Street station, in the heart of the business district. This afforded Richard Hardy, "L. L. D.," who explains that he has no degree but uses "Long-legged Dick" for an alias, a vacation. Dick Hardy is the band's colored cook. He has a deep bass voice, deep ebony complexion and deep mystery about him in frying a chicken. All in all he has been a feature of the excursion. Dover, Del., and New York are expected to be the last places on the band's revised itinerary.

London, Aug. 28.—The sudden collapse of Terrence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork near death from his hunger strike, is expected hourly today. This is the 16th day of the hunger strike.

HEARTACHES THAT PERSIST TWO YEARS AFTER MEN DISAPPEARED

The American Legion Weekly announces the following additional unsolved mysteries of the war, in the hope that a reader of The Free Press may be able to supply the inquiring relatives with the information they desire:

Walter G. Craig, second lieutenant K Company, 69th Infantry, missing and probably captured in Bois de Fay October 4, 1918. Does any ex-prisoner of war know him? Address Clark Millen, 44 Oriental Street, Newark, N. J., who inquires for mother.

George H. Kilborn, private C Company, 127th Infantry, reported wounded Fismes August 4, 1918; reported killed Argonne October 5 of same year. Mother wants details. Address Mrs. C. F. Kilborn, Mesa, Colo.

Harold Meadows, private A Company, 139th Infantry, reported as missing in action Argonne September 28, 1918. Mother writes she has received conflicting reports from the War Department. Address Mrs. F. M. White, 1317 Lincoln Street, Coffeyville, Kan.

Ralph Whittle, sergeant Company D, 358th Infantry, wounded September 26, 1918, near Preny, in Argonne. "Presumed" dead. Anyone with knowledge of fate of this soldier correspond with his mother, Mrs. J. E. Whittle, 1368 East 14th Street, Des Moines, Ia.

Walter A. Sayers, private in K Company, 47th Infantry, officially reported missing in action August 3, 1918; officially reported slightly wounded July 31; officially reported returned to United States with his regiment. Did not return. Company associates last saw him July 29 in action and wounded. Address Father, William Sayers, McLeansboro, Ill.

HARDING FLATLY IN FAVOR OF KILLING LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Hopelessly Sick, Tells Delegation from Indiana in a Speech

FOR HAGUE TRIBUNAL

And Court of Justice to Be Maintained by Nations—"Utterly Impotent," Asserts—Can't Keep World Peace

(By the United Press)

Marion, Ohio, Aug. 28.—Hope of world peace lies in "putting teeth in The Hague tribunal" and not the League of Nations, "which undoubtedly has passed beyond the possibility of restoration," Senator Harding declared in a speech to an Indiana delegation today.

The Republican candidate came out flatly for scrapping the league, which he said has proven utterly impotent, and declared for incorporation of any of its merits in a court of international justice, animated by the considerations of right and justice instead of might and self-interest.

This court, he believes, might well be supplemented by the vote of a world association for conferences.

Britain Renews Charges.
Chicago, Aug. 28.—Renewing his charges that British influences and international bankers are combined to back Cox, Congressman Fred. Britten of Illinois today declared that he would urge the Senate subcommittee investigating campaign expenditures to inquire into this phase when it meets Monday.

Coolidge Opens in Massachusetts.

Boston, Aug. 28.—"Everybody has declared the present administration, particularly in its conduct of affairs abroad, unjust," Governor Coolidge declared today in a speech opening the Republican campaign in Massachusetts here.

WANTS MORE JUSTICES FOR BRAZIL'S COURT.

Rio De Janeiro, Aug. 28.—The supreme court of Brazil is about to sound the S. O. S. for more justices. It is six years behind in its work. In 1891 when Rio became the capital of a republic instead of the seat of an empire, the first decree of the new government created a supreme court of justice similar to the highest tribunal of the United States. Since that time the number of cases before the court has steadily mounted until now they reach into the thousands in a single year. At present there were 1500 cases presented for hearing. Only 600 were decided, however, in that time.

COX IS DEVOTED TO IDEALS IN KEEPING WITH BEST THOUGHT

Entitled to Support of Independent Voters, in Judgment of Senator Hitchcock—Progressive in Spirit

(By the United Press)

Washington, Aug. 28.—Senator Gilbert M. Hitchcock of Nebraska was asked by a number of prominent Democrats of Utah to set forth, briefly, over his signature, why he is for Governor Cox for President. In reply, Senator Hitchcock set forth the following cogent reasons:

"We may assume that all faithful Democrats will vote for Cox and will give Cox support for President of the United States not only because he is the unanimous selection of the Democratic convention, but because his public career has shown him to be not only a devoted supporter but a brilliant leader of the party.

"As a member of the House of Representatives and later as three times governor of Ohio, Cox has shown himself to be a man of force, energy, resource and indomitable character. He is a Democrat from the soles of his feet to the top of his head; a Democrat in his every-day life, and a Democrat in his strong convictions.

"But Cox is entitled to have the support of many voters who do not perhaps classify themselves as Democrats. He is entitled to have the support of men who believe in progressive ideas of government, because his whole public life has shown that he is devoted to those policies, while his opponent, Senator Harding, is very well recognized as not only a conservative, but a reactionary. It was because of the splendid record Governor Cox made in his first term as governor that he was twice thereafter elected governor. The record of progressive laws passed for the benefit of the people of Ohio under his administration is almost without a parallel.

"Again, Governor Cox is entitled to the support not only of independent voters, but of Republican voters as well who want to see the peace treaty ratified and the League of Nations established. His election means the ratification of the treaty and America's entrance into the League of Nations. The election of Senator Harding means that the peace treaty will not be ratified and that the United States will not enter the League of Nations. We need not inquire what reservations will be attached to the treaty. It is sufficient to know that such reservations will be attached as will carry out the will of the American people and win enough votes in the Senate to make ratification possible and that these reservations will not destroy the vitality of the league covenant.

Appeals to Independents.
"There is another reason why the election of Cox should appeal to the independent voter. It is because if elected President of the United States he will be President and exercise the powers of President given him by the Constitution and by acts of Congress. On the other hand, Senator Harding has frankly said that if elected President the powers of government are to be under the control of the Republican party, which means, of course, the bosses in the Republican party who have no responsibility. There are in the United States many hundreds of thousands of independent voters who can hardly be classified as members of any party, and they can hardly be willing to turn the Government of the United States over to an oligarchy controlled and directed largely by a few party bosses. The American voters when they elect a man to office desire to hold him personally responsible for the exercise of his powers and duties and not to have him abdicate those powers to party leaders or party caucuses.

"The American people have not yet quite forgotten the time when a certain former President of the United States was described as 'a large body entirely surrounded by a group of men who knew exactly what they wanted.'"

REMARKABLE RECORD OF HIGHWAY CONSTRUCTION.

(By the United Press)
Washington, Aug. 28.—The government under the present administration is spending more money for good road construction in cooperation with the various states than it cost to build the Panama Canal. The result of this work has been to initiate and complete road improvements and construction that aggregate in length more than nine times the distance from San Francisco to New York. In 1915, the federal and state governments expended in all for roads and bridges $287,000,000. This year they are spending together $633,000,000.

Many of the roads now being built are of the permanent kinds, such as bituminous concrete, Portland-cement concrete and vitrified brick. Roads of this type, when completed, will add 7,600 miles to national permanent highways.

JOSEPH KINSEY IS SUPER'D'T EMERITUS UNDER SPECIAL LAW

Veteran Schoolmaster to Retire as Active Head of Schools on Salary

LONG LIFE OF SERVICE

Beloved by Fellow Citizens. Has Sent Thousands on the Journey to Success—Unique Honor for Aging Sage

Thousands of people in a number of states will approve the passage of a bill at the recent special session of the General Assembly authorizing the Lenoir County Board of Education to elect Joseph Kinsey to the office of "superintendent emeritus of public instruction of the County of Lenoir." That in future will be his official title. The law is unique. Professor Kinsey is probably the only person in the United States to have been honored in this way.

Section 1 of the law provides that "Whereas, Joseph Kinsey of LaGrange, Lenoir County, has rendered signal service to the State of North Carolina, both in times of peace and in war, notably in war by volunteering, while a student at college, for service in the Confederate army, and after conspicuous bravery suffering imprisonment for many months on Johnson's Island in Lake Erie, and in the World War, furnishing a son who served continuously in France with peace by devoting his entire life since the Civil War to the cause of education, having taught and given the inspiration for their life work to many of the distinguished citizens of the State, and in late years having acceptably filled the position of superintendent of public instruction of the County of Lenoir; and whereas after a long life of most conspicuous public service in the educational life of the State, he continues to fill the position of superintendent of public instruction of the County of Lenoir, a task now grown too large and burdensome for his advancing years: Now, therefore be it enacted that the Board of Education of the County of Lenoir be, and the said board is hereby authorized, if and when in their judgment it is desirable to elect his successor, to retain his valuable services to the county and to the cause of education of the State, by electing Joseph Kinsey, superintendent emeritus of public instruction of the County of Lenoir, at such salary as in the judgment and discretion of the board is deemed expedient and just."

Sections 2 and 3 provide "That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed" and "That this be enforced from and after its ratification."

Professor Joseph Kinsey, having grown old in the service of mankind, would request no greater honor. He will see his 80th milestone in the next few years. He is remarkably active, a quick thinker, walker and talker. Among those who took their inspiration from the veteran schoolmaster is Fumford M. Simmons, United States senator, who has several times referred to the fact in public. Superintendent Emeritus Kinsey will draw a salary of $100 a month. In his declining years he finds himself well provided for though not in affluence. He has given little thought to earning money because he has been too busy setting countless others on the road to success. The nominal salary will make his way easier, of course. Chairman N. J. Rouse in announcing the beloved septuagenarian's "promotion" declared Professor Kinsey would continue to be of service to the county because he would not be able to "turn loose" entirely. No one imagines that Professor Kinsey will ever be able to stop work. Broad-minded, generous, affectionate toward all, polite and religious, Joseph Kinsey is probably first of all men in the esteem of Lenoir countians.

FEEDER AND STOCKER CATTLE WILL BE SOLD NEXT MONTH.

Raleigh, Aug. 28.—The first stocker and feeder cattle sale ever held in the State has been scheduled for Spruce Pine, N. C., September 23. This sale is to be held for the mutual benefit of the seller and purchaser, enabling those in the market to buy cattle direct from the producer without the middleman's profit.

The 800 cattle in this sale are from the best grade herds of Avery, Mitchell, and Yancey counties, and will be graded into uniform carload lots according to weight, quality, and condition. No cattle will be offered which weigh less than 450 pounds.

This sale will be held under the auspices of the Western North Carolina Cattle Growers' Association, of which W. R. Radford, of Spruce Pine, is chairman. Cornelius Driver, of the Union Stock Yards, Baltimore, Md., will conduct the sale.
