THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 14, 1921.

A wise son heareth his father's instruction; but a scorner heareth not rebuke.—Proverbs 13:1.

Headline: "Cuba will float a big loan in New York." That is more than a good many others can do.

It begins to look as though Senators Johnston and Borah had good reason to be fully satisfied with President Harding's position on the League of Nations.

We see by the Times that Raleigh is to have a Law Enforcement League. It begins to look like such organizations are becoming essential to proper law enforcement everywhere.

The entry of General Julian S. Carr, well-known capitalist and good citizen of Durham, into the mayoralty race, is creating widespread interest. If elected, the General's personal popularity abroad in the State and country will certainly serve to keep Durham in the limelight.

It's been a long time since 1776 and millions upon millions of Americans, who have come and gone in the interim, have been told that the American flag was designed by Betsy Ross, and Attorney Runk of the Ordnance Department of the Army Reserve will have some difficulty in disproving her claim, even if he has the evidence to do so.

President Harding flatly rejected the League of Nations on the ground that its acceptance would betray the mandate of the November elections. In view of the ambiguity of his and his party's stand on the League of Nations, in the campaign leading up to the November elections, we are not so sure that the vote could be so interpreted.

LACK OF PUBLICITY RESPONSIBLE.

Without disparagement of any of those who were elected in the city Democratic executive committee, The Free Press is very sorry that the final vote did not show that Mrs. Errol P. Dixon, the only woman candidate, was elected. There was some confusion at the polls over the two tickets and at some boxes, the ticket on which Mrs. Dixon's name appeared, was not, for some reason, available to voters until late in the day. In this connection, The Free Press understands that some of the poll-holders were not even advised of her ticket until towards the middle of the day.

No advance publicity had been given to the fact that she had been nominated by the women as their representative. Had her campaign been a little better managed, there would have been no difficulty in naming her. Next time, the women will have to make some announcements of their plans so that the voters will be advised and look out for their ticket.

The Free Press does not believe that it will be at all difficult to elect a representative woman on the executive committee. The women are entitled to a place and the only reason that they did not get it this time was that the voters did not understand their desires.

MANY VOTERS MUST REGISTER.

Due to the fact that every Democratic voter in Kinston was required to enroll for the party primary held last week, there is apt to be confusion in reference to registration on the part of new voters and those who have removed their residence from one ward to the other since the last municipal election. The enrollment for the primary was not a regular registration and all new voters and all who have moved from one ward to another, must register on or before the 25th of this month. This will include every woman voter in the city, all newcomers who have been here long enough to vote and all who have moved from one ward to another. This is a very important matter and should not be overlooked.

This registration is not a party affair. Members of all political parties, who are not now properly registered, must register. The names of registrars and the places of registration for the different wards, will be given from time to time in the news columns of the paper for the information of the readers.

The Lord Mayor of Cork, who has been in this country for several months, has until June 5th to leave, according to the latest edict of the State Department. The Lord Mayor, who came to our shores as a stowaway and political refugee, may find that conditions then will have so quieted down in Ireland as to make it reasonably safe for him to return, but for our part, we are inclined to hope that some way will be found to give the man a refuge until it is safe.

The Washington Daily News in a series of questions devised to bring out points of interest in Beaufort County history, asks: "What steps were taken to prevent hotel keepers from profiteering during the earlier part of the 18th century?" It might be a good idea, if the question is answered, for our contemporary to pass it along to the legislative committee, which would control the situation at the present time.

100 YEARS OLD

"The kidneys play a most important part in causing premature old age and death—the more injurious the poisons passing through the kidneys the sooner comes decay"—so says a distinguished physician, who further advises all people who are past thirty to preserve the vitality of the kidneys and free the blood from poisonous elements, such as uric acid—to drink plenty of pure water—swart some every day and take "An-uric" (anturic acid) before meals.

This "An-uric" is put up in tablet form, and can be obtained at almost any drug store. For that backache, lumbago, rheumatism, "rusty" joints, swollen feet or hands, due to uric acid in the blood, "An-uric" quickly dissolves the uric acid. It was discovered by Dr. Pierre of Buffalo, N. Y. Send him 10c for trial pkg.
