SOUTHERN CRY OF DISTRESS

[Correspondence New York Sun.] WASHINGTON, Ju'y 25. - The state of things in North Usrolina is deplorable in the last degree, and has been brought about by a political conspiracy contrived between the extremists in Congress and Governor Holden at Raielgh. Legislation in the days of the session was adopted as an electionsering trick, which will yet reach against those who resorted to the desperate expedient, by which personal liberty is outraged and the rights of the citisens are trampled under foot by reckless marauders like Col

There is not a more orderly, law abiding, or excellent population in the whole country than is to be found in the State of North Carolina. But the people are adverse to Governor Holden and his despotic and plundering gang. They intend to manifest that opposition at the ballot-box, and the knowle edge of such a condemnation has induced Holden to adopt these arbitrary and infamous measures for the purpose of preventing any popular expression against him. And he has been upheld by the extremists in Congress and by the President, both of whom would carry the elections by any means however Argrant.
