Naval Stores.

From the Wilmington Star we copy the following rules regulating the traffic in naval stores among members of the New-York Produce Exchange, to take effect on and after April 15th, 1874, approval of the Board of Managers:

SPIRITS TUBPENTINE.

Rule 1. All contracts for the purchase or wise specified, be on the basis and at the rate of seven (7) pounds net weight per galion. Rule 2. Spirits turpentine barrels and their ontents shall be weighed by pounds, and have their gross weight distinctly and conspicuously marked: while the actual ture of every barrel, after being properly glaed, shall be cut or indelibly branded on one head. Rule 3. Buyers may examine and test, at their own expense, the accuracy of marked weights and tares to the extent of ten (10) per cent, of any lot, and the average difference thus ascertained shall be accepted as that existing between the actual and marked tares - buver or sellers, as the case may be, receiving credit for such difference, and any ascertained difference in gross weights shall be rectified by reweighing the entire lot by another inspector at sel-

Rule 4. Three or weights thus rectified shall be cut or branded, as above provided, in correction of original brand.

Rule 5. Spirits turpentine sold in shipping order shall be "white," and equal in color to a standard sample established by and held in the custody of the "Committee on Naval Stores," hereinaiter provided for.

Rule 6. Packages for "hipping order" must be well made, new or good second hand barrels. holding from 38 to 50 gallons; staves of white oak; heads of white oak, or of white ash, all 900 well seasoned, and not less than three-quarters 000 | inch thick for the stayes, and one inch thick for the heading, when dressed. They shall 00 have six (iron) hoops say two headhoops one 15,000 and half inches wide, and four quarter and bilge hoops one and a quarter inches wide, and have, when new, at least three good coats of glue; second-hand barrels to have two fresh coats of good give. Each barrel shall have at least one good coat of Spanish brown paint on the heads, and when filled, the burnes shall be tight and well glued in.

Rule 7. Before delivery the barrels having been filled to within one and three-quarters or two inches of the bung, the packages and their contents shall be exardined by an authorized inspector, who shall reject as until for "ship-
