FRIDAY..... July 3, 1908.

A woman and her opinions are soon parted.

What makes beef rare these days?
Is it the price or the chef?

A guilty conscience needs no accuser, but it usually has one.

The power of a clean record as a success, cannot be overestimated!

You can lead all Tar Heels to water.
But how about making them drink?

When the fad for thinness encounters the directorie gown—well! well!
What then?

He is rich whose income is more than his expenses. So long as it remains that way.

"The way of the transgressor is so hard." Perhaps it is because it is traveled so often.

The absence of free passes prevented a crash at Chicago and its effect will be felt at Denver.

However, the smile that Mr. Taft carries is of but little utility in prohibition communities.

The kindly rain made its appearance yesterday. Lucky for New Bern.
Our percentage remains the same.

A woman lawyer of Chicago has earned a fee of $30,000. A woman who can knock down that sum by talking is in luck.

There are three things about which one should not be too conscious, and which is well to leave undisturbed—one's digestion, one's love, one's religion.

A Boston paper has discovered that a large amount of horse meat is being sold in the markets of that city. Is Boston really slow as this would indicate?

When a man makes up his mind to give up anything, from a woman to a vice, it suddenly becomes so attractive to him that he begins to take a new and violent interest in it.

The man who keeps his sentiment bottled up and his money lying in the bank is no narrow that he wouldn't take a broad view of anything even if he saw it on a bargain counter at half price.

Immediately upon the completion of the temporary organization of the Denver convention Judge Parker will introduce a resolution touching on the life and character of Grover Cleveland and calling for a recess in respect to the memory of deceased ex-president.

THE COLORED VOTE.
"Do not let any political party feel that they are always sure of your vote, nor let any party feel that they can never get your vote."

This sentence is taken from a recent speech of George W. Cable, who was making an effort to gain the negro vote, by endeavoring to pose as missionary, with a heart full of advice and politics.

To us of the South who know the negro intimately, it is ridiculous and time wasted, carrying on such work as some of the republican leaders do.
The negro is a republican. It is with him a fetish to follow blindly the party that liberated him, placed the ballot in his nerveless hands and for distressful time his feet upon the necks of his prostrate master. The lessons of those unpardonable crimes it will take generations to unlearn.
The temporary evil wrought by this total subversion of the fundamental laws of human nature is negligible when compared with the results of the ingrained twist it gave to the hopes and passions of a weak nature.
You just as well expect to gather grapes of thorns and figs of thistles as to expect the negroes to support the democratic party, especially in the North and South.

Mr. Cable becomes eulogistic, and then drops into a delusion, while in this dream, it appears, he sees visions and comes forth with this prophecy:
"It begins to look as though the time was at hand when it would be acted upon by the negroes of this country more extensively than ever before since the emancipation."

It looks like some new roads have been cut along the republican party lines, especially those leading up to the negro headquarters. This doctrine being preached to them is all right and is not denied. Their right to choose between the candidates is credible, and cannot be disputed, if we are allowed to look over the campaign books of the late Senator Hanna. We have no doubt that this evidence might be reinforced were the things done in secret during the present canvass, proclaimed from the housetops.

The negro must be judged fairly, and to do this it requires the comprehension of his antecedents and a full knowledge of his unquestionable limitations. You cannot measure the race by the high standard of a few advanced and honorable members. It is, to our mind, unreasonable and un-historical to apply to him the exalted ethical rules to which we subject the most civilized races.

The negro is nature's well grown child and without doubt is the chattel mortgage of his republican herdsmen, and when the goad is applied he will spring ahead in the direction advised regardless of what has been said or done previously.

He was as sick as sick could be,
Friends could give but sympathy Now he's well and strong as three, Since taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea.

The raspberry crop is now ripe, but the chickens are picking them. The hawks are catching the chickens, the people are shooting the hawks, the city marshal is after the shooters, the public is after the city marshal at all times, and the wet weather is doing the public up generally.

TO FIGHT TUBERCULOSIS Virginia's State Board of Health Will Begin Campaign at Once.

Richmond, Va., July 3.—The new state board of health, created by the last legislature, entered upon its career yesterday and with broader powers and larger appropriations will begin at once a campaign in the interest of public health. War on tuberculosis will be waged from the start, and plans of work in other directions were discussed in addresses by members at the first session of the board this afternoon. Dr. R. W. Martin, of Lynchburg, was elected president and Dr. Charles D. Grandy, of Norfolk, secretary. Dr. Ennon G. Williams is state health commissioner in charge of the new department, with Dr. W.
Allen Freeman and Dr. Meade Ferguson as assistants.

DEMOCRATS ISSUE HANDBOOK.
Will Furnish Ammunition for Congressional Campaign.

Washington, July 3.—The democratic congressional committee today issued its campaign text book, which contains 389 pages of reasons why the next house of representatives should be democratic. It is composed almost altogether of extracts from the congressional record, giving speeches made by leading democrats during the last session of congress.

Among the subject are "republican extravagance," "Publicity for campaign funds," "The tariff and trusts," "federal usurpation," "Financial and industrial conditions," "currency reform, Tyranny of the speaker and rules committee, republican responsibility, The Philippine's policy, Alarming conditions, labor, election of United States senators by vote of the people, Merchant Mariner's vindication, and Thou shalt not steal." The latter is a reproduction of the speech of William J. Bryan in New York on February 4, inserted in the record under "leave to print" given to Representative H. D. Clayton, of Alabama.

"Parker's Vindication" is an editorial from a New York newspaper of February 4, the insertion of which in the Congressional Record was secured by Representative Francis B. Harrison.
The republican campaign book, issued by the congressional committee will be issued about August 1.

ROOSEVELT WIELDS AXE
Hazing Days Over, Roosevelt Turns Energy to Felling Trees.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 3.—President Roosevelt, in the first ten days of his vacation, has succeeded in doing considerable work in the fields and woods on his grounds at Saga-more Hill, besides entertaining many visitors and holding conferences with Mr. Taft. His activity never halts.
If there is no work on the grounds of his state he spends his time in reading or in recreation in the form of riding, swimming, or rowing. Splendid weather though somewhat warm, has favored the president during his vacation.

The president's home on Saga-more Hill are several fields which this year grew good crops of hay. Taking advantage of the fine weather for hay-making the president went out into the fields and helped to do the mowing and raking and loading the hay.
The hay crop having been harvested the president has turned his attention to the clearing of a stretch of woods comprising about forty acres recently purchased by him to enlarge his estate. With his axe on his shoulder accompanied by an attendant, also with an ax, the president this morning started out for a few hours' work at tree-chopping. Before noon he had felled a number of trees, leaving only such as he desired to stand to make the property correspond with that adjoining.

At luncheon today the president entertained S. S. McClure, Casper Whitney and James T. Williams, the latter a member of the Taft campaign bureau.

MONUMENTS TO CONFEDERATES
A Bedridden Veteran Pulled String That Unveiled It.

Buckingham, Va., July 3.—The Confederate monument just erected here was unveiled yesterday at the same time that the cornerstone was laid.
The double ceremony was very impressive and was attended by a large crowd, including a great number of veterans.

Mr. Williams B. Megginson, an aged veteran, who has been bedridden for many years, was placed in his wheel chair and rolled to the base of the monument and he pulled the string that threw aside the veil and displayed the monument. A great cheer went up from the crowd when the veil was removed.

Judge R. T. W. Duke of Charlottesville, delivered the oration. Dinner was served on the grounds and the old soldiers seemed to enjoy the reunion day. A band of young girls dressed in red, white and blue sang "Dixie" and a number of the war songs of long ago. Captain Sam T.
Moseley was on hand with his banjo and played and sang.

MARTIN WILL NOT ATTEND.
Virginia Junior Senator Unable to Go With Delegation to Denver.

Richmond, Va., July 3.—United States Senator Thomas S. Martin, one of the four delegates at large from Virginia on account of illness in his family, will not attend the Denver convention.
Senator Martin was vigorously opposed to instructions for Bryan by the state convention.

Sentence Commuted to Life Imprisonment

FOR MURDER OF GOV. STUENBURG Orchard Was to the Last Opposed to Having His Sentence Interferred
With—Hoped Efforts to Save Him Would Fail.

Boise, Idaho, July 3.—The state board of pardons yesterday commuted the sentence of Harry Orchard, who was under sentence to hang next Friday, for the murder of former Governor Frank Steunenberg, to imprisonment for life.

Orchard was arrested two days after the assassination of former Governor Steunenberg at Caldwell, Idaho, December 30, 1905, and a few weeks later, while confined in the Idaho penitentiary, confessed his guilt to James McPartland, a well known detective, at the same time asserting that he was employed to commit the crime by officers of the Western Federation of Miners. As a result of his confession, Charles H. Moyer, president and William D. Haywood secretary and treasurer of the Western Federation of Miners, and Charles D.
Petibone were arrested in Denver, and brought to Idaho to answer the charge of murder. John Simpkins, another member of the federation, was also indicted, and is still a fugitive.

Haywood and Petibone were acquitted after memorable trials, in which Orchard told a story of wholesale assassination which shocked the world. Following the trial of Petti-bone, the case against Moyer was dismissed.

Orchard pleaded guilty to murder in the first degree. In pronouncing the sentence of death a week later, Judge Wood recommended that the board of pardons commute the sentence, saying he was firmly convinced that Orchard had told the whole and exact truth at the trials of Haywood and Pettibone, and that he was therefore, for the service he had rendered the state, entitled to clemency.

Orchard was to the last opposed to having his sentence interfered with.
Only yesterday he said to the attorney that he hoped the efforts to save him from the gallows would fail.

Lives on $75 a Year.
New York Times.

In order that he may give his entire property to the poor, Victor Schmidt, a well known Omaha musician, was today discovered living in a cellar, for which he paid $1.50 a month.
In his pocket were certificates of deposit for nearly $8,000. Schmidt asserts that he lives on $75 a year and gives the balance of his earnings to the poor.

Schmidt is a college bred man and a former student at a German university. He has always been a charity worker. He is attempting to save $10,- 000 with which to endow an institution for the poor.

sons firing rockets of any kind at any other point within the city will subject themselves to a penalty of $10 as provided in Section 77 of the Ordinances of the city.

The firing of guns and pistols of any kind, at any point within the limits of the city is forbidden. (See Sec.
77.)
By order of the mayor,
F. T. PATTERSON,
City Clerk
New Bern, N. C., July 1, 1908.

Wants a Bird Carlew New.
New York Times.
The town of Montclair has silenced the dogs and early morning church bells, and now a nervous resident has asked Councilman Charles H. Hartshorne, the instigator of the curfew for dogs, to take measures to silence the birds of the town.

This disgruntled citizen takes particular exception to the noise of the robin and the sparrow, which, he says, awaken him too early every morning. A woman on Valley road has asked the councilman to introduce a "curfew" for the yowling cats of the town, and Mr. Hartshorne says he expects that somebody will soon want him to suppress the bark of the trees.
