MAE WOOD INDICTED.

Perjury and Forgery Charged Against Woman Who Sued Platt.

By Wire to The Sun.
 New York, July 3.—Mae C. Wood, whose suit for divorce against United States Senator Thomas C. Platt was dismissed, were indicted today for perjury, and for forgery in the third degree. The perjury consists in her having sworn that she was married to Senator Platt and having produced a marriage certificate written on a blank which was made, according to the printers, after the date of the alleged marriage. The forgery charge is based on the letter which she said Senator Platt had signed acknowledging her as his wife.
 Assistant district attorney Garvin, who presented the case to the grand jury, said that Mae Wood was in the west and would be here on Monday.

A Lot of Money.

Boston Globe.
 According to figures prepared by officials of the department of agriculture at Washington, the crops of 1908 will be worth nearly $8,000,000,000.
 That's a lot of money.

Going into the pockets of the American farmer it means prosperity for them, and when the men who till the soil are prosperous the times are generally good for everybody in this country.

Take the tip and get ready now to do business. Don't let the fact that this is a presidential election year scare you even a little bit. Folks will eat and drink and wear clothes and build homes regardless of the political complexion of the next lodger in the white house.
 The harvest days will soon be here—sooner than you think.

 Nashville, Tenn., July 3.—The republican state committee of which Newell Sanders is chairman, met here yesterday. It was decided to place a full state ticket in the field for the November election and a state convention was called to meet here August 12th.

JOSEPH GASKILL,

DO YOU KNOW PROFESSOR HOLDEN?

The Man Whose Corn Lectures and Corn Trains Have Added More than Twenty Million Bushels to the Corn Crop of Iowa.

Prof. Holden has prepared for us a book which gives the cream of his lectures on corn growing. It tells all about seed selection, seed testing, getting a stand, corn judging, corn pests, etc., etc.
 It is a practical farmer's handbook. It is not theory but practice just as it has been worked out on the farm. The name of this work is

THE A B C AND CORN CULTURE
"MOST VALUABLE BOOK OF THE CENTURY"

A. I. Root, the veteran agriculturist and bee man, says: "This book is the most valuable work published in the last century if the farmer will take right hold of it with enthusiasm and put its teachings into practice."

The book is 5 1/4 by 8 1/4 inches. Contains 100 pages and over 80 illustrations. Well printed, neatly bound. We want to put this book in the hands of every live farmer and farmers' boy in the country, and will make the price low accordingly.

A BARGAIN PRICE—Send us 10 cents, coin or stamps, and we will send you the book by mail, postpaid. If, when you get it, you are not satisfied drop us a card and we will return your money, also postage for the return of the book. Could anything be fairer? Address
