

Remarkable Story

The story of Mrs. Matilda Warwick, of Kokomo, Ind., as told below, proves the curative properties of that well-known female remedy, Wins of Cardui. Mrs. Warwick says:

TAKE CARDUI

It Will Help You

"I suffered from pains in my head, shoulders, limbs, side, stomach low down, dizziness, chills, nervousness, fainting spells and other female troubles. I was almost dead. Three doctors did not help me. At last, I took Cardui, and with the first bottle obtained relief. Now I am cured. But for Cardui, I would have been dead." Try Cardui.

TONIGHT AT THE AMUSEA.

Bluebeard. This is a picture that will speak for itself. No doubt all who have ever read the story of Bluebeard and his seven wives will readily call to mind the tale that is so beautifully woven together by the author. It will be a pleasure to us to show you such a picture as this.

The Dog and His Habits. Something entirely new and you will find this picture one that will please you from start to finish as it points out to you the different types, modes of living and the breeds of our dumb friend, the dog.

The show tonight is one that you will be both startled and amused. Come out and bring your friends.

FISHING PARTY.

New Bern's fish market is bound to be a little slack for a few days next week, if reports current on the streets today prove to be true. The steam launch Thelma, Capt. L. J. Taylor, left this morning, via canal, for Morehead City, and carried a party of distinguished fishermen who have an eye that is superior when it comes to watching the cork.

The members of the party are Mr. L. J. Taylor, Hon. E. M. Green, City Tax Collector J. J. Tolson, Mr. Ralph Gray, one of our leading wholesale grain dealers, Dr. N. B. Gibbs and ex-Alderman A. H. Bangart.

These gentlemen have made similar trips of this kind and know what steps to take in preparations for a successful trip, and it is said they have left nothing undone this time to complete the program, having supplied themselves with all the necessities prescribed for such an occasion.

The party will return Monday and quite an interesting fish story is looked for by the friends of the distinguished party.
