CUMMINS A CANDIDATE

Governor of Iowa Announces Himself A Candidate to Succeed Sen. Allison By Wire to The Sun.

Lake Forest, Ill., Aug. 6.—Governor Albert B. Cummins, of Iowa, tonight announced himself as a candidate to succeed United States Senator Allison. The Governor paid a glowing tribute to his late political adversary's services to Iowa and the country at large, then frankly declared his ambition to be elected to the Senate by the Legislature of his State. He also announced that "some one will be appointed at once to occupy Senator Allison's seat for the remaining months of his unexpired term."

He refused, however, to say what he would do regarding the senatorship during the unexpired portion of Senator Allison's term, which ends on March 4th, 1909. He declared that there was plenty of senatorial timber in Iowa, but declined to discuss possible candidates for the appointment.

WOMAN CHOKED AND ROBBED

Beaten Into Insensibility by Negro, Who Escapes With $13 Booty By Wire to The Sun.

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 6.—Alone in her home in Prentiss Park, Portsmouth today, Mrs. Albert Powell, aged 65 years, was attacked by a negro, who choked and beat her into insensibility and then robbed her of $13. The man fled and has not been captured.

The negro walked up to the aged lady and grabbed her by the throat with such violence that she had no chance to scream. Beating and choking her, he left her on the floor for dead, while he ransacked the house for money. As he left he locked all the doors and took the keys with him.

After regaining consciousness, Mrs. Powell crawled through a window and gave the alarm.
