CHARGES WERE TABLED

Never Acted Upon

Richmond, Va., Aug. 20.-Eighteen months ago, at a regular meeting of ily. the city council, the committee appointed to look into charges brought by Mayor Carlton McCarthy against the finance committee, made their report, which vindicated Mayor McCarthy by upholding his contentions against the finance committee. The report, however, was re-committed with the recommendation that it be returned with the proper resolutions attach. ed. This was done and the report was tabled.

Mayor McCarthy's term will expire within a few days, but as yet this report has never been read before the council nor any public action taken to throw light on the investigation.

Emptied Shot Gun at Close Range As Car Sped By By Wire to The Sun.

Swansboro, Va., Aug. 20 .- Nothing but the timely warning of a nurse C. Williams' motor car, saved her portion of the an and the colored chauffeur from injury or perhaps death at the hands of Thomas Hancock a drunken white man, who deliberately fire a charge of shot into the side of the machine as it sped along the road just outcounty, yesterday morning. The man, be put up against him. when arrested in the afternoon, gave no reason for his act, as he was still placed in the Chesterfield county jail. Mr. Williams will appear against him Friday morning.

The machine had been sent to Mr. in the morning to carry Miss Williams and leave her there. The child was in charge of her nurse. The auchauffeur, these being the only occupants. The nurse said that as they went out, Hancock was standing on the side of the road with the gun in his hand, and flourished it as the car ran close to him. She said that she was frightened at this, but that

When the machine neared the same spot on the return trip, she noticed that Hancock was still there and told the chauffeur to drive rapidly. Accordingly, the speed was increased .-Just as the car reached him, Hancock raised the gun. The nurse screamed to the boy to dodge, and at the same moment she fell into the tonneau.

Just as they screened themselves by the heavy sides of the car, Hancock pulled the trigger, with the muzzle of the gun almost agginst it. A number of the shot struck the machine, but many went over it, and would have wounded the occupants had they not dodged so quickly. When the car was examined after its arrival here the marks were plainly visible on the hardwood sides.

As soon as he heard of the shooting, Mr. Williams returned to Chesterfield with his car, and took County Policemen Jerold and Watts with him. They were not long in locating the man, who was captured, without re_ sistance. He was taken to the county

Hancock, who was still under the influence of liquor, would not talk of drinker. Mr. Williams will appear against him, and the probabilities are that he will be sent to the grand jury after a preliminary hearing before a magistrate
