A Single Dollar

by itself seems a trifle, yet it is the collective influence of many spent dollars that holds many a young man to the dead level of mediocrity, and the collective influence of many single dollars saved in this Bank that lifts others to success.

FEDERAL WORK AT SALISBURY

Postoffice Plans Ready and National Cemetery to be Improved.

By Wire to The Sun. Salisbury, N. C., Aug. 20.—Senator Lee S. Overman, has been advised that the preliminary plans and sketches for Salisbury's new Federal building have been completed and forwarded to the cabinet board for approval. It is also stated that work on the new structure, which is to cost $125,000, will begin at an early date.

Assistant Quartermaster General Whitworth, writes Senator Overman from Washington that the bids for the construction of a public roadway to the national cemetery in Salisbury will include bitulithic pavement, and that ornamental gates will be placed at the entrance to the grounds, where more than 11,000 Federal prisoners were buried. An appropriation of $15,000 was recently made for the improvements here.

Thirteen Persons Hurt

By Wire to The Sun. Fort Smith, Ark., Aug. 20.—Thirteen persons are reported hurt in an accident to passenger train on St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern Railway. The train was derailed in Oklahoma.

Details are lacking, and it is not known whether any of the injured are dead or not.

HAS NO MONEY FOR WIFE

She Tires of Scrubbing While He is Out Nightly and He is Arrested. By Wire to The Sun.

Baltimore, Md., Aug. 20.—The following is a little drama which Mrs. Brushe, of this city, told Justice Thompson this morning, said to be enacted every day and night at her home:

Scene, 3433 Lexington avenue. Principals, Peter J. Brushe and his wife, Augusta.

Time, 10 a. m., any day. Brushe is upstairs in bed. Mrs. Brushe is downstairs, either scrubbing the floors or washing clothes for her neighbors for a few cents. When the clock strikes 10 Brushe rubs his eyes and crawls out of bed. He reaches over and puts on a good suit of clothes and other wearing apparel. Then he goes out.

Mrs. Brushe is still scrubbing or washing when supper time comes. Brushe is still out. All the furniture has been sold by the little woman to pay the rent, and she has lived at the Lexington avenue home only a short time. They were compelled to leave their last home.

Night comes on and Mrs. Brushe goes wearily to bed. Time speeds on. Twelve and 1 o'clock come. Brushe is still out. Two o'clock comes, and he climbs up the stairs. He has given his wife $2 or $3 in the last three months. He has no money now for her.

Brushe was standing before the magistrate on the charge of refusing to support his wife. He did not deny the charge.

"I didn't give her the money," was his excuse, "because she used to give it to the children to buy candy."

Justice Thompson set bail at $500 for his release for the action of the grand jury.

NOTICE!

After September 1st, 1908, we shall conduct our business as follows:

Household accounts not over 60 days.

Wholesale accounts not over 30 days.

We purchase for spot cash to obtain discounts in order to get lowest prices.

We no longer care to give indefinite credit for months, years, etc.

We are tired of "Please remit, your account is long overdue" etc

We take this step in justice to those who are good pay and also to ourselves.

We have no time to listen to explanations or "hard luck tales"

All those having outstanding accounts with us please settle, as we wish to liquidate them and cease worrying.

Difficult accounts will be placed in the hands of our attorneys for collection. New Bern merchants cannot go on successfully unless prompt pay is demanded and exacted.
