COL. HORNE GOES THROUGH

Recent Candidate for Governor Passenger Yesterday

Durham, N. C., Aug. 20.—Col. Ashley Horne, one of the three candidates for governor in the late contest, passed through Durham yesterday afternoon on his way home from Greensboro.

Col. Horne was in his characteristic mood, gay, young and contented. He says he does not feel the fatigue of the campaign and feels better after the race than he did during it. He declares that rest and a good conscience will invariably repel the encroachments of age. He is now 65 years of youth and as smart as ever.

Col. Horne formerly had property interests in Durham and knows pretty nearly everybody here.

TRAIN DERAILED.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 19.—Train No. 13, of the Southern Railway's Chicago-Midland limited, was derailed near Macon this morning.

There were no casualties. The entire train left the track but did not turn over. A defective truck under the baggage car caused the accident.
