

A Simple Remedy

Cardui is a purely vegetable extract, a simple, non-intoxicating remedy, recommended to girls and women, of all ages, for womanly pains, irregularity, falling feelings, nervousness, weakness, and any other form of sickness, peculiar to females.

TAKE CARDUI

It Will Help You

Mrs. A. C. Beaver, of Unicoi, Route No. 1, Marbleton, Tenn., writes: "I suffered with bearing-down pains, feet swelled, pain in right side, headache, pains in shoulders, nervous palpitation, and other troubles I cannot mention, but I took Wine of Cardui and have found it the best medicine I ever used, for female troubles." Try Cardui.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Short Items of Interest Condensed Into Small Space

There will be a meeting of the Girls Friendly Society at the Parish House, Monday evening at 7:45 o'clock.

All who would enjoy a delightful social evening are invited to a "Silver Tea" at the residence of Mrs. James A. Bryan, Thursday, January 14th, from 4 to 6 p. m. A donation will be received at the door in silver ranging from ten cents to one dollar for benefit Christ Church Guild.

Dr. Joe Whitaker, of Raleigh, N. C., an eye, nose and ear specialist, is in the city today, making arrangements to establish dates to visit New Bern to treat patients who need attention in these special cases. Dr. Whitaker will be located in the office of Dr. N. M. Gibbs in the Elks Temple.

At a regular meeting of the D. & B. Club held last night at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Tolson, on Broad street, the following officers elected for the ensuing year were installed: Mrs. J. F. Rhem, W. A. B.; Mrs. L. C. Tolson, G. A. D.; Mrs. Clyde Eoy, G. E. B.; Mrs. L. H. Cutler, Jr., G. N. After the installation the members repaired to the dining room where a sumptuous supper was served, which was heartily partaken of.

Another day has passed and the silence of Judge Bryan's voice in the city police court is noticeable. The chronic violators of the city ordinances are taking a rest, preparing for a new and fresh start.

Weather forecast for North Carolina: Threatening with possibly rain late tonight or Sunday; with rising temperature.

The following out-of-town gentlemen arrived in the city this morning and registered at the different hotels: T. A. Richards, Jr., of Baltimore, Md., at the Gaston; S. H. Sincow, of Philadelphia, Pa., at the Hazelton; and J. T. Lawrence, of Richmond, at the Gem.

Mr. Graham Richardson, a very prominent and popular farmer of the village of Bellair, is spending the day in the city with relatives and friends, and looking after some business matters.

Elks Dance.

The regular Friday evening dance was given last evening by the Elks Club in their hall in their elegant temple. The affair was an enjoyable one, dancing the square dance, Virginia reel, and the barn dance. Music was furnished by a 7 piece string and reed instrument band, lately imported from Russia.

The couples were: Mr. Jessie Claypool with Miss Sarah Congdon; Mr. R. Hunter Smith with Miss Katie Street; Dr. Joe Whitaker, of Raleigh with Miss Elizabeth Burrus; Mr. Albert Patterson with Mrs. H. C. Lumsden; Dr. J. F. Patterson with Miss Annie Foy; Mr. Tom Daniels with Mrs. Mamie Bentoo; Dr. W. L. Hand with Miss Elizabeth Ellis; Mr. Morrison with Miss Mae Moore. Stags, Mark Stevenson, Ralph Davenport, J. D. Kinser, Ralph Gray, and a number of members of the Elks Lodge. Visitors, Judge James E. Boyd and Col. P. M. Pearsall. Chaperones were: Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Marchant, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Jack, Mrs. I. C. Yeomans, and Mrs. H. C. Lumsden.

FACTS AGAIN PROVEN.

A few weeks ago we had an article in The Sun regarding a Remington typewriter which was broken in transit and stated that the salesman would like to dispose of it at a very low price. The same afternoon that the article appeared in The Sun we sold the typewriter to Mr. Geo. Dall, of this city.

Yesterday afternoon there appeared in The Sun an article stating that a lady who was to leave the city soon desired to dispose of her Smith-Premier typewriter together with the stand. The typewriter was sold last night in less than two hours after The Sun was published to Prof. H. B. Craven, of this city.

This clearly proves what we have claimed for The Sun, that it is the best advertising medium in Eastern North Carolina and merchants who have bargains to offer should advertise in this paper. The paper is constantly advertising and boosting the town, and what does the town good, will certainly help the individual merchant, so they should help their own business as well as help to support their home paper by advertising in this paper. Try an ad and see if what we say is not true.

CARRIED FROM BURNING HOME.

Little Children in Great Peril While Mother Sneezes.

By Wire to The Sun.
Darby, Pa., Jan. 7.—While their mother had swooned from excitement, and lay unconscious on the floor of the front room, the two little children of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Hubert, of No. 2 North Sixth street, Darby, were when critically ill from pneumonia which was carried out of their home.

SHOCK REVERSED ENGINE.

Caused It to Run Away and Complete Explosion's Damage.

By Wire to The Sun.
Clifton Forge, Va., Jan. 8.—At Lignite, a mining centre on the Craig Valley branch of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway, there was an explosion of a carload of powder today, which resulted in the instant death of three men and the probable fatal injury of four others. The powder had been transferred to one of the cars of the Oriskany Ore & Iron Corporation, and the spinning train was en route to the mines with it when a spark from the engine ignited a defective keg and precipitated the trouble.

The shock of the explosion caused the small locomotive to reverse itself and run away down the mountain grade, making a complete wreck of what the explosion had failed to destroy. The dead were mangled beyond recognition.

The Oriskany Ore & Iron Corporation owns and operates the mines at Lignite and the furnaces at Iron Gate, and the explosion is the only fatal accident the corporation ever has experienced.

GIRL SAVES BOY SKATER.

Lies on Thin Ice and Extends Her Hand to Him.

By Wire to The Sun.
York, Pa., Jan. 9.—Risking her own life in the undertaking, a 16-year-old girl saved the life of Lester Keller, a companion of the same age, when the latter broke through the thin ice upon the Cordorus creek, where both were skating.

No one else was in sight when the youth sank into the water, and lying flat upon the ice, the girl extended her hand, and managed to draw him out.

WOMAN IN WHITE FREEZES.

Invalid Wanders in Nightgown in Terrible Cold.

By Wire to The Sun.
Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 9.—Mentally deranged, clad only in a night dress and cap, Mrs. Elizabeth Benson, of Finance street, wandered about Brushport streets for five hours this morning, when the temperature was 10 degrees above zero. As a result of the exposure there is little hope of her recovery.

PROGRAM AT AMUSEA TONIGHT

"The Half Breed"—This picture shows the way and manner of living on the western plains, and looking for the gold fields. It carries you through the mining country, the scenery of which is beautiful. There is a bit of romance connected with it, which will be interesting.

"The Sonnambulist"—If you have ever walked in your sleep, you can surely appreciate this film. A man hides a sum of money, and when he awakes forgets where he has placed it. He and his wife turn the house "upside-down" but their search is in vain, and the missing package is never found until he is allowed from his cell in which he was confined for the theft, while again asleep. His devoted wife is ever with him, and seeks to comfort and console him.

"An Obstinate Tooth"—The toothache is something dreadful, most of us know, and the poor fellow in this picture nearly goes wild; but after a while he gets relief. "Tis ridiculously funny, and will keep you constantly laughing. Remember we show rain or shine. Orchestra and illustrated song.

See me before you buy that bookcase. I have Macey's—OWEN G. DUNN.

The Merit of Jewelry

It is hard to decide upon and only an expert is familiar with the tell tale earmarks. We never buy cheap, common Bargain Counter Jewelry and in dealing here you run no risk of getting it. The frank assurance of the actual intrinsic value of a purchase is invariably given. Isn't this some inducement, then, for you to pay a visit here and favor us by giving us the pleasure of showing you our several different lines? In silverware we have as complete an assortment as money will buy. Beautiful Berry Spoons $3.00, $4.00, $5.00, etc., etc.
