NEWS IN BRIEF

Short Items of Interest Condensed into Small Space

Mock court trial tomorrow night at New Masonic Opera House.

Balcony seats will be sold for both white and colored for The Cat and Fiddle and Buster Brown. Seats can be secured at Kater's Bakery, for Cat and the Fiddle, Tuesday and Buster Brown, Wednesday.

Mr. F. M. Shortage, agent for Buster Brown Company, is in the city today, making arrangements for the big show on Friday night.

Mr. W. E. Raynor, agent for Cat and the Fiddle Company, is in the city today. He completed contracts for the musical company to appear here next Thursday night, January 21st.

The Music Club will meet at the home of Miss Maude Munger next Monday, January 18th, at 8 p. m.

Misses Annie Duncan and Etta Perry, of Raleigh, N. C., are visitors in the city and are the guests of Mrs. Frank Perry, on Middle street.

Mr. A. B. Morris, wife and seven children, arrived in New Bern this morning on the east bound Norfolk and Southern train, returning from Utah, where they have been living for the past four years. Mr. Morris and his family are enroute to their old home on Little Swift Creek, about 18 miles from New Bern. The gentleman from Utah says he is sufficiently amused with that State, and that old North Carolina is good enough for him.

Deputy Sheriff J. F. Lucas, of Beaufort county, came over to New Bern, yesterday, to take back a colored prisoner, John Gilmore, who is wanted in that county for the shooting of one, Thomas Flager, on Christmas Eve night. Gilmore was arrested in Craven county and placed in jail here pending the arrival of a Beaufort county officer. The Deputy returned with his prisoner this morning. The shooting took place at Burgaw, and is said to have been the fruits of too much booze, and jealousy over a colored damsel. Flager is seriously wounded in his left chest and at present is in the hospital at Washington, N. C.

The local market was well supplied yesterday evening with fish. New River mullets being the most prominent kind. The wholesale dealers made fairly good shipments by express to several points throughout the State. Oysters are also more plentiful on the market today.

PROGRAM AT AMUSEA TONIGHT.

"The Boston Tea Party"--The struggle for American independence by our forefathers, is something of which we are all proud, and the "Boston Tea Party" is a household word, and familiar to every school child. This picture faithfully depicts those stirring events.

"Captain of the Spy"--The fearful experience of this brave and daring young fellow, is not at all overdrawn. He not only saves his beloved cause, but wins the girl of his choice, who stood by him amid the scenes of his greatest peril.

Orchestra and Illustrated song: "I'd Like to Call You Sweetheart Over Again."

CAPUDINE for "THAT HEADACHE."

Out last night? Headache and nervous this morning? Hicks Capudine is the thing to fit you for business. Clears the head--braces the nervous system. Try it. At drug stores.

This healing, soothing, refreshing action of Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea cleanses and regulates the bowels, tones and purifies the stomach, increases nerve force. Makes you well--keeps you well. Tea or Tablets, 25 cents. Davis Pharmacy.
