GENERAL MADERO APPOINTS CABINET

Headquarters Established at Juarez, National Capitol of Provisional Government

PEACE PREDICTED IN 24 HOURS

If Peace is not Forthcoming "President" Madero Will Be Marching Through Streets of Mexico With Body of 20,000 Revolutionists--The Capture of Mexico City Now Objective Point.

San Antonio, Texas, May 12.—"Unless President Diaz resigns and peace is made at once Gen. Francisco Madero, my brother, chief of the revolutionary movement will be leading a force of 20,000 men through the street in less than a month. This is no idle talk. It is the military plan which he has made."

This statement was made here today by Alfonso Madero, recently a peace emissary.

"The city of Mexico is the objective point," Alfonso said. "My brother as soon as it is definitely determined there shall be no further peace moves will start South, gathering in his soldiers as he goes. It is planned to take Torreon, install a garrison and then head for Chihuahua. There is no question that the insurrectos can take every town as they go and after Chihuahua, it will be march South, capturing all the insurrecto commands from around Saltillo in the main camps and elsewhere. Long before he appears before the gates of Mexico City, my brother's army will be augmented to over 10,000 men."

Juarez, Mexico, May 12.—With Juarez and all its vast stores of rifles, ammunition and machine guns in the hands of the Mexican revolutionists and the rebel leader today turned to the task of forming their government. They gathered for the first time in the provisional capital which tonight rapidly began to assume a peaceful aspect. The appointment of the following members of the provisional cabinet was announced:

- Minister of Foreign Relations, Dr. Vasquez Gomez.
- Finance—Gustavo A. Madero.
- War—Venustiano Carranza.
- Interior—P. Gonzalez Garza.
- Justice—Jose M. Pino Suarez.
- Private Secretary to President Madero—Juan Sanchez A. Socorro.

Gen. Madero has established his headquarters in the one-story municipal building across the street from the big church which was the scene of the fiercest fighting and there during the morning the insurrecto chieftain conferred with his leaders and Gen. Obregon and Bragg who acted as go-betweens in the little negotiations for peace and Dr. Vasquez Gomez, confidential agent of the revolutionists at Washington and their chief peace commissioners who were at the Madero headquarters.

There was an understanding of feeling among the revolutionists last night that peace would be in sight before another 24 hours had passed and that representatives of the Diaz and Madero governments would soon be engaged in the bargaining process.

At 2:30 o'clock merchants, clerks and office boys made their way to the side walks and windows of various buildings to see the clown stunts done by the candidates on the public streets. They were rigged up in all kinds of comical uniforms, some rolling wheel-barrows, kicking foot-balls and doing all kinds of funny stunts.

eral troops are held prisoners. Secretary of War Carranza with have charge of railways and telegraphs. His first act was to grant permission for the repair of the Mexico Northwestern Railroad. Men immediately began repairing the road-bed south of Juarez.

Gonzales Garza will have charge of the mail service. Secretary of the Treasury Medina will direct the affairs of the custom house.

That the insurrecto army is more than an armed mob was shown today in the absence of general looting and intoxication and the quickness with which the shattered city was cleared of its dead and wounded. The embargo against visitors was removed during the day and sight-seers in thousands poured across the bridge from El Paso.

Only occasional cases of looting were reported and these not by the insurrectos themselves but by insatiable curio hunters one of whom triumphantly displayed in El Paso two silver candlesticks taken from the big church in which the Federals made a desperate stand.

The insurrectos are not overlooking the possibility of attack from Col. Chihuahua with a relief force. The rebel leader will not divulge their plans in this direction but it is known that surprise from the south is carefully guarded against. Juarez tonight takes the larger part of Madero's original force of 1,940 men, augmented by several scores of volunteers who during the day enlisted under the banner of the victorious rebel army and were armed with captured rifles.

Now that the battle of Juarez has been fought and won even the insurrecto leader are wondering somewhat at the easiness of the capture of the city that appeared almost impregnable.

With a well drilled force of regulars, thoroughly armed with field and machine guns posted at strategic points the garrison was outfought and outmaneuvered and surrendered to a force of insurrectos that at the most did not number more than 600 or 700 fighting men.

An explanation may be found in the expressions of Federal prisoners. A number of the wounded expressed sympathy with the insurrecto cause while others unwounded but disarmed openly fraternized with the rebels. "The Federals simply would not fight," epitomized the belief in insurrecto ranks.

Pat Scenes One. English John and Pat were two friendly workmen who were constantly filling each other.

"Are you good at measurement?" asked John.

"I am that," said Pat quickly.

"Then could you tell me how many shirts I could get out of a yard?" asked John.

WENDLING MUST SERVE LIFE SENTENCE

Murderer of Little Alma Kellner Loses Appeal

DECISION BY KENTUCKY COURT

Convicted of Murder of Girl in December 1909—Mutilated Body Found in Basement of Church Where Wendling Was Janitor.

Frankfort, Ky., May 12.—Joseph Wendling, convicted of the murder of 8-year-old Alma Kellner, must spend the remainder of his life in prison, according to a decision by the Kentucky Court of Appeals, affirming the life sentence of the lower court.

After a chase which extended from Louisville to New Orleans, to Texas, finally ending in California, Wendling was arrested, tried and convicted of the murder of the Kellner girl in Louisville on December 8, 1909. Her mutilated body was found in the basement of the church where Wendling was employed as a janitor a short time after Wendling had fled from Louisville.

Elks at Durham to Have $100,000 Home.

Durham, May 12.—Architect Frank Milburn, of Washington, who has been employed to draw the plans of the new Elks home in the city, has been here and shown the prospectus of that building.

It is to be a handsome home costing nearly $100,000 and to stand near the Corcoran hotel. It will be of five stories, constructed of pressed brick, beautiful in its symmetrical arrangement and of perfect design for large club meetings. In fact, it appears to be designed to supply all the things that are now needed by the city, but unobtainable without such an institution. For instance there has been considerable clamor of the gentlest nature, however, for the present courthouse largely for such purposes. That will undoubtedly fall down, but the Elks home will be infinitely better and it is to come without much trouble as to location.

Albro-Wood. A very quiet marriage was solemnized yesterday afternoon at two o'clock at 50 Broad street, when Mrs. Annie L. Wood of this city became the bride of Mr. C. H. Albro, of Wilmington.

Mrs. Albro is a life long resident of New Bern and has many friends in the city and surrounding territory. Mr. Albro is an engineer on the A. C. L. road. They left on the 3 o'clock train for an extended trip. The bride was the recipient of many pretty and useful presents. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. C. Schuler, of the Tabernacle Baptist church.

Missionary Society in Session. The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society is holding a four-days session in the Sunday School room of the Centenary Methodist Church.

A large number of delegates are here, and a splendid meeting is being held. Intense interest is being manifested. Last evening's programme was carried out and much work is being accomplished by the Society. The following programme was carried out this morning:

- 1 Devotional Exercises, conducted by Mrs. Street.
- 2 Roll call and Minutes read.
- 3 Reports of Officers acted upon.
- 4 Reports from Districts.
- 5 "The Churches Opportunity in Korea," Paper read by Mrs. Beattie T. Shaw.
- 6 Second Table Discussion.
- 7 Closing Prayer Service, conducted by Mrs. Street.

OLD COTTON WILL BRING HIGH PRICES

Frank Hayne is Predicting Higher Prices

JULY TOUCHED 15.81 YESTERDAY

The Rise Was Attended With Little or No Excitement—May Deliveries of Spots Will Amount to 20,000 Bales—Details.

New Orleans, La., May 12.—Steady buying but the price of old crop cotton to new high levels for the season yesterday, July touching 15.81 toward the end of the session in the local market. At this level July was 22 points or a little more than a dollar a bale over yesterday's close. The rise was attended with little or no excitement, and at no time did the leading bulls attempt to boost things. There was little cotton for sale and buyers bid prices up on themselves in securing what they wanted.

Back of the rise was the strength of the statistical position, but what really touched it off was the forecast of colder and unsettled weather in the western half of the cotton belt. For some days conditions have been very favorable in the cotton belt and the fear that these conditions might be reversed caused great nervousness among shorts.

The belief locally is that the bull crowd are in a position to make shorts pay a high price for covers. On the near side there are rumors of heavy lenders of cotton.

It is claimed that May deliveries of spots will amount to 20,000 bales. Frank B. Hayne, who is leading the local bull forces is predicting higher prices. Day after day he announces his willingness to take all the May and July cotton the ring will sell him.

$750 Yearly Pay For Wife of Oklahoman.

Chickasha, Ok., May 11.—Before Susanna Connor married Ansel Comes in Kansas City, October 27, they went to an attorney and entered into a prenuptial contract which was to be effective only when a divorce was applied for. The contract is now on file in the Superior Court of this county, Comes having applied for a divorce.

The contract says: "If the parties hereto find that married life together is not desirable and that separation either legal or otherwise is desirable, then Susanna Connor shall have $750 for each year she lives with the defendant, and her rightful share of all estate that may come to this couple."

Comes, in his application for a divorce, claims his wife was constantly afraid she would spend his earnings so she would not be able to obtain $750 for each year she lived with him.

Judge Couldn't See Diminutive Culprit.

New York, May 11.—"Well, what have you to say to the charge?" asked Magistrate O'Connor in the Night Court.

Hearing no reply he looked in the direction of the spot where the prisoner usually stands.

"Where's the prisoner?" he asked Policeman Shaw.

"Stand back," Shaw ordered the prisoner.

The Magistrate looked and gasped. He saw a man who said he was Chas. Gilmore, fifty years old, with no home. His height is thirty-five inches.

The subject was charged with being intoxicated at Bowery and Pell street. Magistrate O'Connor fined him $15.

NEW BERN IS GIVEN TO SHRINERS

The Whole City is Theirs For Two Days-- Many Social Functions For Their Pleasure

LONG PARADE THIS AFTERNOON

Banquet Tonight at Armory--Business Session at Opera House--Supper in Lodge Room After Business Session--Elks Give Reception Tomorrow Night--One Shriner Arrested and put Under $100 Bond.

Marries Ex-Wife and Saves His $4,000.

Salsbury, N. H., May 11.—Charles Shaw, a farmer, now fifty-five years of age, met Sarah Wells, twenty-five years ago, and she became his housekeeper. Fifteen years ago she sued to recover payment for services and he filed a countersuit. The lawsuits were settled by their deciding to marry.

Mrs. Shaw recently sued for divorce and received a decree and a judgment for $4,000 against Shaw. Shaw exchanged his role of defendant for that of lover, and pleaded his cause so successful that George E. Fellows, a Justice of the Peace, was called on to perform a marriage ceremony. Shaw still has his $4,000. The bride is now seventy years of age.

2,500 Cigar Makers Strike.

Tampa, Fla., May 12.—As a result of a mass meeting at which indignation was expressed over the confirmation of the sentences of Jose D. La Campa, Brit Russell and J. F. Bartlum, three alleged leaders of the recent tobacco troubles, 2,500 tobacco workers declared a strike. About 20 per cent. of the number went out yesterday. The men announced they would not return to work until the ruling of the court was rescinded.

Trade Report.

Richmond, Va., May 12.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say for Richmond and vicinity:

Continued cool weather through the majority of the week has continued to retard trade; though retail trade has shown slightly more activity during the last three days of the week. Reports from all sections of the district are to the effect that all farming operations are late although planters have prepared for an increased acreage of cotton. Paints and oils are active. Manufacturers of trunks and bags report orders sufficient to demand full time operations. Dry goods and shoes are quiet. Manufacturers of tobacco and cigars report less activity than is usual at this season. Provisions and meats are moving in fair volume. Poultry and eggs show little activity. Building, generally is not active. Railroad reports, with few exceptions are slow decreased receipts. Collections are slow.

The Council at Fayetteville.

Delegates and all those who will attend the Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of East Carolina, which will meet in Fayetteville Saturday May 20th, are requested by Rev. F. N. Skinner, Secretary of the Council to obtain receipts when purchasing tickets to Fayetteville, so that they may secure reduced rates returning home. No reduction on return tickets will be allowed unless two hundred are in attendance at the Council.

The Shriners are here. There are several hundred delegates on the grounds and they are having a big time. The city is theirs—a cordial invitation has been extended them and they are taking advantage of the invitation and having a glorious time. One of the poor fellows met with hard luck this morning. While walking down the street he unfortunately picked up a small parcel lying on the pavement. He was immediately arrested and carried before a judge at the city hall, who placed the visiting Shriner under a bond for his appearance to the higher court.

That stunt, however, did not mar the pleasure of the other visiting brothers. This morning at 9:30 about forty Shriners in full uniform arrived in the city on a special train from Charlotte accompanied by a drum corps. This delegation is known as the Arab Patrol, and tonight will administer to the candidates the degree work. This work will be given on the stage at the Masonic Opera House. A number of social features will add much to the pleasure of the visitors.

A reception will be given tomorrow night in the Elks Lodge rooms to the visiting ladies and from 7:30 to 9 o'clock tonight a banquet will be served to the Shriners in the Armory of the First Coast Artillery Company.

After the business session of the Lodge at the Opera House, a supper will be served in the Masonic Lodge room. Tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock the local Shriners will give the visitors a sail down Neuse river. The boats to be used for this occasion will be the U. S. S. Elfrida, and the Revenue Cutter. The Washington band will furnish music for the street parade.

In honor of their visit to our city every arrangement possible has been made for their comfort and pleasure. The city has donned gala attire. The line of march for this afternoon of the Arab Patrol of Oasis and candidates, followed by Nobles in regulation attire, will be as follows: From the Gaston Hotel they will go to Middle street, up Middle to Broad, Broad to George, George to Queen, Queen to Johnson, Johnson to Middle, Middle to Broad, Broad to Craven, Craven to South Front, South Front to East Front, East Front to Pollock, Pollock to Middle, Middle to Gaston Hotel.

At 2:30 o'clock merchants, clerks and office boys made their way to the side walks and windows of various buildings to see the clown stunts done by the candidates on the public streets. They were rigged up in all kinds of comical uniforms, some rolling wheel-barrows, kicking foot-balls and doing all kinds of funny stunts.

Getting Inside Information.

"Your lodgers complain that you read their letters."

"Well I can't ask them questions about their private affairs. That would be very indiscreet."—Palo Alto.
